What led Shakespeare to write his most cryptic poem The Phoenix and Turtle Could the Phoenix represent Queen Elizabeth on the verge of death as Shakespeare wrote Is the Earl of Essex recently executed for treason the Turtledove lover of the Phoenix Questions such as these dominate scholarship of both Shakespeare's poem and the book in which it first appeared Robert Chester's enigmatic collection of verse Love's Martyr 1601 where Shakespeare's allegory sits next to erotic love lyrics by Ben Jonson George Chapman and John Marston as well as work by the much lesser known Chester Don Rodrigues critiques and revises traditional computational attribution studies by integrating the insights of queer theory to a study of Love's Martyr A book deeply engaged in current debates in computational literary studies it is particularly attuned to questions of non normativity deviation and departures from style when assessing stylistic patterns Gathering insights from decades of computational and traditional analyses it presents most radically data that supports the once outlandish theory that Shakespeare may have had a significant hand in editing works signed by Chester At the same time this book insists on the fundamentally collaborative nature of production in Love's Martyr Developing a compelling account of how collaborative textual production could work among early modern writers Shakespeare's Queer Analytics is a much needed methodological intervention in computational attribution studies It articulates what Rodrigues describes as queer analytics an approach to literary analysis that joins the non normative close reading of queer theory to the distant attention of computational literary studies highlighting patterns that traditional readings often overlook or ignore English Literature William Joseph Long, 1909 Technically Alive J. Archer, 2012-12-05 Drawing on the later writings of Martin Heidegger the book traces the correspondence between the philosopher's concept of technology and Shakespeare's poetics of human and natural productivity in the Sonnets The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne, 2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4.2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne's time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume's companions Volume 4.1 and Volume 4.3
