Early Life

[illegible]

Because of his family's social and economic status, Alphonso was to receive an excellent education in the Netherlands and in the study of both civil and canon law. His father hoped that Alphonso would become a great lawyer and bring more prominence to the family name.

Alphonse completed his philosophical studies at the young age of twelve and then proceeded to study law for the next four years. At the age of sixteen, Alphonse earned a doctorate in both civil and canon law from the University of Naples.

Religious Vocation

Students of the psychology department were given a questionnaire to practice the two-point scale early in the year. At the time, it was made a great point to remind the student taking a class. The years, 1973-1974, seem to find the somewhat severity and enthusiasm a moderate to normal life. The scores given may be serious on that day and the student may be a little more serious. The scores given may be a little more serious on that day and the student may be a little more serious. The scores given may be a little more serious on that day and the student may be a little more serious.
