Frederik Pohl Michael R Page,2015-09-30 One of science fiction's undisputed grandmasters Frederik Pohl built an astonishing career that spanned more than seven decades Along the way he won millions of readers and seemingly as many awards while producing novels short stories and essays that left a profound mark on the genre In this first of its kind study Michael R Page traces Pohl's journey as an author but also uncovers his role as a transformative figure who shaped the genre as a literary agent book editor and in Gardner Dozois's words quite probably the best SF magazine editor who ever lived

Forever Man Ed Booth,2016-02-19 The year is AD 100 and in the cruel lands between Rome and the Cold Sea an orphan boy meets a man named John the Revelator a man who will change his life forever John speaks with the power of Christ and the orphan finds the conversation fascinating John finds a kindred spirit in the young boy made even more apparent when John hands the mantle of Christ off to the young man and dubs him Christian With his newfound title Christian begins to realize that time and decay no longer touch him Unlike other men of his world Christian does not appear to age Perhaps he is even incapable of dying He sets off into harsh outer lands spreading the word of Christ as John instructed It is during his travels that Christian comes upon the Lord at the edge of an abyss only then does he discover his true purpose in the name of God Christian will stand as witness to mankind until Christ returns to Earth A historian of sorts Christian's life will span generations he will act as exhorter and witness awaiting the Lord's arrival As Christian comes to terms with his new existence a battle of good versus evil rages nearby Will Christian enter the battle Is he really incapable of death Or will Christ's return come much sooner than planned

Platinum Pohl Frederik Pohl,2007-01-23 Frederik Pohl the bestselling author of The Boy Who Would Live Forever is famous for his novels but first and foremost he is a master of the science fiction short story For more than fifty years he has been writing incisive entertaining SF stories several hundred in all Even while writing his bestselling triple crown Hugo Nebula Campbell Award novel Gateway and the other Heechee Saga novels he has always written short fiction Now for the first time he has gathered together the best of his many stories in Platinum Pohl Spanning the decades these tales are in their way a living history of science fiction Because Frederik Pohl has been on the frontlines of the field since the halcyon days of the late 1930s and has written short stories in every decade since And because he has always been a keen observer of the human condition and the world that is shaped by it his stories reflect the currents of political movements social trends major events that have shaken the world Yet at their core all his stories are most acutely concerned with people All sorts of people Some are people you'll love some you'll hate But you will need to find out what happens to the people who inhabit these stories Because Frederik Pohl imbues his characters with a depth and individuality that makes them as real as people you see every day Of course he also employs a mind boggling variety of scientific ideas and science fictional tropes with which his characters must interact And he does it all with seemingly no effort at all That's some trick Not everyone can do that but that's why he was named a Grand Master of Science Fiction by his peers in the Science
