The Richard Dyer Reader, 2023-08-10 Richard Dyer is a foundational figure for the critical study of cinema and popular culture. Across a career spanning five decades, he has made path-breaking contributions to our understanding of stardom and celebrity, gay and queer politics, and cultural history, film, music, race, and whiteness, and the pleasures of popular entertainment. The Richard Dyer Reader brings together for the first time key writings by this vital and influential figure, many of which are not otherwise available. The anthology guides readers through Dyer's prolific and rich output through six thematic selections of essays and extracts, each centred on a key theme in Dyer's work: stardom and the image, entertainment and ideology, gay politics and representation, whiteness, the pleasures of popular entertainment, and textual analysis. A seventh section comprises a selection of interviews conducted across the span of his career, as well as a new interview with editors Glyn Davis and Jaap Kooijman. The book will provide an introduction for those new to Dyer's writings, as well as offering a fresh perspective for readers with a more comprehensive knowledge of his work. The collection includes archival and recent pieces of writing, never previously anthologised, newly commissioned essays, a substantial introduction to Dyer's life and work, and framing introductions to each section.
