A $olid Foundation Elie Antoine Sehnaoui, P.E., 2015-07-08 Elie Sehnaoui a Loughborough University and MIT trained engineer has written a fascinating and useful primer for young engineers and architects as they prepare to launch their professional careers He distills his long business experience working in Africa the Middle East and Europe into a series of short chapters on contracts public relations project financing real estate development and engineering law Sehnaoui s most powerful and salient piece of advice is that in spite of the spread of globalization and English as the lingua franca of business local traditions and cultures still matter The engineers and architects most likely to succeed will be those who bother to familiarize themselves with the language and customs of the country or region in which they work Civil engineers and designers can do no better than to carry this valuable field guide with them as they move from country to country and project to project Professor Philip S Khoury Associate Provost Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Voices from the Soviet Edge Jeff Sahadeo, 2019-06-15 Jeff Sahadeo reveals the complex and fascinating stories of migrant populations in Leningrad and Moscow Voices from the Soviet Edge focuses on the hundreds of thousands of Uzbeks Tajiks Georgians Azerbaijanis and others who arrived toward the end of the Soviet era seeking opportunity at the privileged heart of the USSR Through the extensive oral histories Sahadeo has collected he shows how the energy of these migrants denigrated as Blacks by some Russians transformed their families lives and created inter republican networks altering society and community in both the center and the periphery of life in the two capitals Voices from the Soviet Edge connects Leningrad and Moscow to transnational trends of core periphery movement and marks them as global cities In examining Soviet concepts such as friendship of peoples alongside ethnic and national differences Sahadeo shows how those ideas became racialized but could also be deployed to advance migrant aspirations He exposes the Brezhnev era as a time of dynamism and opportunity and Leningrad and Moscow not as isolated outposts of privilege but at the heart of any number of systems that linked the disparate regions of the USSR into a whole In the 1980s as the Soviet Union crumbled migration increased These later migrants were the forbears of contemporary Muslims from former Soviet spaces who now confront significant discrimination in European Russia As Sahadeo demonstrates the two cities benefited from 1980s migration but also became communities where racism and exclusion coexisted with citizenship and Soviet identity Everybody's ,1928 Everybody's Magazine ,1928 Scimitar's Edge Marvin Olasky,2006 A wealthy Christian widow her assistant and her nephew and his former college roommate become the target of a terrorist s kidnapping plot while on a tourist and archeological trip to Turkey University of Virginia Magazine ,1871 The Edge of Dreams Rhys Bowen,2015-03-03 From the author of In Farleigh Field Molly Murphy Sullivan s husband Daniel a captain in the New York City police force is stumped He s chasing a murderer whose victims have nothing in common nothing except for the taunting notes that are delivered to Daniel after each murder And when Daniel receives a note immediately after Molly and her young son Liam are in a terrible train crash Daniel and Molly both begin to fear that maybe Molly herself was the target Molly s detective instincts are humming but finding the time to dig deeper into this case is a challenge She s healing from injuries sustained in the crash and also sidetracked by her friends Sid and Gus s most recent hobby dream analysis And when Molly herself starts suffering from strange dreams she wonders if they just might hold the key to solving Daniel s murder case Rhys Bowen s characteristic blend of atmospheric turn of the century history clever plotting and sparkling characters will delight readers in The Edge of Dreams from her bestselling Molly Murphy series The University of Virginia Magazine ,1915 Leland Stanford Junior University Publications.
