

I short I became a new man, and lived a man's life.
From that memorable night, I dismissed forever my apprehensions, and with them vanished the cataleptic disorder, of which, perhaps, they had been less the consequence than the cause.

monastic founders Jane de Chantal and Francis de Sales By profession he is a clinical psychologist and doctor of Chinese medicine on top of his fascination with the two sixteenth century religious figures It is during one of his many academic and charitable trips to China far from his home and life in Pennsylvania when the unthinkable happens Four hundred year old ancient parchments have mysteriously come into his hands An avid researcher and historian O'Neil knows these parchments are special but on closer inspection he realizes they are much more than special they may be the authentic texts penned years before by de Chantal and de Sales With his new acquisition O'Neil also receives a strong feeling of foreboding that transcends time Something happened to de Chantal and de Sales They were involved in an ancient mystery as yet unsolved Perhaps O'Neil who knows their work so well will unravel the mystery of his spiritual mother and father He's good at solving puzzles but how good is he at staying alive as the parchments seem to bring danger to his doorstep Will the ancient pages end in murder abroad Or will the danger follow him back home to Pennsylvania Goddess of Night Joleene
