Man Who Lost Himself The Terry Evanshen Story

Alvin H. Marill

Man Who Lost Himself The Terry Evanshen Story:

The Man who Lost Himself June Callwood, Terry Evanshen, 2000 On July 4 1988 CFL Hall of Famer Terry Evanshen was a happily married father of three with a successful second career in sales The day was sunny and hot and Evanshen was driving his new Jeep Cherokee heading home to join his family for a barbecue when a van running a stoplight smashed into his vehicle For two weeks Evanshen was in a coma close to death His brain had been bashed around inside his skull and starved of oxygen for a crucial few moments When he awoke he did not recognize his wife Lorraine or his daughters or his friends He did not know who he was Every memory of his life until the accident had been destroyed his ability to remember new things wiped out and his personality largely annihilated The football player who had fumbled the ball only three times in his fourteen year career now could not catch at all In The Man Who Lost Himself June Callwood describes Evanshen's slow difficult struggle to build a sense of who he is The compelling story she tells is about how the exceptionally strong love of his wife and daughters and dog Rebel helped Evanshen through long years of frustration and rage It's a story about how the brain works and the effects of brain damage on personality and identity It's a story about how today Terry Evanshen is managing a third successful career giving motivational speeches at conventions and company gatherings telling his audience how he overcame perhaps the most immense obstacle anyone could ever face The Man Who Lost Himself is a fascinating and inspiring and unflinchingly honest story told by one of Canada's most skilful and compassionate writers June Callwood Anne Dublin, 2006-01-01 A biography for young readers on the inspiring life of June Callwood one of Canada's greatest journalists and humanitarians Filled with images and details of June's life from her humble beginnings in small town Ontario to her work as a journalist where she interviewed Elvis to her founding of Jessie's house a place to provide support and housing for teen parents Her love for life and her desire to help others will inspire young readers who want to make their world a better place Movies Made for Television Alvin H. Marill, 2010-10-11 In 2005 Scarecrow published Movies Made for Television 1964 2004 a five volume reference set commemorating 40 years of every made for TV film since See How They Run debuted in 1964 These books provided a comprehensive listing of every television film and mini series detailing each film's original network airdate and length of broadcast In this latest volume Marill adds another five years of television films providing information for an additional 400 works produced between 2005 and 2009 Along with a brief summary entries also include extensive production credits director writer producer composer director of photography and editor and a complete cast and character listing With a chronology of the films an appendix of movies adapted from other sources and separate indexes for actors and directors Movies Made for Television 2005 2009 is a welcome addition to a resource highly regarded by scholars and historians of television and popular culture Blank Trina St. Jean, 2015-04-01 When Jessica wakes up from a coma she has no memories of her life before the accident at her family's bison ranch As she struggles to reconnect with her family and friends she experiences all the signs of traumatic brain injury confusion sadness fear and rage Returning to school is a nightmare especially when she overhears someone say he thinks she is faking her amnesia When a new friend presents an alternative to staying in her old life Jessica must confront the reality of what it means to leave her past behind

International Sport: A Bibliography, 2000 Richard William Cox,2013-10-23 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new
