to operate nearly every field weapon in the American and German arsenals and how to kill with their bare hands After the Norway plan is scrapped the FSSF is dispatched to Italy and given its first test to seize a key German mountain top position which had repelled the brunt of the Allied armies for over a month In a reprise of the audacity and careful planning that won Vimy Ridge for the Canadians in WWI the FSSF takes the twin peaks Monte la Difensa and Monte la Remetanea by storming the supposedly unscalable rock face at the rear of the German position and opens the way through the mountains Later the FSSF will hold one quarter of the Anzio beachhead against a vastly superior German force for ninety nine days a force of only 1 200 commandos does the work of a full division of over 17 000 troops Though badly outnumbered the FSSF takes the fight to the Germans sending nighttime patrols behind enemy lines and taking prisoners It is here that they come to be known among the dispirited Germans as Schwartzers Teufel Black Devils for their black camouflage face paint and their terrifying tactic of appearing out of the darkness John Nadler vividly captures the savagery of the Italian campaign fought as it was at close quarters and with desperate resolve and the deeply human experiences of the individual men called upon to fight it Based on extensive archival research and interviews with veterans A Perfect Hell is an important contribution to Canadian military history and an indispensable account of the lives and battlefield exploits of the men who turned the tide of the Second World War
