Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 Management Information Systems with Misource V2 and Powerweb Gregory O'Brien, 2003-06 Management Information Systems with PowerWeb for MIS Stephen Haag, Maeve Cummings, Donald J. McCubbrey, 2001-11 Management Information Systems for the Information Age 3rd edition maintains the unique overall approach of the successful second edition the right mix of traditional and leading edge topical coverage along with LOTS of hands on problem solving projects Haag works well for professors and students who want a very interactive engaging experience and for those who want to see a strong tie to the latest and greatest on the Internet and corresponding textbook website Haag is equally appropriate for both business and non business majors This revision now clearly distinguishes between technical and managerial topics key to MIS by organizing the technology coverage into Modules and the managerial material into Chapters In response to feedback from both users and non users the chapters have been slightly reorganized to incorporate increased coverage of E Commerce and E Business now a full chapter 5 Pedagogical features have been retained but fine tuned and the vibrant design has been toned down to reflect fewer features on a page

Management Information Systems. Gregory O'Brien, James A. O'Brien, 2003-04 O'Brien fits best with more traditional instructors who want the most current text but one that doesn't depart much from a traditional topic outline competitive advantage hardware software database management telecom etc Instructors who assign or use real world case studies in their courses also would be good candidates for O'Brien This text has more case studies and theory throughout making it most appropriate for upper level business students who are or will become managers entrepreneurs and business professionals because the case theory approach will improve a user's decision making ability in the fast changing real world of global business
