Management Of Park And Recreational Agencies:

Management of Park and Recreation Agencies Merry Lynn Moiseichik, 2016 Management of Park and Recreation Agencies is sponsored by the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies CAPRA in order to share with professionals now and in the future the desirable practices of the profession embodied in the National Accreditation Standards for park and recreation agencies. These standards are used as the guideline for what should be included in the book. Each chapter addresses specific standards needed for accreditation. The purpose of the book is to help administrators of every area of parks and recreation including those in for profit nonprofit commercial and public operations. The emphasis is on public park and recreation agencies because those are the agencies for which the standards were written. However each standard can be used by any agency that provides park and recreation facilities programs or services. It is geared to managers and what they need to know not to the program or maintenance supervisors. Cost-cutting Strategies for the Park and Recreation Agency, 1983

First Published in 2011. This book is a study of an expanding National Park System; it is also a study of the bureaucracy that shaped it, how it grew, and the stresses it faces. As Dr. Foresta shows, the Park Service is no stranger to controversy and change. One of the Service's strengths has been its pragmatism and adaptability, but current guidelines are hard to come by, and the decisions of the future will be neither simple nor easy. This study is valuable not only for its analysis but for the informed, revealing picture it presents of an agency and a system that have enriched the lives of countless citizens and visitors to this country. Federal Register, 1979-05 Creative Management in Recreation and Parks Richard G.
