breakthrough handbook for mental health professionals and educators offers practical hands on information for conducting assessments and providing treatments that take the entire family system into account Rich with research that shows women are abusive within relationships at rates comparable to men the book eschews the field s reliance on traditional domestic violence theory and treatment which favors violence interventions for men and victim services for women and ignores the dynamics of the majority of violent relationships Thus the author identifies and measures protocols that help practitioners make accurate assessments for both men and women and then carefully selects the treatment modality and curricula for group couples and or individual work that will help clients break their particular cycle of violence while ensuring victim safety The Emotionally Abused and Neglected Child Dorota Iwaniec, 2006-05-01 Emotional abuse and neglect are at the core of all types of child maltreatment and have the most harmful effects on the physical and psychological development and well being of children Yet they are considered to be the most difficult to deal with by those who have the responsibility to protect and intervene in effective ways In this book the author explores the concept of a damaged child and asks what are the different types of injury ranging from active to passive physical to emotional that stop children from reaching their full potential psychologically and physically The author questions whether emotional damage to a child can be repaired and answers questions such as Is some injury irreversible What therapeutic techniques are available to deal with emotional abuse Can the abusers as well as the abused be helped to change Case studies are provided to illustrate the features of emotional abuse and chapters are devoted to the assessment and prediction of emotional abuse effects of emotional abuse as the child grows up intervention and treatment and working with the family as a whole The Adolescent Psychotherapy
