Managing A Company In An Activist World The Leadership Challenge Of Corporate Citizenship:

Managing a Company in an Activist World Edmund M. Burke, 2005-02-28 Against a backdrop of corporate scandal business leaders can no longer rely on the old fashioned style of one sided community relations programs to promote a good image Nor can they expect preferential treatment just because they meet their tax obligations Pressure from all sides is forcing corporate leaders to increase their investments in the communities they serve and redefining their relationships with key stakeholder groups including employees suppliers governing boards shareholders and the press Safeguarding the environment supporting human rights eliminating child labor entering into partnerships with nonprofit organizations solving community problems opening up financial reports to scrutiny consulting with community residents and contributing to local charities are now essential elements of corporate character Managing a Company in an Activist World takes the discussion of corporate citizenship to a new practical level offering business leaders answers to such tough questions as What do our stakeholders value most How can we respond to a growing number of formal compliances and informal demands How do we most effectively communicate our role as a good corporate citizen And perhaps most importantly how can we shake off inertia public skepticism and short term focus to make corporate citizenship a priority without sacrificing growth and profits Illustrating the depth and breadth of the issues through a variety of in depth examples from Jesse Jackson s threatened boycott of Anheuser Busch to rural Virginians uprising against Disney s proposed theme park to energy giant BC Hydro s successful response to environmentalists concerns Burke demonstrates how community involvement can influence corporate strategy to everyone s net benefit He goes on to outline specific strategies that corporate leaders can employ to shake off inertia public skepticism and short term focus to make corporate citizenship a priority without sacrificing growth and profits

Butler, 2008-01-14 Social cognitive neuroscience is an emerging branch of cognitive neuroscience that bridges together social psychology and neuroscience At its core is an understanding of the relationship between the brain and social interaction The social cognitive neuroscientist places empirical endeavor within a three stage framework and questions falling under the SCN rubric undergo interrogation at each of these three levels Firstly we seek to understand a neuroscience of social interactions at the social level Here we need to understand the motivational and other social factors that drive our behavior and experience in the real world It goes without saying that any study of the cognitive neuroscience of socially interactive behavior must first be informed by social psychological theory to maintain ecological validity Second the social cognitive neuroscientist must be an adroit cognitive psychologist and be able to examine interactive behavior from the cognitive level It is here that information processing models and theories are applied to the understanding of our social behavior Finally studies at the neural level seek to inform us about the cortical structures as well as the way they interact with other in the mediation of the previous cognitive level This volume brings together contributions from leading thinkers in both the social cognitive neurosciences and business to provide a comprehensive introduction and overview of a social cognitive neuroscience of the business brain NOTE Annals volumes are available for sale as individual books or as a journal For information on institutional journal subscriptions please visit www blackwellpublishing com nyas ACADEMY MEMBERS Please contact the New York Academy of Sciences directly to place your order www nyas org Members of the New York Academy of Science receive full text access to the Annals online and discounts on print volumes Please visit http www nyas org MemberCenter Join.aspx for more information about becoming a member
