A church in the heart of Manhattan and a congregation among the Inuit people of Northern Canada would seem to have little in common with one another. Yet in one way they are surprisingly similar. They are both apostolic congregations, churches whose every program exists for the purpose of presenting the gospel to non-Christians and making disciples of Jesus Christ. What is the secret of churches like these? How have they learned to make evangelism central to everything they do? In studying apostolic congregations around the world, George G. Hunter III has discovered a set of perspectives and practices that they all share. With the passion and insight for which he is so well known, Hunter demonstrates how your congregation can learn to focus on the one thing that most matters: bringing people into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ. 23rd European Conference on Knowledge Management Vol 1 Piera
