Mans Freedom:

The New Man Thomas Merton,1999-11-29 The New Man shows Thomas Merton at the height of his powers and has as its theme the question of spiritual identity What must we do to recover possession of our true selves By way of an answer Merton discusses how we have become strangers to ourselves by our depece on outward identity and success while our real need is for a concern with the image of God in ourselves At a time of retrieval of our religious traditions Merton s voice is both intelligent and spiritually compelling Thomas Merton a Trappist monk is perhaps the foremost spiritual thinker of the twentiethcentury His diaries social commentary and spiritual writings continue to be widely read after his untimely death in 1968

Behold the Man Harold Burke-Sivers,2015-09-22 Lucid and inspiring Behold the Man is a unique exploration of Catholic spirituality for men Much of the literature written for Catholic men focuses on topical issues such as fatherhood and sexuality While this book does not exclude these subjects it is the first to present a comprehensive picture of Catholic male spirituality What is authentic male Catholic spirituality What distinguishes it from Protestant male spirituality How does masculine spirituality complement feminine spirituality These questions and many more are answered in this book Drawing from Scripture and Church teaching the author roots Catholic male spirituality in a covenant relationship with God and the cross of Jesus Christ He demonstrates that when a man embraces the cross he is truly able to be himself the man that God created and calls him to be Behold the Man can deepen a man s experience of Christ and help him to know the Lord more intimately

America on Trial, Expanded Edition Robert Reilly,2022-02-01 The Founding of the American Republic is on trial Critics say it was a poison pill with a time release formula we are its victims Its principles are responsible for the country s moral and social disintegration because they were based on the Enlightenment falsehood of radical individual autonomy In this well researched book Robert Reilly declares not guilty To prove his case he traces the lineage of the ideas that made the United States and its ordered liberty possible These concepts were extraordinary when they first burst upon the ancient world the Judaic oneness of God who creates ex nihilo and imprints his image on man the Greek rational order of the world based upon the Reason behind it and the Christian arrival of that Reason Logos incarnate in Christ These may seem a long way from the American Founding but Reilly argues that they are in fact its bedrock Combined they mandated the exercise of both freedom and reason

The Sophiology of Death Sergius Bulgakov,James Clarke & Co,2023-10-26 In this book called The Sophiology of Death Essays on Eschatology you can findthe answer of these questions What will be the final destiny of humanity At God s final judgement will all be saved or only a few How does Christian eschatology affect Christian political action in the here and now And what is the destiny of each individual facing the prospect of earthly death In these essays Sergius Bulgakov brings the resources of scripture and tradition to bear on these vital questions arguing for the magnificent final restoration of all creatures to union with God in a universal salvation worthy of the infinite scope of Christ's redemption. Combining practical theology with doctrinal questions Bulgakov provides on the one hand insight into how Christians can strive to bring God's kingdom to earth in anticipation of the peace and justice of the heavenly Jerusalem. On the other he offers profound theological reflections on the nature of human death and Christ's accompaniment of all humans in their dying based on his own near death experience. Although originating firmly within the Russian Orthodox tradition Bulgakov's sensitive and incisive writing will shed new light for all on eschatology in all its facets: personal, political, and universal.

The Origins of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Understanding life through its origins reveals the groundwork underlying the differentiations of its autonomous generative matrixes. Following the primogenital matrix of generation the three generative matrixes of the specifically human sense of life establish humanness within the creative human condition as the existential sphere of sharing in life.

Kierkegaard Louis Mackey, 2016-11-11 Søren Aabye Kierkegaard 1813-1855 has traditionally been considered a philosopher or religious thinker. But to himself he was a kind of poet and thinker. If Kierkegaard then writes Louis Mackey is to be understood he must be studied with the tools of literary criticism whatever philosophy there is in Kierkegaard is sacramentally transmitted in and under poetry. The study of Kierkegaard states Louis Mackey can throw new light on the relationship between philosophy and poetry. In these impressive analyses of Kierkegaard's most important works a modern philosopher has written a book that is in itself a work of literary grace and distinction.

Contemporary Political Theory J. C. Johari, 1987

Angelic Wisdom About Divine Providence Emanuel Swedenborg, 2006-01-01 The reader will find in this book a firm assurance of God's care of mankind as a whole and of each human being. The assurance is rested in God's infinite love and wisdom: the love pure mercy; the wisdom giving love its ways and means. It is further grounded in an interpretation of the universe as a spiritual natural world, an interpretation fully set forth in the earlier book Divine Love and Wisdom on which the present work draws heavily. As there is a world of the spirit no view of providence can be adequate which does not take that world into account. For in that world must be channels for the outreach of God's care to the human spirit. There also any eternal goal such as a heaven from the human race must exist. A view of providence limited to the horizons of the passing existence can hardly resemble the care which the eternal God takes of men and women who besides possessing perishable bodies are themselves creatures of the spirit and immortal. The full title of the book Angelic Wisdom about Divine Providence implies that its author in an other world experience had at hand the knowledge which men and women in heaven have of God's care. Who should know the divine guidance if not the men and women in heaven who have obviously enjoyed it. The laws of divine providence hitherto hidden with angels in their wisdom are to be revealed now. As it is presented in this book providence seeks to engage man in its purposes and to enlist all his faculties his freedom and reason his will and understanding his prudence and enterprise It acts first of all on his volitions and thinking to align them with itself That it falls directly on history its events and our circumstances is a superficial view It is man s inner life which first feels the omnipresent divine influence and must do so If we cannot be lifted to our best selves and if our aims and outlook cannot be modified for the better how shall the world be bettered which we affect to handle Paramount in God s presence with all men if only in their possibilities is His providential care This care to which man s inner life is open is alert every moment not occasional It is gentle and not tyrannical constantly respecting man s freedom and reason otherwise losing him as a human being It has set this and other laws for itself which it pursues undeviatingly The larger part of the book is an exposition of these laws in the conviction that by them the nature of providence is best seen Is it not to be expected in a universe which has its laws and in which impersonal forces are governed by laws that the Creator of all should pursue laws in His concern with the lives of conscious beings To fit a world of laws must not the divine care have its laws too Adjustment of thought about divine providence to scientific thought is not the overriding necessity for scientific thought must keep adjusting to laws which it discerns in the physical world In consonance religious thought seeks to learn the lawful order in the guidance of the human spirit Do not each and all things in tree or shrub proceed constantly and wonderfully from purpose to purpose according to the laws of their order of things Why should not the supreme purpose a heaven from the human race proceed in similar fashion Can there be anything in its progress which does not proceed with all constancy according to the laws of divine providence An International Bill of the Rights of Man Hersch

Lauterpacht,2013-08-08 An International Bill of the Rights of Man first published in 1945 is one of the seminal works on international human rights law Its author Sir Hersch Lauterpacht is widely considered to be one of the great international lawyers of the 20th century It continues to influence those studying and working in international human rights law today It includes Professor Lauterpacht s study of natural law and natural right and Professor Lauterpacht s own draft Bill of Human Rights This republication once again makes this book available to scholars and students in the field It features a new introduction by Professor Philippe Sands QC examining the world in which An International Bill of the Rights of Man was originally published and the lasting legacy of this classic work Karl Barth David L. Mueller,David Livingstone

Mueller,2016-03-30 Karl Barth s work especially The Epistle to the Romans and Church Dogmatics changed the direction of modern theology He has been called a modern church father In this brief survey Mueller one of his students at the University of Basel discusses Barth s life and thought theological development central convictions major concerns and creative handling of difficult areas About the Makers of the Modern Theological Mind series Who are the thinkers that have shaped Christian theology in our time This series tries to answer that question by providing a reliable guide to the ideas of the men who have significantly charted the theological seas of our century Each major theologian is examined carefully and critically his life his theological method his most germinal ideas his weaknesses as a thinker his place in the theological spectrum and his chief

Wrestling with God Steven T. Katz,Shlomo Biderman,Gershon Greenberg,2007-01-04 This volume presents a wide ranging selection of Jewish theological responses to the Holocaust It will be the most complete anthology of its sort bringing together for the first time 1 a large sample of ultra orthodox writings translated from the Hebrew and Yiddish 2 a substantial selection of essays by Israeli authors also translated from the Hebrew 3 a broad sampling of works written in English by American and European authors These diverse selections represent virtually every significant theological position that has been articulated by a Jewish thinker in response to the Holocaust Included are rarely studied responses that were written while the Holocaust was happening Political Writings Immanuel Kant,1991 First published in 1970 this much acclaimed collection of the political writings of Immanuel Kant has now been revised and expanded for publication in Cambridge Texts in the History of Political Thought Three important texts are translated here for the first time and Professor Reiss has added in addition to an extended bibliography a substantial postscript looking at recent developments in Kantian scholarship and the changes that these have wrought in our understanding of Kant's political thought Divine Election Eduardo J. Echeverria,2016-09-14 This dogmatic study addresses two perennial questions First how do we reconcile God's sovereignty with human freedom not just in general but particularly with respect to the Church's full understanding of God's plan of salvation as a work of grace Second and equally crucial is the question of how we reconcile God's universal salvific will with the mystery of predestination election and reprobation The author of this study does theology within the normative tradition of confessional Catholicism and thus in the light of Catholic teaching But this study is also an ecumenical work indeed a work in receptive ecumenism and hence he listens attentively to the reflections and arguments not only of his fellow Catholic theologians Matthias Joseph Scheeben and Hans Urs von Balthasar but also theologians of the Evangelical and Reformed traditions John Calvin Herman Bavinck Karl Barth and G C Berkouwer This book concludes with a Catholic synthesis regarding the doctrine of divine election in dogmatic and ecumenical perspective Encyclopedia of Ethics: P-W Lawrence C. Becker,Charlotte B. Becker,2001 A revised expanded and updated edition with contributions by 325 renowned authorities in the field of ethics All of the original articles have been newly peer reviewed and revised bibliographies have been updated throughout and the overall design of the work has been enhanced for easier access to cross references and other reference features Faith and History - A Comparison of Christian and Modern Views of History Reinhold Niebuhr,2013-04-18 The theme of this volume was first presented as the Lyman Beecher Lectures On Preaching at the Yale Divinity School in 1945 Some of the same lectures were given by arrangement under the Warrack Lectureship On Preaching at the Universities of Glasgow and Aberdeen in Scotland in the winter of 1947 Some of the chapters were used as the basis of lectures given under the Olaf Petri Foundation of the University of Uppsala in Sweden I sought to develop various portions of a general theme in these various lectureships In this volume I have drawn these lectures into a more comprehensive study of the total problem of the relation of the Christian faith to modern conceptions of history While the total work therefore bares little resemblance to the lectures it does contain consideration of the specific problems which were dealt with in the lectures I shall not seek to identify this material by chapters as I subjected the whole to reorganization Two of these lectureships usually deal with the art of preaching though not a few of the actual lectures have been concerned with the preacher s message Since I had no special competence in the art of homiletics I thought it wise to devote the lectures to a definition of the apologetic task of the Christian pulpit in the unique spiritual climate of our day Since several of the Beecher lecturers in the past half century sought to accommodate the Christian message to the prevailing evolutionary optimism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries I thought it might be particularly appropriate to consider the spiritual situation in a period in which this evolutionary optimism is in the process of decay This volume is written on the basis of the faith that the Gospel of Christ is true for men of every age and that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday today and forever It is nevertheless the task of the pulpit to relate the ageless Gospel to the special problems of each age In doing so however there is always a temptation to capitulate to the characteristic prejudices of an age
