

One down, one to go for Project 21 goals

On May 28, the California Curriculum Commission approved Health and Physical Education frameworks that include accurate reference to lesbians and gays. The Health Framework refers to the gay teen suicide rate and notes that same-sex partnerships are a "family unit." These frameworks will be the basis for California's next generation of health and physical education textbooks. They will not be revised again until the next century.

Of course, all of this was too much to bear for the right-wing bigots who promoted the frameworks at hearings in Sacramento. They pulled out all the stops. They showed carefully edited videotapes of Freedom Day parades, gave detailed descriptions of anal sex, and read a gay newspaper opinion piece extolling pedophilia. But GLAAD's Project 21 and other community groups won the day with our call for fair and factual representation of our lives.

Your letters were instrumental in achieving this historic victory. But we can lose all our gains if the Board of Education decides to reject the recommended frameworks, or to censor mention of sexual orientation. Last year, State Board members did just that, and adopted biased social science texts despite community outrage. Your letters to the State Board are urgently and immediately needed.

Remind the Board that the current Health and Physical Education Frameworks have been approved by the Curriculum Commission despite outrageous protests from hate groups like the Traditional Values Coalition. Remind them that these frameworks simply contain fair, factual and substantiated information, and that educational equity for lesbians and gays is overdue. Please send us copies of your letters.

Write to Joseph Stein, President, and All Members of, California Board of Education, P.O. Box 944272, Sacramento CA 95844-2728.

Also please write to your daily newspaper and ask them to editorially endorse the recommended Health and Physical Education Frameworks. Tell them it's their moral obligation to stand up to groups like the TVC.

Scouts lose backing of major companies

Several organizations have recently stopped donations to the Boy Scouts of America because of the BSA's policy excluding gay scouts and troop leaders. According to official Scout policy, gay men and boys are neither "morally straight" nor "clean in word and deed."

Levi Strauss & Co., Wells Fargo Bank, and the Bank of America have all halted BSA donations. BSA leaders have asked their biggest supporters to flood these companies with complaints denouncing the donation cut-offs. These companies report they've been receiving a lot of homophobic calls, and GLAAD activated its phone tree to support them. They need to hear from you too.

Tell these companies they did the right thing in defunding the Boy Scouts. If you are a customer, be sure to mention it.

DON'T FORGET: PARTY AT DV8

Be sure not to miss "Til Dawn's Early Light," a dance party to benefit GLAAD and Frameline, producers of the San Francisco Lesbian & Gay Film Festival. It happens on Friday, July 2, from 8 p.m. until 6 a.m. at Club DV 8 (55 Natoma) in San Francisco. The event is co-sexual, and tickets are $5 in advance (available at Inyanious, 506 Castro), $8 at the door.
