The Soil Seed Banks of North West Europe Ken Thompson, Jan P. Bakker, Renie M. Bekker, 1997 Buried viable seed banks are a fundamental aspect of seed plant biology They play a key role in the conservation and restoration of plant communities and the response of plants to changing land use and climate There is almost no area of plant ecology in which seed banks are not implicated Despite several recent reviews of the ecology of seed banks there has previously been no single source of data on seed persistence in individual species This volume which compiles the available data from the nineteenth century up to the end of 1993 provides this source for the 1189 members of the northwest European flora The text describes the criteria for inclusion of data and discusses seed classification systems the relative representation of different habitats methods and taxa and challenges for future research Includes PC disc with database in searchable format

Airline Executives and Federal Regulation Walter David Lewis, 2000 This book is a collection of eight case studies of relationships between airline executives and federal regulatory agencies from the passage of the Air Commerce Act in 1926 to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 By focusing on the lives and personalities of individual entrepreneurs W David Lewis and his contributors hope to explore the interaction between technology government regulation and entrepreneurship Each essay in the book focuses on a particular airline executive such as Eddie Rickenbacker Robert Six and Donald Nyrop Lewis has been careful to give a variety of perspective Airlines of various types are represented large and small scheduled and unscheduled

Some of the executives profiled were known for having adversative relationships with federal regulators whereas others wholeheartedly accepted regulation and thrived under it There have been public calls for a return to airline regulation and Lewis thinks it is not inconceivable that regulation may ultimately return if problems continue and conditions deteriorate further But he says it is well to remember that deregulation occurred because there were flaws in the regulatory system it replaced This collection of essays scholarly and well documented but written in a lively style suitable for specialists and nonspecialists alike provides a long range perspective on the issue of airline deregulation

Fanfare ,1980-03 A Heart at Fire's Center Steven C. Smith, 2002-05-31 No composer contributed more to film than Bernard Herrmann who in over 40 scores enriched the work of such directors as Orson Welles Alfred Hitchcock Francois Truffaut and Martin Scorsese In this first major biography of the composer Steven C Smith explores the interrelationships between Herrmann's music and his turbulent personal life using much previously unpublished information to illustrate Herrmann's often outrageous behavior his working methods and why his music has had such lasting impact From his first film Citizen Kane to his last Taxi Driver Herrmann was a master of evoking psychological nuance and dramatic tension through music often using unheard of instrumental combinations to suit the dramatic needs of a film His scores are among the most distinguished ever written ranging from the fantastic Fahrenheit 451 The Day the Earth Stood Still to the romantic Obsession The Ghost and Mrs Muir to the terrifying Psycho Film was not the only medium in which Herrmann made a powerful mark His radio broadcasts included Orson Welles's Mercury Theatre on the Air and The War of the Worlds His concert music was commissioned and performed by the New York Philharmonic and he was chief conductor of the CBS Symphony Almost as celebrated as these achievements are the enduring legends of Herrmann's combativeness and volatility Smith separates myth from fact and draws upon heretofore unpublished material to illuminate Herrmann's life and influence

Herrmann remains as complex as any character in the films he scored a creative genius an indefatigable musicologist an explosive bully a generous and compassionate man who desperately sought friendship and love Films scored by Bernard Herrmann Citizen Kane The Ghost and Mrs Muir Vertigo Psycho Fahrenheit 451 Taxi Driver The Magnificent Ambersons The Man Who Knew Too Much North By Northwest The Birds The Snows of Kilimanjaro Cape Fear Marnie Torn Curtain among others Encyclopedia of Great Popular Song Recordings Steve Sullivan,2013-10-04 From John Philip Sousa to Green Day from Scott Joplin to Kanye West from Stephen Foster to Coldplay The Encyclopedia of Great Popular Song Recordings Volumes 1 and 2 covers the vast scope of its subject with virtually unprecedented breadth and depth Approximately 1 000 key song recordings from 1889 to the present are explored in full unveiling the stories behind the songs the recordings the performers and the songwriters Beginning the journey in the era of Victorian parlor balladry brass bands and ragtime with the advent of the record industry readers witness the birth of the blues and the dawn of jazz in the 1910s and the emergence of country music on record and the shift from acoustic to electrical recording in the 1920s The odyssey continues through the Swing Era of the 1930s rhythm the rock modern soul the British invasion and the folk rock movement of the 1960s and finally into the modern era through the musical streams of disco punk grunge hip hop and contemporary dance pop Sullivan however also takes critical detours by extending the coverage to genres neglected in pop music histories from ethnic and world music the gospel recording of both black and white artists and lesser known traditional folk tunes that reach back hundreds of years This book is ideal for anyone who truly loves popular music in all of its glorious variety and anyone wishing to learn more about the roots of virtually all the music we hear today Popular music fans as well as scholars of recording history and technology and students of the intersections between music and cultural history will all find this book to be informative and interesting Pacific Northwest Americana Charles Wesley Smith,1921 Survey Practices and Landscape Photography Across the Globe Sophie Junge,Erin Hyde Nolan,2022-12-05 This edited volume considers the many ways in which landscape seen and unseen is fundamental to placemaking colonial settlement and identity formation Collectively the book s authors map a constellation of interlocking photographic histories and survey practices decentering Europe as the origin of camera based surveillance The volume charts a conversation across continents connecting Europe Africa the Arab World Asia and the Americas It does not segregate places histories and traditions but rather puts them in dialogue with one another establishing solidarity across ever shifting national linguistic racial religious and ethnic Refusing the neat organization of survey photographs into national or imperial narratives these essays celebrate the messy cross cultural reverberations of landscape over the past 170 years Considering the visual social and historical networks in which these images circulate this anthology connects the many entangled and political histories of photography in order to reframe survey practices and the multidimensionality of landscape as an international phenomenon This book will be of interest to scholars in art history history of photography and landscape history Billboard ,1972-05-13 In its 114th year Billboard
