Inheriting the Promises Rev. Daniel G. Caram,2016-12-21 Rev Daniel Caram presents a study of the life of Abraham so that we might understand the man who is called the father of faith It is vital that we understand Abraham s life as he represents the true pattern for inheriting the promises of God He is an example to the children of faith showing us how we too can inherit the promises and blessing And so after he had patiently endured he obtained the promise Hebrews 6 15

Apostolic Breakthrough Bill Vincent,2023-04-03 LEADERS are being prepared for this next season of the spirit These mature and loyal prophets will stand before leaders and announce with great power and strength that position changes are coming It is time for true Apostles to come forth in power As I began to type this sermon I heard a voice of ultimate authority echo from Heaven True Apostolic IS Coming I received a prophetic word months ago saying Apostle come forth Little did I know what was going to be required of me We had better get a good understanding of apostolic ministry under us for it will be on top of us before we know it Samuel is a type of this apostolic leadership The Lord did let none of his words fall to the ground nor did he beg his bread from the people Ironside Expository Commentaries H. A. Ironside,2022-03-08 Henry Harry Allen Ironside 1876 10 14 1951 01 15 was a Bible teacher preacher pastor and author in the late 19th century and early 20th century H A Ironside was born on 1876 10 14 in Toronto to John and Sophia Stafford Ironside who were both active in the Plymouth Brethren Inspired by Dwight Moody Ironside comforted and challenged a generation of evangelicals during two world wars and an economic depression He spoke to a lay audience and made the Bible understandable and accessible to as many people as possible and now 41 of his volumes of biblical exposition and commentary are available to enlighten your Bible study and research Covering 48 books of the Old and New Testaments these commentaries stimulate the mind and capture the imagination rich with anecdotes and illustrations that bring life to any ordinary Bible study The Thursday penny pulpit ,1841-12 Gregory of Nyssa and the Grasp of Faith Martin S. Laird,2004 Scholars of Gregory of Nyssa have long acknowledged the centrality of faith in his theory of divine union To date however there has been no sustained examination of this key topic The present study fills this gap and elucidates important auxiliary themes that accrue to Gregory s notion of faith as a faculty of apophatic union with God The result adjusts how we understand the Cappadocian s apophaticism in general and his so called mysticism of darkness in particular After a general discussion of the increasing value of faith in late Neoplatonism and an overview of important work done on Gregorian faith this study moves on to sketch a portrait of the mind and its dynamic varying cognitive states and how these respond to the divine pedagogy of scripture baptism and the presence of God With this portrait of the mind as a backdrop we see how Gregory values faith for its ability to unite with God who remains beyond the comprehending grasp of mind A close examination of the relationship between faith and mind shows Gregory bestowing on faith qualities which Plotinus would have granted only to the crest of the wave of intellect While Gregorian faith serves as the faculty of apophatic union with God faith yet gives something to mind This dimension of Gregory s apophaticism has gone largely unnoticed by scholars At the apex of an apophatic ascent faith unites with God the Word by virtue of this union the believer takes on the qualities of the Word who speaks logophasis in the deeds and discourse of the believer Finally this study redresses how Gregory has been identified with a mysticism of darkness and argues that he proposes no less a mysticism of light
