The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler,2015-09-15 Over the Rainbow Stormy Weather and One for My Baby are just a few of Harold Arlen s well loved compositions Yet his name is hardly known except to the musicians who venerate him At a gathering of songwriters George Gershwin called him the best of us Irving Berlin agreed Paul McCartney sent him a fan letter and became his publisher Bob Dylan wrote of his fascination with Arlen s bittersweet lonely world A cantor s son Arlen believed his music was from a place outside himself a place that also sent tragedy When his wife became mentally ill and was institutionalized he turned to alcohol It nearly killed him But the beautiful songs kept coming Blues in the Night My Shining Hour Come Rain or Come Shine and The Man That Got Away Walter Rimler drew on interviews with friends and associates of Arlen and on newly available archives to write this intimate portrait of a genius whose work is a pillar of the Great American Songbook

The Darkening Spirit David Tacey,2013-06-26 The twenty first century could well be Jung s century just as the twentieth century was Freud s Jung predicted the demise of secular humanism and claimed we would search for alternatives to science atheism and reason We would experience a new and even unfashionable appetite for the sacred Educated people however would not return to unreconstructed religions because these do not express the life of the spirit as discerned by modern consciousness The sacred has developed a darker hue and worshipping symbols of light and goodness no longer satisfies the longings of the soul The new sacred cannot be contained by the formulas of the past but nor can we live without a sense of the sacred We stand in a difficult place between traditional religions we have outgrown and a pervasive materialism we can no longer embrace These changes in our culture have come sooner than Jung might have imagined In his time Jung struck many as eccentric or unscientific But his works speak to our time since we have experienced the full gamut of Jungian transformations the unsettlement of Judeo Christian culture the rise of the feminine the onslaught of the dark side the critique of modernism and positivism and the recognition that the Western ego is neither the pinnacle of evolution nor the lord of creation A new life is needed beyond the ego but we do not yet know what it will look like The outbreak of strong religion and terrorism are signs of the times but these are expressions of a distorted and repressed spirit and not one hopes genuine pointers to the future What the future holds is uncertain but Jung s prophetic vision helps to prepare us for what is to come and this will be of great interest to analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as to theologians futurists sociologists and the general reader The Inlander ,1905
