

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration of a mesquite tree branch. The bark is thick and deeply textured with a grid-like pattern. Several green, feathery leaves are attached to the branch. A cicada is shown on the branch, its body and wings clearly visible. The title is enclosed in a white rectangular box with a thin black border.

Out of the West Rufus Rockwell Wilson, 2023-07-10 The epic of American expansion has had many chroniclers Romance is wedded to heroism and rich achievement crowned high endeavor In this present volume is woven the golden thread of that romantic and heroic era Here on these pages live again the mighty men of those epoch making days when the forces of manhood were matched against the forces of nature valor against villainy and life itself was ventured on a single hazard of fortune Nurtured many of them in the calm and quiet of the more settled East they dreamed as youths of those plains and mountains out where the West begins They matched their wits against the crafty red man and their strength against the perils and privations of a trackless wilderness With the might to conquer they triumphed over heat and cold over foe and famine over storm and starvation and made Death Valley a highway to the shores of the Pacific where the West ends The record which these pages unfold could be written only by a man who knows the West and who though himself an Easterner feels akin with the spirit of the pioneer Countless pages have been scanned for an accurate record of those men and times and for verification of the stirring incidents recited here Numerous interviews and prolonged research have enabled the author to present a stirring vivid picture of glamorous years and of valorous men who undeterred by danger and unafraid of death wrought mighty deeds and opened vast areas to commerce and civilization Fire Ecology and Prescribed Burning in the Great Plains Henry A. Wright, 1979 Young Oologist , 1927 Insurgent Mexico John Reed, 1914 The Waltz He was Born for Andrew Hudgins, Janice Whittington, 2002 Texas Poet Laureate Walt McDonald has published more than eighteen volumes of poetry A poet of the landscape of war and flying of people just working hard McDonald is master of the vital image and sound And his work invites others to define the elements that delight and fascinate Each contributor herein has made his own trek to McDonald s harsh landscapes of arroyos and hardscrabble his skies filled with joy and terrors those night sweats of pilots Here in the territory Walt McDonald has claimed these writers have found gold Book jacket

Together, Alone Susan Wittig Albert, 2010-03-01 What does it mean to belong to a place to be truly rooted and grounded in the place you call home How do you commit to a marriage to a full partnership with another person and still maintain your own separate identity These questions have been central to Susan Wittig Albert s life and in this beautifully written memoir she movingly describes how she has experienced place marriage and aloneness while creating a home in the Texas Hill Country with her husband and writing partner Bill Albert Together Alone opens in 1985 as Albert leaves a successful if rootless career as a university administrator and begins a new life as a freelance writer wife and homesteader on a patch of rural land northwest of Austin She vividly describes the work of creating a home at Meadow Knoll a place in which she and Bill raised their own food and animals while working together and separately on writing projects Once her sense of home and partnership was firmly established Albert recalls how she had to find its counterbalance a place where she could be alone and explore those parts of the self that only emerge in solitude For her this place was Lebh Shomea a silent monastic retreat In writing about her time at Lebh Shomea Albert reveals the deep satisfaction she finds in belonging to a community of people who have chosen to be apart and experience silence and solitude The Green Planet Simon Barnes, 2022-01-06

Praise for The Green Planet BBC One David Attenborough s gobsmacking awe inspiring return The Guardian The Green Planet reveals the secret lives of plants in the same way The Blue Planet opened our eyes to the oceans New Scientist There s something new under the sun Plants live secret unseen lives hidden in their magical world and on their timescale From the richest jungles to the harshest deserts from the snowiest alpine forest to the remotest steaming swamp Green Planet travels from one great habitat to the next showing us that plants are as aggressive competitive and dramatic as the animals on our planet You will discover agents of death who ruthlessly engulf their host plant but also those that form deep and complex relationships with other species such as the desert cacti who use nectar loving bats to pollinate Although plants are undoubtedly the stars of the show a fascinating new light will be shed on the animals that interact with them Using the latest technologies and showcasing over two decades of new discoveries Green Planet reveals the strange and wonderful life of plants like never before a life full of remarkable behaviour emotional stories and surprising heroes Dry Place Patricia L.

Price, 2004 Landscape is the space of negotiation between human beings and the physical world and rarely are the negotiations more complex and subtle than those conducted through the desert landscape along the Mexico U S border Patricia L Price views the shaping of the landscape on and around the border through various narratives that have sought to establish claims to these dry lands Most prominent are the accounts of Anglo American expansionism and Manifest Destiny juxtaposed with the Chicano nationalist tale of Aztlan in the twentieth century all constituting collective contending claims to the U S Southwest Demonstrating how stories can become vehicles for reshaping places and identities Price considers characters old and new who inhabit the contemporary borderlands between Mexico and the United States ranging from longstanding manifestations of good and evil in the figures of the Virgin of Guadalupe and the Devil to a collection of lay saints embodying current concerns Dry Place weaves together theoretical insights with field based inquiry autobiography and creative writing to arrive at a textured understanding of the bordered landscape of late modern subjectivity Patricia L Price is associate professor of geography in the Department of International Relations at Florida International University in Miami

Forest and Stream , 1908 Honor at Daybreak Elmer Kelton, 2002 Caprock Texas is a sleepy cow town where not much happened until oil is discovered in the 1920s Suddenly the town comes alive with thousands of people streaming into find their fortune Some are honest folk like Elisa and Victor Underwood who pray for a little luck with their daily bread but too many are two bit swindlers And then there s Big Boy Daugherty a frontier mobster who corrupts and destroys everything he touches In a town where moonshining or lying about your Saturday night date has been about the worst that happened Sheriff Dave Buckalew now faces a whole different set of circumstances as his town springs to life in good and not so good ways Allied with Buckalew is Slim McIntyre a cowboy who s looking for ranch work and finds instead a whole lot of trouble

A Frontier Officer: Stories of a Wandering Family (Expanded, Annotated) Lydia Spencer Lane, It is remarkable to us today that Lydia Lane wrote of the old army in 1893 She had married a soldier in 1854 and headed out to his post in the wilds of Texas This is their story as pioneers her husband attached to the U S Mounted Rifles Of privations she has much to write but she also notes The truth is all army women from the wife of the commanding general down to the wife of a second lieutenant are treated with so much courtesy and politeness by army officers that they do not like anything that has the least appearance of a slight or an infringement of their rights They never grow old in a garrison and always receive attentions to which no woman in citizen life is accustomed when no longer young Through births deaths and seemingly endless travels to new posts Lydia followed her husband to the end of his long life as a soldier She remembers one incident of a death where the burial services were read by Lieutenant Joseph Wheeler later a major general in the Confederacy For the first time this long out of print book is available as an affordable well formatted book for e readers and smartphones Be sure to LOOK INSIDE or download a sample
