Peace War And Gods Justice:

Peace, War and God's Justice Thomas D. Parker, Brian John Fraser, 1989 The Reformers on War, Peace, and Justice Timothy J. Demy, Mark J. Larson, J. Daryl Charles, 2019-09-23 Conflict and war were common during the Reformation era Throughout the sixteenth century rising religious and political tensions led to frequent conflict and culminated in the Thirty Years War 1618-48 that devastated much of Germany and killed one third of its population Some of the warfare as in central and southern Europe was between Christians and Muslims Other warfare in central and northwestern Europe was confessional warfare between Catholics and Protestants Religion was not the only cause of war during the period Revolts territorial ambitions and the beginnings of the contemporary nation state system and international order that emerged after the Treaty of Westphalia 1648 also fueled the trauma and tragedy of war In many ways the world of the Reformers and Protestant Reformation was a violent world and it was within such a sociopolitical framework that the Reformers and their followers lived worked and died This book introduces the teachings of the Protestant Reformers on war and peace in their context before offering relevant primary source readings Politics, Justice, and War Joseph E. Capizzi, 2015-05-14 The just war ethic emerges from an affirmative response to the basic question of whether people may sometimes permissibly intend to kill other people In Politics, Justice, and War Joseph E. Capizzi clarifies the meaning and coherence of the just war approach to the use of force in the context of Christian ethics By reconnecting the just war ethic to an Augustinian political approach Capizzi illustrates that the just war ethic requires emphasis on the right intention or goal of peace as ordered justice With peace set as the goal of war the various criteria of the just war ethic gain their intelligibility and help provide practical guidance to all levels of society regarding when to go to war and how to strive to contain it So conceived the ethic places stringent limits on noncombatant or innocent killing in war helps make sense of contemporary technological and strategic challenges and opens up space for a critical and constructive dialogue with international law Five Risks Presbyterians Must Take for Peace Christian Iosso, 2017-09-30 Believing peacemaking to be an inherent part of discipleship Presbyterians have taken many valiant stands for peace throughout our history However changing global realities political and military actions and new weapons of war have made the world less safe than ever The church must reconsider how to be faithful peacemakers in this changing reality The Presbyterian Church recently spent six years reflecting on peacemaking Building on past policy documents people at all levels of the church studied and discussed what peacemaking policies needed to be modified given the world context today The 2016 PC USA General Assembly affirmed five affirmations the church must make to fulfill its peacemaking calling Those affirmations become risks when truly taken because their message collides with the demands for continued sacrifice by the powers that be In this timely resource author Christian Iosso explains what the five risks are how they differ from previous positions and what taking each risk might look like today Ideal for individual or group study this important resource includes questions for reflection and discussion Atonement, Justice, and Peace Darrin

W. Snyder Belousek, 2012 In this substantial study Darrin W Snyder Belousek offers a comprehensive and critical examination of penal substitution the most widely accepted evangelical Protestant theory of atonement and presents a biblically grounded theologically orthodox alternative Attending to all of the relevant biblical texts and engaging with the full spectrum of scholarship Belousek systematically develops a biblical theory of atonement that centers on restorative rather than retributive justice He also shows how Christian thinking on atonement correlates with major global concerns such as economic justice capital punishment the war on terror and ethnic and religious conflicts Thorough and clearly structured this book demonstrates how a return to biblical cruciformity can radically transform Christian mission social justice and peacemaking

Islam, Peace and Social Justice A Christian van Gorder, 2014-05-29 Islam Peace and Social Justice examines the ways in which Islamic cultures have dealt with issues of social justice historically and culturally With unwavering objectivity the author helps readers of any faith to gain a nuanced and accurate understanding of the challenges that we face in contemporary multifaith engagements Dr van Gorder offers a comprehensive and sympathetic Christian insight into Islam The contentious issues of social justice that are encountered in this broad yet intricate study include the concept of Jihad poverty political oppression human rights genocide racism sexual injustice homophobia and environmental degradation The challenges are real and the problems are vast partnerships and solutions must be found people of faith Muslim Jewish and Christian must find ways to work together to address these shared challenges This work exposes misrepresentations and stereotypes about Islamic views of social justice that abound in Europe and North America The author encourages a deeper appreciation of how themes of social justice resound through Islamic texts and have been expressed both in the contemporary and historical life of various and diverse Islamic communities worldwide

The God of Peace John Dear, 2005-03-08 The God of peace is never glorified by human violence Thomas Merton The God of Peace John Dear's classic theology of nonviolence broke new ground when it was first published as a breakthrough toward a new understanding of scripture theology social concerns and churches issues from the perspective of Gospel nonviolence in the tradition of Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Dorothy Day This ground breaking study begins not just with the culture of violence but the nonviolence of God and the revolutionary nonviolence of Jesus From the start John Dear explores traditional areas of theology such as Christology Trinitarian Theology anthropology sin redemption theodicy salvation ecclesiology eschatology spirituality liturgy Catholic social teaching the just war theory feminism liberation theology and the consistent ethic of life This text will help university and theology students pursuing the theology and spirituality of nonviolence as well as ordinary Christians and activists interested in the crucial connection between war and violence and God and nonviolence

Augustine and Social Justice Teresa Delgado, John Doody, Kim Paffenroth, 2015-01-14 This volume brings into dialogue the ancient wisdom of Augustine of Hippo a bishop of the early Christian Church of the fourth and fifth centuries with contemporary theologians and ethicists on the topic of social justice Each essay mines the major themes present in Augustine's extensive corpus of writings from his Confessions to the City of God with an eye to the following question how can this early church father so foundational to Christian doctrine and teaching inform our twenty first century context on how to create and sustain a more just and equitable society In his own day Augustine spoke to conditions of slavery conflict and war violence and poverty among many others These conditions while reflecting the characteristics of our technological age continue to obstruct our collective efforts to bring about the common good for the global human community The contributors of this volume have taken great care to read Augustine through the lens of his own time and place at the same time they provide keen insights and reflections which advance the conversation of social justice in the present

Pro-justice Ethics Richard A. Hughes, Richard Hughes, 2009 Pro Justice Ethics From Lament to Nonviolence is an original work within Christian social ethics and is based upon the civil rights movement the philosophy of nonviolence and the biblical lament tradition The author formulates the justice imperative as an ethic of duty and defines justice as an act of protesting preventing and remedying injustices that cause human suffering Formally injustice is the violation of fairness equality and dignity but in its primal form injustice is child abuse Birth and death are discussed from a justice perspective beyond the dichotomy of pro life and pro choice Special attention is devoted to the injustices of globalization international human rights abuses and corporate violations of the natural rights of water in the earth commons Book Jacket

Not Peace But a Sword Stephen Baskerville,2018-08-21 Not Peace But a Sword provides a case study in religious radicalism as exemplified by the Puritanism of the English Revolution Based on sermons preached to the Long Parliament and other political bodies Stephen Baskerville demonstrates how Puritan religious and political ideas transformed the English Civil War into the world s first great modern revolution To understand why Baskerville analyzes the underlying social changes that gave rise to Puritan radicalism The Puritan intellectuals developed the sermon into a medium that conveyed not only popular political understanding but also a sophisticated political sociology that articulated a new social and political consciousness In the process they challenged the traditional political order and created a new order by appealing to the needs and concerns of a people caught up in the problems of rapid social and economic change The book explores the social psychology behind the rise of Puritanism as the Puritan ministers themselves presented it through textual criticism of their own words placing them in the mental context of their time and offers a new understanding of the link between religious ideas and revolutionary politics Arabic Christian Theology

Zondervan,2019-03-19 Theology is not done in a vacuum Our theology is affected by the culture in which we live and our theology can have unexpected effects on the lives of Christians who live thousands of miles away This point emerges clearly as we listen to seven Arabic evangelical theologians address issues that are of critical importance to Christians living as minorities in the Muslim world North American readers may find that many of their assumptions are challenged as they see how respected Christian thinkers from a very different context address issues of biblical interpretation national and international politics culture and gender

Preaching God's Transforming Justice Ronald J. Allen,Dale P. Andrews,Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm,2013-01-01 This is the final volume in a unique new commentary series that helps the preacher identify and reflect on the social implications of the biblical readings in the Revised Common Lectionary The essays concentrate on the themes of social justice in the weekly texts and how those themes can be teachable moments for preaching social justice in the church In addition to the lectionary days there are essays for twenty two Holy Days of Justice including Martin Luther King Day Earth Day World AIDS Day and Children s Sabbath These days are intended to enlarge the church s awareness of God s call for justice and of the many ways that call comes to the church and world today

Peace and Justice Rachel Kerr,Eirin Mobekk,2007-10-29 Taking as its starting point the post World War II tribunals at Nuremburg and Tokyo this book goes on to discuss the creation of ad hoc international tribunals in the 1990s hybrid mixed courts the International Criminal Court domestic trials Truth Commissions and traditional justice mechanisms

Outline of Christian Ethics Kwing

Hung,2014-10-14 Outline of Christian Ethics is a Q yet the extent of the book is broad and deep Dr Hung does not use purely rational and argumentative methods he employs the method of lighthearted conversation with the reader Every chapter is introduced with some stories to stir up the interest of the reader Furthermore statistical facts are added to strengthen the persuasive power of the points made The wealth of information contained in this book will help busy pastors and Christians find the necessary information quickly Rev Dr Peter Au principal Canadian Chinese School of Theology at Tyndale Seminary Toronto The Gospel of Peace Dear, John,2023-11-10 A comprehensive commentary of the synoptic gospels from the perspective of nonviolence Peace-Building by, between, and beyond Muslims and Evangelical Christians Mohammed Abu-Nimer,David Augsburg,2009-02-16 This timely work addresses sensitive issues and relations between Muslims and Christians around the world The book uniquely captures the opportunity for Christians and Muslims to come together and discuss pertinent issues such as pluralism governance preaching Christian missionary efforts and general misperceptions of Muslim and Christian communities Joint authorship and discussion within the book is used to offer dialogue and responses between different contributors This dialogue reveals that Christians and Muslims hold many things in common while having meaningful differences It also shows the value of honestly sharing convictions while respecting and hearing the beliefs of another Religion Index Two ,1991
