

A low-angle, upward-looking shot of a person's legs and feet as they ascend a wooden staircase. The person is positioned in the center of the frame, moving towards a very bright, glowing light source at the top of the stairs, which creates a strong silhouette effect. The walls on either side of the staircase are a light, neutral color. Overlaid on the image in a large, white, cursive script font is the text "A Long Journey Into The Light".

Whipple, 2001-03-20 Journey into Light is the story of Linda It takes place from her birth and the fifteen short years of her life Mark her father kidnaps her and takes her and her brothers to the Pacific Northwest when she is six years old At the age of twelve she begins running away The police find her and return her to her father She gets into more and more trouble and danger until the State of Washington takes her and places her in foster homes This is her story set in the fifties but can be the story of millions of girls and boys of today Mark is Linda's father He is cruel both physically and mentally to his children and to any woman that makes the mistake of getting involved with him He has the State authorities fooled and is getting further and further out of hand and very dangerous He has committed several murders starting with the man his eldest daughter lives with in West Virginia He commits murders and robberies across the U S which finally ends with him sitting on death row at the Washington State Penitentiary awaiting the hangman's noose Pearl is Linda's mother Pearl was forced to marry Mark after he rapes her Her father feels that she has been dirtied and will not allow her to marry the man she loves Joe Finally after several children years of abuse and the killing of her daughters boyfriend she divorces Mark She finally marries Joe and is happy for several years Mark shows up again and shoots Joe leaving him a quadriplegic Pearl finally opens a whorehouse to earn a living Walt and Dean Nielson have been taking care of Welfare children for several years when Linda is brought into their home Because of her gentle loving ways they learn to love her as they do their own four children These two people show her the love and trust no one has ever given her They expect nothing but respect and for her to be herself They teach her to have fun playing and working with the other people living in the house They move from Pasco to the Columbia River Gorge and take Linda with them Their new house is a huge old farmhouse The rooms are large and there is space for everyone Their home is always filled with laughter fun and love It is always filled to the brim with children of all nationalities up to fifteen besides their own four But still Linda can't keep from running away when trouble rears its ugly head Journey Into Light Edna Tardiff, 2001 Edna was born and reared in a tiny community tightly related by religion if not by blood on the Canadian border in northern Maine Every facet and thought of her life centered in the church of her fathers its ceremonies traditions teachings and holidays All else was anathema false forbidden damning Read the gripping story in her own words of her journey from this darkness into the light of joyful freedom in the truth of the Scriptures In
