Vehicles of the Long Range Desert Group 1940-45 Gavin Mortimer,2021-02-18 A fascinating study of the specialized vehicles kit and techniques of the Long Range Desert Group who pioneered long range desert warfare in World War II and worked closely with the embryonic SAS The Long Range Desert Group was one of the most famous special units of World War II operating heavily modified vehicles deep behind enemy lines to gather intelligence and support the raids of David Stirling s new Special Air Service When war broke out a pre war explorer and army officer Ralph Bagnold convinced Middle East Command of the need for a reconnaissance force to penetrate into Italian held desert Bagnold tested four types of vehicles over rocks and through soft sand to find the best one for his new unit He selected the Chevrolet WB 30 CWT as the signature vehicle of the Long Range Desert Group because it is fast simple and easy to handle With left hand steering horizontal grill and round fenders on the rear wheels these trucks proved themselves popular and effective The durability of the Chevrolets was demonstrated in January 1941 with an audacious raid on the Italian fort air strip at Murzuk hundreds of miles behind enemy lines This book explains the detail of all the vehicles of the LRDG as well as their modifications driving techniques and special kit for surviving behind enemy lines in one of the most hostile environments on earth

Fighting with the Long Range Desert Group Brendan O'Carroll,2022-06-30 Formed in 1940 the Long Range Desert Group was the first Allied Special Forces unit established to operate behind German and Italian lines in North Africa Its officers and men were volunteers recruited from British and Commonwealth units Merlyn Craw was serving with the 2nd New Zealand Expeditionary Force when he joined the LRDG in 1941 He took part in numerous missions in the desert The navigational driving and fighting skills of the LRDG were legendary and they were frequently responsible for transporting Stirling s SAS detachments on raids Merlyn s luck ran out when he was captured on the Barce raid in September 1942 but he escaped twice the second time making it back to Allied lines Sent home on leave he returned to Italy with the New Zealand

Army After a disagreement he went AWOL and rejoined the LRDG with no questions asked serving until the end of the war Drawing on interviews with Merlyn and other former LRDG veterans the author has created a vivid picture of this exceptional and highly decorated fighting man Readers cannot fail to be impressed by the courage and ruthless determination of Merlyn Craw MM and his comrades R Patrol Long Range Desert Group Brendan O'Carroll,2024-11-30 This is the story of the New Zealand R Patrol Long Range Desert Group who within their ranks had some very distinguished icons such as Jake Easonsmith Don Steele Dick Croucher Tony Browne Bluey Grimsey and Buster Gibb Their stories are told including that of many others mostly in the words of the participants themselves by way of wartime operational reports diaries personal letters and post war interviews This provides a human touch to the narrative examining the thoughts and observations of those who served The work also explains the formation of the unit including its early missions and of the vehicles supplies weapons and equipment used In addition serving as a Taxi Service for behind the line missions carrying agents commandos military observers rescuing downed airmen and escaped PoWs Chapters are also devoted to working with the SAS and Free French supporting the Eighth Army and undertaking the Road Watch This includes dramatic accounts of air attacks and ground actions against enemy convoys and engagements with Axis forces This is all supported by 288 images including maps and art The Long Range Desert Group in the Aegean Brendan O'Carroll,2020-09-30 A history of the British Army unit s deployment to and defense of a group of islands between Greece and Turkey during World War II Shortly after the invasion of Sicily in order to distract German attention from the Italian campaign Churchill ordered the occupation of the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean The Long Range Desert Group retraining in Lebanon were now part of Raiding Forces Middle East along with the Special Boat Service and No 30 Commando In support of 3 000 regulars in 234 Brigade the LRDG landed covertly on Leros establishing observation posts reporting movement of enemy shipping and aircraft In October the LRDG were ordered to assault the island of Levitha losing forty highly skilled men killed or captured The Germans invaded Leros with overwhelming force on 12 November 1943 five days later the battle was over While many British troops were captured most of the LRDG and SBS escaped Their individual stories make for enthralling reading A measure of the intensity of the fighting is the fact that the LRDG lost more men in three months in the Aegean than in three years in the desert operating behind enemy lines The author an acknowledged expert on the LRDG uses official sources both British and German and individual accounts to piece together the full story of this dramatic costly but little known campaign It is a valuable addition to the history of special forces in the Second World War Praise for The Long Range Desert Group in the Aegean O Carroll provides an interesting and informative read about a little known action by a World War II era special operations unit and an important part of SOF history SOF News The Long Range Desert Group in Action 1940-1943 Brendan O'Carroll,2020-12-30 This first pictorial history of the LRDG covers all aspects of its work and the vehicles and weapons they used in their devastating raids Beating Tsundoku The Long Range Desert Group has a strong claim to the first Special Forces

Hall, Anthony Rogers, Bob Amos Jones, Ian Chard, Jonathan Pittaw, 2024-04-29 Most probably the readers of this magazine have never heard of the original TRACKS I was in the very same situation until by the end of 2020 when NZ LRDG historian Brendan O'Carroll has provided me with a hardly readable copy of the June 1941 issue of TRACKS I was immediately fascinated by these windows into the past and just thought We should revive TRACKS The editor of the original Tracks was that time 20 years old TA Sgt N A Moore a clerk attached to LRDG Group HQ The June 1941 issue was created by him when the LRDG HQ was located at Kufra There he got the idea to create a house paper for the unit He recalled in a letter which was published in the 1991 Newsletter of the LRDG Association that there were only a very limited number of people who were willing to contribute and that this first edition was mainly launched thanks to the contribution of Lieut Col Bagnold and Captain Kennedy Shaw And indeed the June 1941 remained the single and only issue of Tracks it was never published again until today Long Range Desert Group Patrolman Tim Moreman, 2010-07-20 Osprey's study of patrolmen of the Long Range Desert Group of World War II 1939-1945 Nicknamed the Libyan Desert Taxi Service by the SAS the Long Range Desert Group was tasked with strategic reconnaissance and raiding operations deep inside the enemy held deserts of North Africa Armed with light weapons only and equipped with specially converted light cars and trucks capable of withstanding the harsh conditions the LRDG quickly proved it could operate in parts of the desert which other troops including the enemy found impassable This new Warrior title examines the soldiers of the LRDG from the group's formation through training to combat in vast lonely and deadly deserts of North Africa

Special Operations in World War II Andrew L. Hargreaves, 2013-10-28

British and American commanders first used modern special forces in support of conventional military operations during World War II. Since then, although special ops have featured prominently in popular culture and media coverage of wars, the academic study of irregular warfare has remained as elusive as the practitioners of special operations themselves. This book is the first comprehensive study of the development, application and value of Anglo-American commando and special forces units during the Second World War. Special forces are intensively trained, specially selected military units performing unconventional and often high-risk missions. In this book, Andrew L. Hargreaves not only describes tactics and operations but also outlines the distinctions between commandos and special forces, traces their evolution during the war, explains how the Anglo-American alliance functioned in the creation and use of these units, looks at their command and control arrangements, evaluates their impact and assesses their cost-effectiveness. The first real impetus for the creation of British specialist formations came in the desperate summer of 1940 when, having been pushed out of Europe following defeat in France and the Low Countries, Britain began to turn to irregular forces in an effort to wrest back the strategic initiative from the enemy. The development of special forces by the United States was also a direct consequence of defeat. After Pearl Harbor, Hargreaves shows the Americans found themselves in much the same position as Britain had been in 1940: shocked, outnumbered and conventionally defeated, they were unable to come to grips with the enemy on a large scale. By the end of the war, a variety of these units had overcome a multitude of evolutionary hurdles and made valuable contributions to practically every theater of operation. In describing how Britain and the United States worked independently and cooperatively to invent and put into practice a fundamentally new way of waging war, this book demonstrates the two nations' flexibility, adaptability and ability to innovate during World War II.
