Looking For Money Capitalism And Modernity In An Orang Asli Village:

Looking for Money Alberto G. Gomes, 2004 Looking for money is about the entanglement of an indigenous people the Semai of Malaysia with modernity A key feature of this entanglement is the process of commoditisation that has resulted in what is emically known as looking for money work cover Modernity and Malaysia Alberto Gomes, 2007-05-16 Bringing together the results of over twenty five years of research on the indigenous peoples of Malaysia this fascinating book illustrates the experiences of modernity in indigenous communities through a detailed case study of the Rual Menraq of Malaysia The Aboriginal People of Peninsular Malaysia Govindran Jegatesen, 2019-12-06 To date most studies of Malaysia s aboriginal people the Orang Asli have studied the community in either the rural or forest settings This book however outlines the dynamics of Orang Asli migration to Kuala Lumpur Malaysia s most urbanised region and explores the lived experiences of these individuals in the urban space The book begins by charting the history of the Orang Asli under British colonial rule followed by the community s experiences under the Malaysian government in an attempt to provide a deeper understanding of the economic and social complexities facing the Orang Asli today Based on extensive original research the book goes on to discuss the interesting changes taking place among urban Orang Asli migrants with regards to gender dynamics while exploring the unique ways in which these urban indigenous migrants maintain close links with their home communities in the rural spaces of Peninsular Malaysia The book concludes by assessing how research on the urban Orang Asli fits into broader studies of urban and contemporary indigeneity in both Malaysia and abroad Resource Use and Sustainability of Orang Asli Mohd Tajuddin Abdullah, Candyrilla Vera Bartholomew, Aqilah Mohammad, 2021-03-30 Comprising of 18 sub ethnic groups the indigenous communities or better known as the Orang Asli located in the Peninsular Malaysia is a unique community in terms of their culture lifestyle and heritage The life of the Orang Asli popularly referred to as the Forest People is highly intertwined with forest resources which makes the community a great source of information and traditional knowledge particularly in the use of medicinal plants This book covers three important issues to explain and gain insights into the sustainability of the Orang Asli Social and demographics Sustainability of resource use Governance administration and management The book presents research to help bridge the gaps and provides a baseline reference for further research regarding the sustainability of the Orang Asli This book is intended for researchers and graduate students to help gain an understanding of the Orang Asli By highlighting the plight of Orang Asli the authors hope that this community will be recognised and become a part of society More research is required to help the 178 197 Orang Asli achieve the sustainable development goals for their community in the Peninsular Malaysia Ethnography & the Production of Anthropological Knowledge Yasmine Musharbash, Marcus Barber, 2011-02-01 Professor Nicolas Peterson is a central figure in the anthropology of Aboriginal Australia This volume honours his anthropological body of work his commitment to ethnographic fieldwork as a source of knowledge his exemplary mentorship of generations of younger scholars and his generosity in facilitating the progress of others The diverse collection produced by former students current colleagues and long term peers provides reflections on his legacy as well as fresh anthropological insights from Australia and the wider Asia Pacific region Inspired by Nicolas Peterson s work in Aboriginal Australia and his broad ranging contributions to anthropology over several decades the contributors to this volume celebrate the variety of his ethnographic interests Individual chapters address revisit expand on and ethnographically re examine his work about ritual material culture the moral domestic economy land and ecology The volume also pays homage to Nicolas Peterson s ability to provide focused research with long term impact exemplified by a series of papers engaging with his work on demand sharing and the applied policy domain

Histories of Health in Southeast Asia Tim Harper, Sunil S. Amrith, 2014-10-01 Health patterns in Southeast Asia have changed profoundly over the past century In that period epidemic and chronic diseases environmental transformations and international health institutions have created new connections within the region and the increased interdependence of Southeast Asia with China and India In this volume leading scholars provide a new approach to the history of health in Southeast Asia Framed by a series of synoptic pieces on the Landscapes of Health in Southeast Asia in 1914 1950 and 2014 the essays interweave local national and regional perspectives They range from studies of long term processes such as changing epidemics mortality and aging and environmental history to detailed accounts of particular episodes the global cholera epidemic and the hajj the influenza epidemic of 1918 WWII and natural disasters The writers also examine state policy on healthcare and the influence of organizations from NGOs such as the China Medical Board and the Rockefeller Foundation to grassroots organizations in Thailand Indonesia and the Philippines

Creating Subaltern Counterpublics A-gwi Sö, 2017 This is a study of a political and social movement instigated by older Korean women in Japan beginning in the 1990s Koreans in Japan have occupied an unique position among ethnic minority groups Until recently they constituted the largest group of foreign nationals yet they have been marginalized politically socially economically and culturally Korean women are doubly disadvantaged treated as inferior to men by both Korean and Japanese society Furthermore the first generation of Korean women migrants were not educated as children rendering them functionally illiterate and thus triply marginalized Late in life when family and work responsibilities became less onerous local authorities created educational opportunities which the women took up in unexpected numbers overloading the facilities The authorities responses effectively re marginalized them The elderly Korean women took a stance and in the process reconstituted themselves as social and political actors This book examines that self transformation process Series Japanese Society Series Subject Gender Studies Japanese Studies Korean Studies Migrant Studies

Aftermath Yutaka Tsujinaka, Hiroaki Inatsugu, 2018 Aftermath Fukushima and the 3 11 Earthquake is a comprehensive analysis of recovery and reconstruction following the triple disaster in Japan on March 11 2011 This collection addresses the question of why despite the relative success of network governance in brokering a response to the disaster and to reconstruction politics failed either to prepare for the disaster or to respond adequately to it In examining Japan s political system leading up to 3 11 Aftermath looks at the system of network governance that operated between various organizations and levels of government The book scrutinizes the political influence network that united politicians and the bureaucracy with the major corporations and created a system to promote nuclear power Through political policy economic and social analysis Aftermath aims to contribute to the development of mechanisms and structures to minimize the impact of disasters Series Japanese Society Series Subject Politics Governance Japanese Studies Nuclear Studies The Modern Family in Japan Chizuko Ueno,2009 This award winning book brings together Chizuko Ueno s groundbreaking essays on the rise and fall of the modern family in Japan Combining historical sociological anthropological and journalistic methodologies Ueno who is arguably the foremost feminist theoretician in Japan delineates in vivid detail how the family has been changing in form and function in the last hundred years In each chapter Ueno introduces the reader to a different facet of modern Japanese family life ranging from children who fantasize about being orphans to the elderly who confront pre senescence The central focus is on the housewife her history her ever changing responsibilities her ways of surviving mid life crisis This is an indispensable book for students and scholars seeking to understand modern Japan Civilizing the Margins Christopher R. Duncan,2008 Discusses the programs policies and laws that affect ethnic minorities in eight countries Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Viet Nam Once targeted for intervention people such as the Orang Asli of Malaysia and the hill tribes of Thailand often become the subject of programs aimed at radically changing their lifestyles which the government views as backward or primitive Several chapters highlight the tragic consequences of forced resettlement a common result of these programs
