correspondent Leslie Cockburn has dined with the Cali Cartel marched with the Khmer Rouge hunted down the Black Turban in Afghanistan pursued the Russian mafia to the Arctic Circle shared pomegranate sauce with the Ayatollahs and stopped a small Kurdish war but she has never told these stories in a book until now Cockburn was one of the first women to break into the tight fraternity of combat and third world reportage when she began work at the London bureau of NBC News in 1976 where successful news gathering required unorthodox tactics stamina and for best results a criminal mind By the time she moved to CBS's 60 Minutes Cockburn had interviewed Muammar Qaddafi and Margaret Thatcher been arrested as spy in Gambia and effectively eliminated whatever doubts her colleagues might have had about a woman's ability to tackle the news business's most dangerous assignments A mother of three who has made a career of breaking down barriers Leslie Cockburn has exposed the tobacco lobby in Washington and human rights violations in Cambodia and her impact on foreign and domestic policy has been as powerful as her impact on the rights and prerogatives of working women In an industry in which as late as 1973 women had to lobby to wear trousers to work Leslie Cockburn was determined to combine a strong family life with a strong professional life sacrificing neither With a cast of generals drug lords rock stars and kings LOOKING FOR TROUBLE is the incredible story of a career that has spanned the history making news events of the last two decades

CRASH and other STORIES Dick Donaghue, 2013-02-28 This collection of short stories deal with a wide gambit of underlying emotions of love dedication mistrust hope and many of the traits and elements that make up the complexity of human beings from all walks of life and settings It is these diverse characteristics that make our fellow humans so interesting Many of these stories have been published both locally and nationally in Ireland Mexico is Missing and Other Stories J. David Stevens, 2006 What s America to do when one day Mexico suddenly disappears That question asked by the title story in Mexico Is Missing sets the tone for a collection whose individual stories have been described as provocative intensely relevant and wickedly macabre Thematically and formally diverse these pieces are unified by their devotion to the offbeat even insane moments of contemporary life A widow hears a voice from her computer that claims to be God An unnamed narrator develops an unhealthy fascination with his mailman Several characters from a joke come to life and wonder what to do with themselves A poet married to a porn star considers the real meaning of love The subjects of this volume range widely From Snoopy to Southern Baptists from witch trials to infomercials from the President s golf game to well the President s penis anything is fair game in a collection that blends satire with a sincere desire to find meaning in the jumbled world that we daily inhabit A literary critic and author Stevens also demonstrates his formal range by juxtaposing traditional linear stories against micro fictions and longer fractured narratives The result is a book that traverses the literary map with impressive dexterity Individually the stories in Mexico Is Missing will provide various pleasures for every reader But taken together they represent a more profound effort to blend those diametric impulses formal cultural and sociopolitical which so often define contemporary experience This collection of 23 short stories by J David Stevens is clever sardonic and humorous While you re laughing Stevens also gives you plenty of things to think about spirituality the negligence of the mass media American politics and relationships Book jacket Other People's Children and Other Stories Cecilia Kato, 2014-12-02 The Nigerian Civil War left behind unsung heroes women and children Some of them had befriended soldiers to ensure the survival of their families These children and others born out of wedlock constitute a community of people who have identity crises rocking their lives Also veterans of the war abandoned by the authorities were left as ordinary individuals to contend with the wars destructive impact This is the focus of the title story Other Peoples Children Homeless captures the helplessness of isolated communities that are ill prepared to battle the insurgency in northern Nigeria Habibas Triumph tells of the phenomenon of forced marriages even in literate families Literacy however offers a victim the freedom of choice which people of previous generations did not enjoy Broken Lives exposes the pain of broken relationships on college campuses While a young man walks away unscathed to enter another relationship a young woman is left to nurse the wounds for a lifetime The Peoples Court is a reflection of peoples rush to Nigerias capital city Abuja in search of greener pastures Some leave home only to compete with rodents in settlements that are constantly demolished without adequate notice or compensation by the authorities so as to ensure conformity to the citys master plan

Temples of Desire and other Stories K.R. Chandrahas,2019-08-12 Temples of Desire and Other Stories have a compelling narrative that takes you through a multitude of intrigues and happenings woven around the very social fibre of countryside India gripping the reader like a vice Sexual promiscuity and permissiveness greed and integrity and blind beliefs are the engines of stimulus that drive the behaviour of the characters of the five short stories from the author s quiver Read on as the realisation dawns that she had become helpless and migratory like a stray chicken in the world of foxes

A River Runs Through It and Other Stories, Twenty-fifth Anniversary Edition Norman Maclean,2009-08-14 Just as Norman Maclean writes at the end of A River Runs through It that he is haunted by waters so have readers been haunted by his novella A retired English professor who began writing fiction at the age of 70 Maclean produced what is now recognized as one of the classic American stories of the twentieth century Originally published in 1976 A River Runs through It and Other Stories now celebrates its twenty fifth anniversary marked by this new edition that includes a foreword by Annie Proulx Maclean grew up in the western Rocky Mountains in the first decades of the twentieth century As a young man he worked many summers in logging camps and for the United States Forest Service The two novellas and short story in this collection are based on his own experiences the experiences of a young man who found that life was only a step from art in its structures and beauty The beauty he found was in reality and so he leaves a careful record of what it was like to work in the woods when it was still a world of horse and hand and foot without power saws cats or four wheel drives Populated with drunks loggers card sharks and whores and set in the small towns and surrounding trout streams and mountains of western Montana the stories concern themselves with the complexities of fly fishing logging fighting forest fires playing cribbage and being a husband a son and a father By turns raunchy poignant caustic and elegiac these are superb tales which express in Maclean s own words a little of the love I have for the earth as it goes by A first offering from a 70 year old writer the basis of a top grossing movie and the first original fiction published by the University of Chicago Press A River Runs through It and Other Stories has sold more than a million copies As Proulx writes in her foreword to this new edition In 1990 Norman Maclean died in body but for hundreds of thousands of readers he will live as long as fish swim and books are made

The Gambler and Other Stories Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2010-07-01 The Gambler and Other Stories is Fyodor Dostoyevsky s collection of one novella and six short stories reflecting his own life indeed The Gambler a story of a young tutor in the employment of a formerly wealthy Russian General was written under a strict deadline so he could pay off his roulette debts This volume includes Bobok the tale of a frustrated writer visiting a cemetery and enjoying the gossip of the dead The Dream of a Ridiculous Man the story of one man's plan to commit suicide and the troubling dream that follows as well as A Christmas Party and a Wedding A Nasty Story and The Meek One Mile High Cold and other Stories John Craig, 2012-09-03 Ten stories and a novella Steampunk Sci Fi Dystopian Fantasy American Wild West Horror American Detective Noir Freelance The Kid in the Cold In the Eyes Blanket of Crickets Hunger Invisible Chain Le Morte d Dupin The Spring Stand Three Ravens The Case of the Glowing Scarabs Mile High Cold Duplicity and Other Stories Doris Davidson, 2012-12-17 A novella and collection of short stories by Scotland's favourite novelist Two men sit petrified on Christmas Eve at the thought of spending it in supernatural company a young family makes a tense Cross channel trip in fear of some unspecified threat an old man contemplates jumping to his death at the thought of being evicted from the house in which he has lived all his life In this book Doris Davidson looks back over an immensely successful writing career in a collection of twenty short stories which also includes her eagerly awaited latest work the novella Duplicity Covering a wide range of themes and moods these stories are a wonderful tribute to the skill and imagination of one of Scotland's best loved authors Kangchenjunga and Other Stories Robert Halsey, 2014-09-19 Halsey is an active member of a creative writing group called Tapestry that operates out of the Cockburnshire Library in Spearwood Western Australia Kangchenjunga and Other Stories is a collection of insights derived mainly from the troubled world in which he lives in but some have been inspired from real personal experiences and some from history Kangchenjunga is his imprimatur derived from a real spiritual experience that was born out of talking to young German backpackers in Darjeeling and immersing their experiences in cultural and folkloric material of the tribal people from Nepal and Bhutan Out of the rich amalgam comes a searing tragedy that will haunt the reader for a long time to come Man is mortal We live a short time and then pass on The world we leave behind remains as cold and indifferent We leave our stories as testaments to our miserable achievements or lack of achievements We should be grateful if the stories we leave behind in the insubstantial pages of literature or history can offer someone somewhere an insight or some moments of satisfaction having decoded the messages held in stories poems and dramas Such are the delights offered in stories like Adam Send for Eliab Through Fire and Brimstone Cleansing the Land Lamp Shades and Cushion Covers and When the God of Death Is the Death of God Some readers may find some stories distressing but the poetry that emanates from them tries to compensate for the harsh reality of a heartless and cold world that is indifferent to the stories that derive from our lives we are driven to leading These stories are like the metaphors of life we leave narrated in and left to time It is you the reader that will give them a measure of immortality as you keep reading making the stories of these sad victims your own Live again but in another dimension your own and these others Drunk Slutty Elf and other Stories D.G. Women Who Live in Coffee Shops and Other Stories Stella Pope Duarte, 2010-04-01 Everybody says that the owner of Sal's Diner is a former Mafioso but nine year old Joanna whose mom has worked for him as long as she can remember has a hard time believing he's a Mafia retiree But one day when two fat toothless men who look like the Godfather's brothers show up at the diner she wonders if maybe the rumor is true And when Sal is arrested a few days later Joanna's mother not only runs the diner while he's in jail she also leads the charge to save him Can the women who frequent his diner the League of Women Who Live in Coffee Shops save Sal from doing hard time in prison Set against an urban backdrop of seedy motels and dilapidated houses next to industrial buildings and railroad tracks Stella Pope Duarte's award winning stories follow characters who make up the city's underbelly Some strut through the lethal streets flamboyant and hard to miss flashy divas transvestites and prostitutes like Valentine one of the girls who decorated Van Buren Street like ornaments dangling precariously on a Christmas tree Others remain hidden invisible to those who don't seek them out bag ladies illegals and addicts

Those Who Smiled, and Eleven Other Stories Perceval Gibbon, 2019-12-17 In Those Who Smiled and Eleven Other Stories Perceval Gibbon presents a compelling anthology that deftly intertwines themes of human emotion cultural displacement and the intricate nuances of societal interactions Gibbon's prose is characterized by its lyrical elegance and incisive observation drawing the reader into vivid and often poignant narratives that capture the essence of early 20th century life Set against the backdrop of a rapidly changing world these stories explore the complexity of human relationships often revealing the underlying melancholy that accompanies the quest for connection and understanding Perceval Gibbon a South African writer who spent considerable time in England draws from his experiences of cultural richness and societal contrasts His unique perspective combines a keen sense of irony with an empathetic understanding of human frailty The backdrop of colonialism and its impact on identity permeates Gibbon's work allowing for a deeper exploration of personal and communal strife ultimately inviting readers to reflect on their own lives and choices This collection is recommended for readers who appreciate rich storytelling that delves into the human psyche Gibbon's ability to render the ordinary extraordinary will resonate with those who seek not just entertainment but insight into the heart of humanity Those Who Smiled stands as a testament to the enduring power of short fiction in illuminating the complexities of everyday existence

The Dinner Club and Other Stories Rob Keeley, 2021-03-11 The Dinner Club and Other Stories sees a slight shift away from the fantasy elements of previous books to a style of story more rooted in the here and now However all the most popular characters and set ups from the first two books are present here along with many new characters and some innovative storylines

Red Goats and Other Stories WEI QINGGUANG, LI JIA, 2018-08-14 Introduction to the book and author This book is a collection of stories written by Liao Yirong a writer of the Dongxiang ethnic group in China Liao was born in 1976 in Xihaigu one of the driest places in China Once a wrangler in the grasslands under the Tianshan Mountains and a gold miner in the Bayan Har Mountains Liao has left his footprints on all over the west of China He began to publish his works in the early 1990s and has published over two million words in major Chinese literary journals Liao has been awarded the third National Spring Literary Prize in 2004 the Feitian Prize for Literature in 2005 and the Horse Award for national minority literatures in 2008 Liao Yirong was invited to participate in an international writers project held at the University of Iowa America in 2010 Some of his works have been translated into foreign languages and introduced to readers overseas Her Weight in Gold; And other stories George Barr McCutcheon,2025-08-30 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Beauty of the Dead and Other Stories H.E. Bates,2016-03-15 The Beauty of the Dead Jonathan Cape 1940 featuring fifteen stories was released to critical acclaim Pamela Hansford Johnson wrote in John O London s Weekly that all have that delicate luminosity by which visions are seen more clearly than in the bright sunlight Old is a snapshot of an elderly man no longer appreciated or respected by his children and extended family during a Sunday tea He finds a companion in his seven year old grand niece making animal shapes out of biscuits and eventually falling into a mesmeric peace as she brushes his hair There is a glimpse of Bates s childhood experiences in Quartette written through the eyes of a music director The story accounts the attraction between two of the singers which the director worries is breaking up the group yet on their last song he can feel the passionate quality of their singing transcending the small hot room and the small bewildered minds Bates had much personal knowledge of choirs and singing through his father who was a choir director The Bridge is narrated by a twenty two year old woman while she and her older sister vie for the attention of the same man The Spectator praised it as a masterly short story courageously conceived thick with symbolism it is a triumphant display of control For the first time this collection features the comic bonus story Obadiah After a tough poverty stricken childhood Obadiah s scheme to make his fortune begins with a pig He wanted neither children nor romance but a partner in business so when he meets a widow with similar values he wins her over in what becomes a comic sketch of a bickering couple a rare and brilliant piece of caricature in Bates s canon Published in the New Clarion 1933 and not republished since
