Group Politics in UN Multilateralism provides a new perspective on diplomacy and negotiations at the United Nations Very few states act individually at the UN instead they often work within groups such as the Africa Group the European Union or the Arab League States use groups to put forward principled positions in an attempt to influence a wider audience and thus legitimize desired outcomes Yet the volume also shows that groups are not static new groups emerge in multilateral negotiations on issues such as climate security and human rights At any given moment UN multilateralism is shaped by long standing group dynamics as well as shifting ad hoc groupings These intergroup dynamics are key to understanding diplomatic practice at the UN National Security Crisis Forecasting And Management Gerald W. Hopple,2019-03-08

Pfetsch, Christoph Rohloff, 2013-10-11 The information flow about crises and conflicts is highly selective the media only focus on a few major conflicts at a time Many conflicts are neglected others soon forgotten after the fighting ends This book fills the gaps and offers a systematic overview of all crises and conflicts in and among states since 1945 and traces the global trends of conflict development Based on the broad empirical basis of the Conflict Simulation Model KOSIMO Pfetsch and Rohloff use an integrated approach to cover many forms and types of political conflicts both peaceful and violent Confronting War Ronald J. Glossop, 1994 This updated and revised through 1993 edition of an immensely successful textbook reflects upheavals in the global geopolitical climate and examines why countries continue to build war arsenals in a time of relative peace As an increasing number of countries gain nuclear capabilities and the number of intranational and regional conflicts grow it becomes apparent that the end of the Cold War did not end the threat of war Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
