The Everyday Nationalism of Workers upends common notions about how European nationalism is lived and experienced by ordinary people and the bottom up impact these everyday expressions of nationalism exert on institutionalized nationalism writ large Drawing on sources from the major urban and working class centers of Belgium Maarten Van Ginderachter uncovers the everyday nationalism of the rank and file of the socialist Belgian Workers Party between 1880 and World War I a period in which Europe experienced the concurrent rise of nationalism and socialism as mass movements Analyzing sources from not just about ordinary workers Van Ginderachter reveals the limits of nation building from above and the potential of agency from below With a rich and diverse base of sources including workers propaganda pence ads that reveal a Twitter like transcript of proletarian consciousness the book shows all the complexity of socialist workers ambivalent engagement with nationhood patriotism ethnicity and language By comparing the Belgian case with the rise of nationalism across Europe Van Ginderachter sheds new light on how multilingual societies fared in the age of mass politics and ethnic nationalism
