Abstract

Modern Irish Poetry

Robert F. Garratt

Modern Irish Poetry:

Modern Irish Poets W. J. Paul, 1897 Modern Irish Poetry Patrick Crotty, 1995 This is a collection of over 250 poems which represent the best Irish poetry since Yeats Short biographical critical essays on each poet and an introduction makes this a useful companion for anyone wanting to experience contemporary Irish poetry Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Seán Riordáin to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet Mairéad Ní Dire In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire In This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell's concept of the zig zag movement of a country's culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language Modern Irish Poetry Robert F. Garratt, 1989-01-01 Traces the history of twentieth century Irish poetry and examines the Irish literary tradition An Anthology of Modern Irish Poetry Wes Davis, 2010 Never before has there been a single volume anthology of modern Irish poetry so significant and groundbreaking as An Anthology of Modern Irish Poetry Collected here is a comprehensive representation of Irish poetic achievement in the twentieth and twenty first centuries from poets such as Austin Clarke and Samuel Beckett who were writing while Yeats and Joyce were still living to those who came of age in the turbulent early 60s as sectarian violence escalated including Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley to a new generation of Irish writers represented by such diverse interesting voices as David Wheatley born 1970 and Sinéad Morrissey born 1972 Scholar and editor Wes Davis has chosen work by more than fifty leading modern and contemporary Irish poets Each poet is represented by a generous number of poems there are nearly 800 poems in the anthology The editor's selection includes work by world renowned poets including a couple of Nobel Prize winners as well as work by poets whose careers may be less well known to the general public by poets writing in English and by several working in the Irish language Gaelic selections appear in translation Accompanying the selections are a general introduction that provides a historical overview informative short essays on each poet and helpful notes all prepared by the editor
