The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

The Art of Parisian Chic Justine De Young, 2025-07-10 Using artworks by Berthe Morisot douard Manet Claude Monet Pierre Auguste Renoir and others The Art of Parisian Chic explores how women and artists in Impressionist Paris 1855 1885 crafted their public images to exploit and resist stereotypes French societal expectations and beauty ideals shaped how women were seen and how they chose to present themselves in public whether on the street in a photograph or in a portrait on the walls of the annual Paris Salon On Paris's broad new boulevards and in its public parks and theaters women dressed to impress anonymous strangers as well as their friends They even circulated aspirational photographs of themselves Looking at a rich array of visual sources from portraits to modern life paintings and from photographs to fashion plates Justine De Young reveals how women were seen how they aspired to be seen and how they navigated public life in Second Empire and Belle époque Paris This book considers how fashionable feminine types made famous in books caricatures and paintings created a visual lexicon and stylistic guide for women Men and women alike relied on these types cocotte mistress jeune veuve young widow amazone independent equestrienne demoiselle de magasin shopgirl and Parisienne chic Parisian woman to judge the class character morality and worth of strangers With a rich set of illustrations from the Impressionist canon and beyond The Art of Parisian Chic shows how modern women used fashion and these stereotypes to construct and reinvent their identities

Modern Art David Cottington, 2005-02-24 As public interest in modern art continues to grow as witnessed by the spectacular success of Tate Modern and the Bilbao Guggenheim there is a real need for a book that will engage general readers offering them not only information and ideas about modern art but also explaining its contemporary relevance and history This book achieves all this and focuses on interrogating the idea of modern art by asking such questions as What has made a work of art qualify as modern or fail to How has this selection been made What is the relationship between modern and contemporary art Is postmodernist art no longer modern or just no longer modernist in either case why and what does this claim mean both for art and the idea of the modern Cottington examines many key aspects of this subject including the issue of controversy in modern art from Manet's Dejeuner sur l'Herbe 1863 to Picasso's Les Femmes d'Alger and Tracey Emin's Bed 1999 and the role of the dealer from the main Cubist art dealer Kahnweiler to Charles Saatchi

Rivals and Conspirators Fae Brauer,2014-07-08 Once the State run Salon in Paris closed an array of independent Salons mushroomed starting with the French Artists Salon and Women s Salon in 1881 followed by the Independent Artists Salon National Salon of Fine Arts and Autumn Salon Offering an unparalleled choice of art identities and alliances together with undreamed of opportunities for sales commissions prizes and art criticism these great Salons guaranteed the centripetal and centrifugal power of Paris as the modern art centre Lured by the prospect of being exhibited annually in Salons the size of Biennales today a huge number and national diversity of artists from the Australian Rupert Bunny to the Spaniards Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris flocked to Paris Yet by no means were these Salons equal in power nor did they work consensually to forge this modern art centre Formed on the basis of their different cultural politics constantly they rivalled one another for State acquisitions and commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown Historical Narratives of Global Modern Art Irina D. Costache, Clare Kunny, 2023-07-31
