Modern Woman Revisited Paris Between The Wars:

The Modern Woman Revisited Whitney Chadwick, Tirza True Latimer, 2003 Between the two world wars Paris served as the setting for unparalleled freedom for expatriate as well as native born French women who enjoyed unprecedented access to education and opportunities to participate in public artistic and intellectual life Many of these women including Colette Tamara de Lempicka Sonia Delaunay Djuna Barnes Augusta Savage and Lee Miller made lasting contributions to art and literature

Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Jasmine Rault, 2017-07-05 The first book length feminist analysis of Eileen Gray's work Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Staying In argues that Gray's unusual architecture and design as well as its history of abuse and neglect emerged from her involvement with cultures of sapphic modernism Bringing together a range of theoretical and historical sources from architecture and design communication and media to gender and sexuality studies Jasmine Rault shows that Gray shared with many of her female contemporaries a commitment to designing spaces for sexually dissident modernity This volume examines Gray's early lacquer work and Romaine Brooks' earliest nude paintings Gray's first built house E 1027 in relation to Radclyffe Hall and her novel The Well of Loneliness and Gray's private house Tempe nbsp Pailla with Djuna Barnes Nightwood While both female sexual dissidence and modernist architecture were reduced to rigid identities through mass media women such as Gray Brooks Hall and Barnes resisted the clarity of such identities with opaque non communicative aesthetics Rault demonstrates that by defying the modern imperative to publicity clarity and identity Gray helped design a sapphic modernity that cultivated the dynamism of uncertain bodies and unfixed pleasures which depended on staying in rather than coming out

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Paris Anna-Louise Milne, 2013-08-01 No city more than Paris has had such a constant and deep association with the development of literary forms and cultural ideas The idea of the city as a space of literary self consciousness started to take hold in the sixteenth century By 1620 where this volume begins the first in a long line of extraordinary works of the human imagination in which the city represented itself to itself had begun to find form in print This collection follows that process through to the present day Beginning with the salon followed by the hybrid culture of libertinage and the revolutionary hotbeds of working class districts it explores the continuities and changes between the pre modern era and the nineteenth century when Paris asserted itself as cultural capital of Europe It goes on to explore how this vision of Paris as a key capital of modernity has shaped contemporary literature

The Modern Girl Around the World Alys Eve Weinbaum, Lynn M. Thomas, Priti Ramamurthy, Uta G. Poiger, Madeleine Yue Dong, Tani Barlow, 2008-12-24 A collection that examines the global phenomenon of the Modern Girl that emerged in the 1920s and 30s

Claude Cahun Gen Doy, 2020-08-13 This is the first single authored book in English on the photographer Claude Cahun whose work was rediscovered in the 1980s Doy moves beyond standard postmodern approaches instead repositioning the artist born Lucy Schwob in the context of the turbulent times in which she lived and seeing the photographs as part of Cahun's wider life as an artist and writer a woman and lesbian and as a political activist in the early twentieth century Doy rethinks Cahun's approach to dress and masquerade looking at the images in light of the situation of women at the time and within the prevailing beauty culture Addressing Cahun's ambivalent relationship with Symbolism and later relationship with Surrealism this highly readable book also looks at Cahun's unusual approach to the domestic object

Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci   des Femmes Artistes Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art's conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum's study redresses this omission contextualizing the group's legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group's artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum's extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

Pr  t-  -Porter, Paris and Women Alexis Romano, 2022-05-19 In the first critical history of French ready made fashion Alexis Romano examines an array of cultural sources including surviving garments fashion magazines film photography and interviews to weave together previously disparate historical narratives The resulting volume Pr  t Porter Paris and Women situates the ready made in wider cultural discourses of art design urbanism technology and international policy Through a close study of fashion magazines including Vogue and Elle Romano reveals how the French ready made and the genre of fashion photography in France developed in tandem Analyses of representations of space women and pr  t porter in such magazines alongside other cultural ephemera such as contemporary film documentary photography and family photographs demonstrate that popular conceptions of fashion and modernity shifted in the period 1945-68 By connecting national and personal histories Pr  t Porter Paris and Women reveals the importance of the ready made to broader narratives of postwar reconstruction national identity gender and international dialogue

Modern Print Activism in the United States Rachel Schreiber, 2016-04-15 The explosion of print culture that occurred in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century activated the widespread use of print media to promote social and political activism Exploring this phenomenon the essays in Modern Print Activism in the United States focus on specific groups individuals and causes that relied on print as a vehicle for activism They also take up the variety of print forms in which calls for activism have appeared including fiction editorials letters to the editor graphic satire and non periodical media such as pamphlets and calendars As the contributors show activists have used print media in a range of ways not only in expected applications such as calls for boycotts and protests but also for less expected aims such as the creation of networks among readers and to the legitimization of their causes At a time when the golden age of print appears to be ending Modern Print Activism in the United States argues that print activism should be studied as a specifically modernist phenomenon and poses questions related to the efficacy of print as a vehicle for social and political change

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

The Women of 'Little Paris' Sonia-Doris Andras, 2024-11-14 Filling a gap in Eastern European fashion studies this book presents middle class women consuming fashion in the symbolic Little Paris of interwar Bucharest and examines how their material and cultural means supported the city's modernisation Combining archival research with personal archaeology this interdisciplinary work explores Romania's reinvention as a modern state focusing on middle class women as they lived their lives walking through the streets at lavish events at cafes and clubs shopping and working Analysing largely unseen unused written and visual texts The Women of Little Paris encourages exploration of new avenues for research uniting scholars of Romanian culture history and fashion and guiding readers through a forgotten little explored world and in so doing adds to our understanding and knowledge of the global image of interwar fashion cultures and the emerging field of Romanian fashion studies

Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles, religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire. This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art, the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I.

Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers, Joana Cunha Leal, Benedikt Hjartarson, Margarida Brito Alves, 2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other? The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures, art's increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level, literary translation, the advance of technology and the ever-changing grand narratives of art history. As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes, the collection features discussions of Japan, Latin America, Africa, Asia and the Pacific. As a whole, the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers. The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly.

1920s Fashion Sourcebook Charlotte Fiell, 2021-12-07 There isn't a more comprehensive source to Twenties fashion that I can think of. An absolute must for anyone interested in Twenties fashion or art deco. Style, High Club. A source of all the styles, colours, shapes and silhouettes of the Golden Twenties. Vogue. From the glitz and glamour of the Roaring Twenties came a fashion revolution. The 1920s is a decade synonymous with social change reflected in its groundbreaking fashions from the daring elegance of the New Woman to never before seen silhouettes, the styles of the Roaring Twenties still capture the imagination a century later. Sumptuously illustrated with over 500 original photographs, sketches and prints, this extensive sourcebook documents the season by season fashions of the Jazz Age. Follow the evolving fashion trends and uncover a fascinating analysis of the progression from haute couture to ready to wear in this essential handbook for all fashion historians, students and vintage enthusiasts. Authored and edited by renowned design historian Charlotte Fiell, this volume also contains an authoritative introduction by fashion historian Emmanuelle Dirix as well as the biographies of the key designers and fashion houses of the period.

Fashioning the City Agnès Rocamora, 2009-04-30 While much attention has been paid to the making of Paris in the work of writers and artists, little is known about the city as defined and created by the fashion media. Filling this gap in studies of the French capital, this original and illuminating book focuses on how the French fashion press with its rich conjunction of words and images has been able to construct Paris as a leading world fashion city. Based in an original analysis of fashion writing and images in contemporary French fashion magazines and newspapers, the book shows how the fashion media have been central to the consecration of the city of Paris on the fashion map as well as its celebration in the collective imaginary Agnes Rocamora explores for example the figures of la Parisienne and la passante the female passer by and the presence of the Eiffel tower in fashion visuals She gives attention to the continuum between the French journalistic discourse and that of cultural forms such as films paintings and literature thus revealing the persistence across texts and time of visions of Paris and shedding light on the production and reproduction of the Paris myth

"Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939" Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La Révolution surréaliste edited by André Breton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and recontextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot's clinic at the Salpêtrière hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s

The Fury Archives Juno Jill Richards, 2020-08-11 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries radical women's movements and the avant gardes were often in contact with one another brought together through the socialist internationals Juno Jill Richards argues that these movements were not just socially linked but also deeply interconnected Each offered the other an experimental language that could move beyond the nation state's rights of man and citizen suggesting an alternative conceptual vocabulary for women's rights Rather than focus on the demand for the vote The Fury Archives turns to the daily practices and social worlds of feminist action It offers an alternative history of women's rights practiced by female arsonists suffragette rioters industrial saboteurs self named terrorists lesbian criminals and queer resistance cells Richards also examines the criminal proceedings that emerged in the wake of women's actions tracing the way that citizen and human emerged as linked categories for women on the fringes of an international campaign for suffrage Recovering a transatlantic print archive Richards brings together a wide range of activists and artists including Lumina Sophie Ina C. Saire Rosa Luxemburg Rebecca West Angelina Weld Grimké Elizabeth Gurley Flynn Hannah Hoch Claude Cahun Paulette Nardal and Leonora Carrington An expansive and methodologically innovative book The Fury Archives argues that the relationship of women's rights movements and the avant gardes offers a radical alternative to liberal discourses of human rights in formation at the same historical moment

Oscar Wilde and Modern Culture Joseph Bristow, 2009-01-12 Oscar

Wilde and Modern Culture The Making of a Legend explores the meteoric rise sudden fall and legendary resurgence of an immensely influential writer s reputation from his hectic 1881 American lecture tour to recent Hollywood adaptations of his dramas Always renowned if not notorious for his fashionable persona Wilde courted celebrity at an early age Later he came to prominence as one of the most talented essayists and fiction writers of his time In the years leading up to his two year imprisonment Wilde stood among the foremost dramatists in London But after he was sent down for committing acts of gross indecency it seemed likely that social embarrassment would inflict irreparable damage to his legacy As this volume shows Wilde died in comparative obscurity Little could he have realized that in five years his name would come back into popular circulation thanks to the success of Richard Strauss s opera Salome and Robert Ross s edition of De Profundi With each succeeding decade the twentieth century continued to honor Wilde s name by keeping his plays in repertory producing dramas about his life adapting his works for film and devising countless biographical and critical studies of his writings This volume reveals why more than a hundred years after his demise Wilde s value in the academic world the auction house and the entertainment industry stands higher than that of any modern writer

Gender, Generation, and Journalism in France, 1910-1940 Mary Lynn Stewart, 2018-06-20 In the late nineteenth century the first wave of female journalists began writing in the French daily press Yet while they undeniably opened doors for the next generations of educated women sexist hiring practices assumptions about women s aptitudes as reporters and more subtle gender biases continued to saturate the industry in the decades that followed Gender Generation and Journalism in France 1910 1940 investigates the careers and written work of ten women who regularly reported in the national Paris based dailies Addressing the role of mentorship family connections gendered behaviours reporting styles and subject matter Mary Lynn Stewart debunks lingering essentialist notions about women s entry into journalism She shows that struggling newspapers attempting to reverse declining circulation hired women to cover subjects that expanded to include international relations colonial conflicts trials local politics and social problems Through content analysis deixis and systematic comparisons of several women and men reporting on the same or different events she further queries claims about a feminine style finding more similarities than differences between masculine and feminine reporting Documenting the persistence of gender discrimination in the hiring assigning and assessment of women reporters in the French daily press Gender Generation and Journalism in France 1910 1940 demonstrates that through the support of their female colleagues women managed to succeed despite a variety of challenges

A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins, 2022-01-06 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres

Modernist Magazines and the Social Ideal Tim

Satterthwaite, 2020-09-03 The new photo illustrated magazines of the 1920s traded in images of an ideal modernity promising motorised leisure scientific progress and social and sexual emancipation Modernist Magazines and the Social Ideal is a pioneering history of these periodicals focusing on two of the leading European titles the German monthly UHU and the French news weekly VU taken as representative of the broad class of popular titles launched in the 1920s The book is the first major study of UHU and the first scholarly work on VU in English Modernist Magazines explores in particular the striking use of regularity and repetition in photographs of modernity reading these repetitious images as symbolic of modernist ideals of social order in the aftermath of the First World War Introducing a novel methodology pattern theory the book argues for a critical return to the Gestalt tradition in visual studies Alongside the UHU and VU case studies Modernist Magazines offers an essential primer to interwar magazine culture in Europe Accounts of rival titles are woven into the book's thematic chapters which trace the evolution of the two magazines photography and graphic design in the tumultuous years up to 1933
