undergraduates studying modern world history and international relations and an ideal companion for anyone with an interest in how the world got into its present state      A Concise History of the Modern World William Woodruff,1998-06-30 By investigating the major changes in world history during the past five hundred years Woodruff explains to what extent world forces have been responsible for shaping both the past and the present This extraordinary book tells of the rise and fall of empires and civilizations it recounts the growing communality and interdependence of nations it shows how so many problems of the contemporary world are the legacy of an unprecedented era of western domination the end of which was hastened by the two world wars In explaining how the world has come to be what it is the author examines the implications surrounding the end of the cold war the unravelling of communism in Eastern Europe and the growing challenge of the non western world to western superiority It is Woodruff s belief that we have reached a crucial transitional stage in world history in which the world will no longer be shaped by the single image of western modernism but increasingly by the image of all cultures and civilizations With the shift of geopolitical and geoeconomic power to Asia and with the growing world wide influence of religious fundamentalism and revolutionary nationalism the need for a global perspective has become acute A Concise History of the Modern World encompasses the learning and the insights gleaned by the author from a life time career as a world historian      World History Teaching in Asia Shingo Minamizuka,2019-03-30 World History Teaching in Asia is the first broad survey of the content and approaches used to teach world history in secondary schools and colleges in Asia The collection has been crafted by scholars and educators whose goal was to shed light on the importance of history education and to foster understanding of and between Asian countries These essays show how the teaching of world history in Asian countries has developed since World War II with many interesting parallels including the issue of Eurocentrism but also distinctive national trends and considerable changes over time At a time when many Asian countries are making great strides in education this study of history education in Asia will be of real interest to educators history scholars and policy makers worldwide      Modern World History for Edexcel Specification A. Malcolm Chandler,2001 This student book is a foundation edition of the syllabus specific text for GCSE Modern World History for Edexcel This text provides a simplified version of the core textbook and is targeting students expecting to gain C to G grades      Australian National Bibliography ,1986      Routledge Library Editions: Curriculum Various,2021-07-09 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1994 this collection includes books which offer a broad spectrum of views on curriculum both within individual schools and the wider issues around curriculum development reform and implementation Some cover the debate surrounding the establishment of the national curriculum in the UK while others are a more international in scope Many of these books go beyond theory to discuss practical issues of real curriculum changes at primary or secondary level The Set includes books on cross curricular topics such as citizenship and environment and also guidance careers life skills and pastoral care in schools A fantastic collection of education history with much still relevant today      A Concise History of the Modern World W. Woodruff, 2016-01-22 By investigating the major changes of world history during the past five hundred years this book provides the necessary global perspective to understand the geopolitical and geoeconomic changes facing us today We have reached a crucial transitional stage in world history in which the world will no longer be shaped by the single image of western modernism but increasingly by the image of all cultures and civilizations The need to take a world view which this book provides has become acute

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures
