POTET, 2018 When the Spaniards conquered the Philippines Cebu 1565 Manila 1571 they noticed several of its nations had a writing system of their own called Bayb yin in Tagalog It was a kind of short hand that did not make it possible to record closing consonants thus i lu in Bayb yin could represent log river i l ng nose or it l g egg so much so that while easy to write it was difficult to read Because of this shortcoming it gave way to the Latin alphabet in the course of the 17th century Nowadays Filipino graphic artists are reviving Bayb yin to express their philippineness Journal of American Folklore ,1901 Reciprocal Constructions Vladimir P. Nedjalkov, 2007-11-06 This monograph constitutes the first comprehensive investigation of reciprocal constructions and related phenomena in the world's languages Reciprocal constructions of the type The two boys hit each other The poets admire each other's poems have often been the subject of language particular studies but it is only in this work that a truly global comparative picture emerges Nine stage setting chapters dealing with general and theoretical matters are followed by 40 chapters containing in depth descriptions of reciprocals in individual languages by renowned specialists The introductory papers provide a conceptual and terminological framework that allows the authors of the individual chapters to characterize their languages in comparable terms making it easy for the reader to see points of commonality between languages and constructions that have never been compared before This set of volumes is an indispensable starting point and will be a lasting reference work for any future studies of reciprocals FILIPINIANA BIBLIOGRAPHY Jean-Paul G.
