Modernist Patterns Lit Visual Arts:

Modernist Patterns M. Roston, 1999-12-07 In this stimulating study the author explores how Conrad T S Eliot Woolf Joyce Faulkner Hemingway Huxley and others responded to the immediate challenges of their time to the implications of Freudian psychology molecular theory relativist theory and the general weakening of religious faith Assuming that artists and writers in coping with those problems would develop techniques in many ways comparable even where there was no direct contact he positions Modernist literature within the context of contemporary painting architecture and sculpture thereby providing some fascinating insights into the nature of the literary works themselves Russian Literature,

Modernism and the Visual Arts Catriona Kelly, Stephen Lovell, 2000-03-09 In the Russian modernist era literature threw itself open to influences from other art forms most particularly the visual arts Collaborations between writers artists designers and theatre and cinema directors took place more intensively and productively than ever before or since Equally striking was the incursion of spatial and visual motifs and structures into verbal texts Verbal and visual principles of creation joined forces in an attempt to transform and surpass life through art Yet willed transcendence of the boundaries between art forms gave rise to confrontation and creative tension as well as to harmonious co operation This collection of essays by leading British American and Russian scholars first published in 2000 draws on a rich variety of material from Dostoevskii to Siniavskii from writers doodles to cabarets from well known modernists such as Akhmatova Malevich Platonov and Olesha to less well known figures to demonstrate the creative power and dynamism of Russian culture on the boundaries Modernist Soundscapes Angela Frattarola, 2018-11-12 This study questions how early twentieth century auditory technologies altered sound perception and how these developments shaped the modernist novel Without polarizing vision and audition this book reveals how modernists tend to use auditory perception to connect characters shifting the subject from a distanced judgmental observer to a reverberating body attuned to the moment Cultures of Modernism Cristanne Miller, 2007

Examines the influences of location on the literary achievements of three modernist women writers Sacred and Secular in Medieval and Early Modern Cultures L. Besserman, 2006-02-04 This book illuminates the pervasive interplay of sacred and secular phenomena in the literature history politics and religion of the Middle Ages and Early Modern periods The essays gathered here constitute a new way of applying a classic dichotomy to major cultural phenomena of the pre modern era

The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature M. Roston, 2001-09-05 The scientific achievements of the modern world failed to impress the leading writers of this century leaving them instead profoundly disturbed by a sense of lost values and of the insignificance of the individual in a universe seemingly indifferent to human concerns In The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature Roston explores the strategies adopted by such mid century authors as Greene Salinger Osborne Baldwin and others in their attempt to cope with the spiritual vacuity strategies including the emergence of the anti hero and of literary existentialism and offer in the course of the investigation fascinatingly new insights into their work Graham

Greene's Narrative Strategies M. Roston, 2006-07-31 In Narrative Strategies Roston focuses upon the Greene's texts themselves and their manipulation of reader response highlighting the innovative strategies that Greene developed to cope with the mid century invalidation of the traditional hero The result is a stimulating new reading of the major novels

Hobson, 2011-10-26 The angel can be viewed as a signal reference to modernist attempts to accommodate religious languages to self consciously modern cultures This book uses the angel to explore the relations between modernist literature and early twentieth century debates over the secular and or religious character of the modern age

European Intertexts Patsy Stoneman, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, Angela Leighton, 2005 European Intertexts is the first fruit of an ongoing collaborative study aiming to challenge the isolationism of much critical work on English literature by exploring the interdependence of English and continental European literatures in writing by women While later volumes will deal with specific texts this introductory volume provides a descriptive framework and a theoretical basis for studies in the field Covering issues such as the role of English as a world language the definition of Europe and the current state of Translation Studies the book also surveys theories of intertextuality and demonstrates intertextual links between written and visual and film texts This book is itself pioneering in making a systematic approach to women's writings in English in the context of other European cultures Although Europe is a political reality this cultural interpenetration remains largely unexamined and these essays represent an important first step towards revealing that unexplored richness

Iconotropism Ellen Spolsky, 2004 The essays in this collection expand the boundaries of inter art studies claiming that human beings have evolved to draw nourishment from pictures Ellen Spolsky argues in a polemical introduction that the recognition of our embodied need for pictures that is our human iconotropism provides a fresh way of understanding the relationship of works of art to their historical contexts Jacket

The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahlen, Nina Michaela Von Dahlen, 2013-07 A re turn to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis

E.E. Cummings: Poetry and Ecology Etienne Terblanche, 2012-01-01 By employing the modernist devices of fragmentation recombination and accentuated blank space E E Cummings engages singularly with being on earth This ecological achievement was largely ignored by the New Critics and the subsequent semiotic spirit which has been holding that the sign hardly has to do with concrete existence on earth ironically perpetuated the neglect In this book Etienne Terblanche shows that Cummings's ecology relocates his oeuvre and status in contemporary discourse For the poet follows mimes and connects with the unfolding changes of earthly existence and growth what he views as the Tao of being in his lyricism sex poems satire and visual verbal poems This is true especially of the elusive manner or how of his poetry overall Careful ecocritical reading of this active culture nature integrity in his poetry brings about an imperative new understanding and placement of his project It further serves to show that in their different ways T S Eliot and Ezra Pound engage with nature in a similar way thus again accentuating the importance of Cummings's poetic project to the neglected and vital ecocritical perception of modernism in poetry

Crafting Feminism from Literary Modernism to the Multimedia Present Amy E. Elkins, 2022 Crafting Feminism develops a dynamic study of craft and art making in modern and contemporary feminist writing In evocative readings of literary works from Virginia Woolf to Zadie Smith this book expands our sense of transartistic modernist scholarship to encompass process oriented and medium specific analyses of textile arts digital design collage photography painting and sculpture in literary culture By integrating these craft practices into the book's enlightening archive Elkins's theoretical argument extends a reading of craft metaphors into the material present Crafting Feminism demonstrates how writers have engaged with handiwork across generations and have undertaken the crafting of a new modernity one that is queer and feminist threaded messy shattered cut up pasted together preserved repaired reflected and spun out An avant garde work of scholarship this book interweaves queer research methods and interdisciplinary rigor with a series of surprising archival discoveries Making visible the collaborative creative features of craft Elkins captivates readers with generous illustrations and a series of Techne interchapters interludes between longer chapters which powerfully convey the symbiosis between feminist theory and method and detail the network of archival influences that underpin this volume's hybrid approach. Foregrounding the work of decentering patriarchal and Eurocentric legacies of artistic authority, Elkins champions the diverse intergenerational history of craft as a way to reposition intersectional makers at the heart of literary culture. An original and compelling study. Crafting Feminism breaks new ground in modernist and visual studies, digital humanities, and feminist, queer, and critical race theory.

Jungian Metaphor in Modernist Literature Roula-Maria Dib, 2020-02-19. Jungian Metaphor in Modernist Literature argues for the centrality of Carl Jung's theory of individuation and alchemy in modernist poetics. Through analysis of the uses of a mythic method in modernist literary works, the book develops a related alchemical model which serves to expand understanding of modernist uses of language. The book is an innovative exploration of modernist literary creativity under a Jungian lens, spanning both the literary and scholarly Jungian field. The literary works of Hilda Doolittle, James Joyce, and W. B. Yeats are read in the light of Jung's central theme of an alchemical marriage, with attempts at developing a related alchemical model. A Jungian poetics which serves to expand a reader's understanding of modernist uses of language. This provides a fresh new lens through which modernist literature is viewed and seeks to reevaluate the role of Jung in the humanities, namely in the field of modernist literature, an area from which Jung has long been shunned. This book will be of great interest for academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of literature, modernism, psychoanalysis, gender studies, Jungian psychology, depth psychology, literary theory, and cultural studies.

Psychedelic Modernism: Literature and Film Raj Chandarlapaty, 2024-04-16. The primary purpose of Psychedelic Modernism: Literature and Film is to trace the development of ideas and perspectives from the writing and private ambitions of 20th-century modernist writers, including Aldous Huxley. The purpose of the book is to offer a rough chronology during which ideas were first given a literary imagination, then transposed onto discussions of science and psychology, and then theoretically democratized to bring fruit to a relatively de-centered process where images, text, and interviews could re-conceptualize the modern Being from an admixture of modernist, historical, and pop roots that could express a greater moment in the human action. The work includes discussions from scientists such as Swiss chemist Albert Hofmann, rock stars such as Jerry Garcia, and unconfirmed mystics such as Carlos Castaneda. The primary focus of this work isn't literature per se, but the literary imagination as it may correspond to greater, wider, and more impactful goals than the writing of 20th-century fiction. While there is some outreach that favors de-centered models such as the Beat Generation, the author's primary purpose is to assemble an anthology covering the study and quests for knowledge from as many sides as could power the relative 1960s countercultural movement.
