Modernity And The Holocaust:

Modernity and the Holocaust Zygmunt Bauman, 2013-05-28 Sociology is concerned with modern society but has never come to terms with one of the most distinctive and horrific aspects of modernity the Holocaust The book examines what sociology can teach us about the Holocaust but more particularly concentrates upon the lessons which the Holocaust has for sociology Bauman s work demonstrates that the Holocaust has to be understood as deeply involved with the nature of modernity There is nothing comparable to this work available in the sociological literature

Revisiting Modernity and the Holocaust Jack Palmer, Dariusz Brzeziński, 2022-04-18 Zygmunt Bauman s Modernity and the Holocaust is a decisive text of intellectual reflection after Auschwitz in which Bauman rejected the idea that the Holocaust represented the polar opposite of modernity and saw it instead as its dark potentiality Bringing together leading scholars from across disciplines this volume offers the first set of focused and critical commentaries on this classic work of social theory evaluating its ongoing contribution to scholarship in the social sciences and humanities Addressing the core messages of Modernity and the Holocaust that continue to sound amidst the convulsions of the present the chapters situate Bauman s volume in the social cultural and academic context of its genesis and considers its role in the complex processes of Holocaust memorialisation Offering extensions of Bauman s thesis to lesser known and undertheorised events of mass violence and also considering the significance of Janina Bauman s writings in their own right this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology intellectual history Holocaust and genocide studies moral philosophy memory studies and cultural theory

Modernism and Race Len Platt, 2011-02-24 The transnational turn has transformed modernist studies challenging Western authority over modernism and positioning race and racial theories at the very centre of how we now understand modern literature Modernism and Race examines relationships between racial typologies and literature in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries drawing on fin de siècle versions of anthropology sociology political science linguistics and biology Collectively these essays interrogate the anxieties and desires that are expressed in or projected onto racialized figures They include new outlines of how the critical field has developed revaluations of canonical modernist figures like James Joyce T S Eliot Ford Madox Ford and Wyndham Lewis and accounts of writers often positioned at the margins of modernism such as Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and the Holocaust writers Solomon Perel and Gisella Perl This collection by leading scholars of modernism will make an important contribution to a growing field

Writing the Holocaust Jean-Marc Dreyfus, Daniel Langton, 2011-09-01 Writing the Holocaust provides students and teachers with an accessibly written overview of the key themes and major theoretical developments which continue to inform the nature of historical writing on the Holocaust Holocaust studies is at a paradox while historians of the Holocaust defend it as a legitimate and well defined area of research they write against a complex political and ideological background that undermines any claim for it as a normative field of historical study Writing the Holocaust offers a lucid enquiry into this complex field by demonstrating the impact of current theories from the humanities and social sciences upon the treatment of Holocaust studies Evil and Human Agency Arne Johan Vetlesen, 2005-12-01 Evil is a poorly understood phenomenon In this provocative 2005 book Professor Vetlesen argues that to do evil is to intentionally inflict pain on another human being against his or her will and causing serious and foreseeable harm Vetlesen investigates why and in what sort of circumstances such a desire arises and how it is channeled or exploited into collective evildoing He argues that such evildoing pitting whole groups against each other springs from a combination of character situation and social structure By combining a philosophical approach inspired by Hannah Arendt a psychological approach inspired by C Fred Alford and a sociological approach inspired by Zygmunt Bauman and bringing these to bear on the Holocaust and ethnic cleansing in the former Yugoslavia Vetlesen shows how closely perpetrators victims and bystanders interact and how aspects of human agency are recognized denied and projected by different agents
