Modernization Threat And Power Of The Military:

Modernization, Threat, and the Power of the Military Charles F. Cortese, 1976 Geopolitics, Military Modernisation and the Future of the Indo-Pacific Bates Gill, Adam Lockyer, Yves-Heng Lim, Andrew T. H. Tan, 2024-08-02 This book examines to what extent geopolitics explains the current wave of force modernisation in the Indo Pacific region Examining the leading Indo Pacific nations in terms of defence spending the United States China India Japan South Korea Australia Taiwan Singapore Pakistan Indonesia and Thailand geopolitical principles are used to create hypotheses that can be tested against the military modernisation programmes of the major actors in the Indo Pacific region The book represents a bridge between reference works and the literature on international politics in the Indo Pacific The empirical chapters provide qualitative narratives that explore the force postures military modernisation and procurement patterns of the cases and assess why these nations military modernisation has followed particular courses and evaluate this evidence against the expectations of geopolitics and its rivals This book will be a valuable addition to scholars practitioners and indeed anyone interested in the future stability of one of the world's most important and dynamic regions Explaining Contemporary Asian Military Modernization Sheryn Lee, 2021-04-20 This book proposes a novel theoretical framework of interactive arming in order to explain armament dynamics in contemporary Asia Frequently the modernisation of contemporary naval forces in Asia is described as an arms race with the underlying assumption being that weapons acquisitions and increases in defence expenditure are competitive and bilateral and due to conflicting purposes or mutual fears This book argues that the concept of an arms race is an unsuitable one for explaining contemporary military modernisation in 21st century Asia Instead it proposes a novel and innovative concept of interactive arming and argues that what drives conflict is political rivalry not weapons acquisitions Instead of perceiving arming as abnormal behaviour the book views arming as a natural strategic behaviour of states and military modernisation as a basic requirement for a state's ability to survive This book will be of much interest to students of Asian security strategic studies and international relations in general Military Modernisation in Southeast Asia after the Cold War Shang-Su Wu, 2024-04-01 Southeast Asian countries represent a wide range of approaches to military modernisation due to their great diversity in politics economies geography and other factors Bounded by the Pacific and Indian Oceans and located between China and India is the setting for the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation in Southeast Asian countries Differing from previous research focused on military acquisition this book additionally covers retention of assets and carefully examines the ageing issues that affect readiness and capabilities In doing so it provides a comprehensive view of military modernisation This book also compares each country's situation in the region in terms of military strength and security challenges to elaborate on the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation The ten cases of military modernisation in the post Cold War context provide rich content for readers to explore the evolution of military modernisation in developing countries after 1991 This book sheds light on security studies of Southeast Asia and is a useful resource for academic researchers policy makers and defence practitioners

Military Modernization in an Era of Uncertainty National Bureau of Asian Research (U.S.),2005 Focuses on the defense capabilities of key Asian powers in the context of their grand strategies Through a combination of country regional and topical studies the book assesses how Asian states are modernizing their military programs in response to China s rise as a regional power the war on terrorism changes in U S force posture the revolution in military affairs and local security dilemmas In addition to this central theme each chapter examines the changing balance of power in Asia and identifies likely threats and opportunities that may arise in the next five years

Military Ethics N. Fotion, Gerard Elfstrom,2020-12-22 Many people believe that the violent and disruptive nature of war makes a military ethic impossible The authors of this book originally published in 1986 however develop an ethical system that aims to control the military monster at least to some degree rather than one that preaches to it idealistically with little or no effect Military ethics they believe must be an ethics for peacetime as well as an ethics for war an ethics for soldiers in the field as well as an ethics for political leaders and their book is designed to meet these needs It presents a practical utilitarian approach an ethics of what is possible rather than what is ideal drawing on real military experience and different from any other work previously published The authors argue that both the pacifists who claim that the horrible and ungovernable nature of war makes it morally wrong and the realists who believe that wars must be fought but fought without moral scruple are mistaken They show that careful attention to the actual circumstances in which individual combatants function and the social institutions shaping their action allows genuine moral constraint With its emphasis on real problems Military Ethics will be of practical help to policy makers and military personnel at all levels as well as being of great interest to students of applied philosophy and ethics

A Bibliography of Military Geography Eugene J. Palka,1988 This four volume document is designed to enhance scholarly research in the area of military geography and to serve as a reference tool It is anticipated that this will meet the research needs of professors and students of military science geography and history along with members of the Armed Forces government officials and planners This bibliography is organized following the accepted scheme for military geography utilizing three main categories systematic topical and regional Volume I is a complete alphabetized list Volume II is organized systematically Volume III is organized topically and Volume IV collects regional sources

Great Powers, Grand Strategies Anders Corr,2018-01-15 Great Powers Grand Strategies offers the analysis of a dozen experts on the big picture approaches to the South China Sea dispute By exploring the international dimensions of this regional hotspot Gordon Chang Bernard Cole James Fanell Bill Hayton and others examine how the military diplomatic and economic strategies of the major global actors have both contributed to solutions and exacerbated the potential for conflict As editor of this volume Anders Corr seeks to juxtapose the grand strategies of the great powers to determine the likely outcomes of the South China

Sea dispute as well as evaluate the ways to possibly defuse tensions in the region

Security, Strategy and Military Change in the 21st Century Jo Inge Bekkevold, Ian Bowers, Michael Raska, 2015-05-22 This edited volume explores and analyses strategic thinking military reform and adaptation in an era of Asian growth European austerity and US rebalancing A significant shift in policy strategy and military affairs is underway in both Asia and Europe with the former gaining increasing prominence in the domain of global security At the same time the world's powers are now faced with an array of diverse challenges The resurgence of great power politics in both Europe and Asia along with the long term threats of terrorism piracy and sustained geopolitical instability has placed great strain on militaries and security institutions operating with constrained budgets and wary public support The volume covers a wide range of case studies including the transformation of China's military in the 21st century the internal and external challenges facing India Russia's military modernization program and the USA's reassessment of its strategic interests In doing so the book provides the reader with the opportunity to conceptualize how strategic thinking military reform operational adaptation and technological integration have interacted with the challenges outlined above With contributions by leading scholars and practitioners from Europe and Asia this book provides a valuable contribution to the understanding of strategic and operational thinking and adjustment across the world This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies security studies defence studies Asian politics Russian politics US foreign policy and IR in general
