Happy Singlehood Elyakim Kislev, 2019-02-26 Happy Singlehood charts a way forward for singles to live life on their terms and shows how everyone single or coupled can benefit from accepting solo living Based on personal interviews quantitative analysis and extensive review of singles writings and literature author Elyakim Kislev uncovers groundbreaking insights on how unmarried people create satisfying lives in a world where social structures and policies are still designed to favor marriage In this carefully crafted book Kislev investigates how singles nurture social networks create innovative communities and effectively deal with discrimination Happy Singlehood challenges readers to rethink how single people organize social and familial ties in new ways and illuminates how educators policymakers and urban planners should cater to their needs

Cross Cultural Issues in Consumer Science and Consumer Psychology Hester van Herk, Carlos J. Torelli, 2017-10-17 This integrative volume identifies and defines cross cultural issues in consumer psychology and consumer science as the world becomes an increasingly global marketplace An international panel of experts analyzes current trends in consumer behavior across diverse countries worldwide and across cultural groups within countries depicting commonly used cross cultural frameworks and research methods Beginning with conceptualizing and quantifying culture at the national level the volume then moves to individual levels of analysis of consumer decision making examining consumer data as they affect business decisions in marketing products internationally The resulting work synthesizes the consumer science international business and consumer psychology literatures for a deeper understanding of all three disciplines and pathways to future research as cultures interact and tastes evolve Among the topics covered Culture as a driver of individual and national consumer behavior Consumer culture based attitudes toward buying foreign versus domestic products Country of origin effects consumer perceptions of international products The roles of cultural influences in product branding Cultural aspects of consumer brand relationships Consumer behavior in the emerging marketplace of subsistence countries This attention to both national detail and individual nuance makes Cross Cultural Issues in Consumer Science and Consumer Psychology an instructive and highly useful reference for scholars and students in consumer psychology cross cultural psychology marketing international business as well as professionals in these areas

Taiwan and the Rise of China Baogang Guo, Chung-Chian Teng, 2012-01-01 Taiwan and the Rise of China examines one of the fast evolving yet very volatile fragile and asymmetric bilateral relations in East Asia The insightful analyses provided by the experts of China studies should be of great interest to scholars students and policy makers

Managing Nongovernmental Organizations Frederik Claeyé, 2014-03-26 The idea that international development aid needs to be better managed and coordinated gained currency in the early 1990s The increasing emphasis on management has resulted in the present vogue of managing for development results as one of the central tenets in the discourse on international aid But how appropriate are these ideas tools and techniques for non governmental development organizations NGOs and how much does geographic context matter Examining the current debate on aid effectiveness and the role of NGOs in contributing to it this book highlights the critical importance of understanding how the global and the local interact to increase aid efficacy and develop more culturally astute ways of managing NGOs With a focus on NGOs active in sub Saharan Africa as case studies author Frederik Claey demonstrates that NGOs are not mere passive recipients of management knowledge and practices emanating from the global governance structure of international aid but actively engage with these ideas and practices to translate and rework them through a local cultural lens This process results in the emergence of unique hybrid management systems that combine the pressure to become more business like with the mission to satisfy the demands of the communities they serve

Extremist Mindsets and Strategies S. Clara Kim, 2021-06-11 Presenting an analysis of modern day extremism this book explores how any group of people or participants in a movement political ideological racial ethnonational religious or issue driven can adopt extremist mindsets if they believe their existence or interests are threatened Looking beyond fringe resistance groups already labeled as terrorists or subversives the author examines conventional organizations political parties religious groups corporations interest groups nation states police and the military that deploy extremist strategies to further their agendas Dynamics of mutual causation process between dominant and resistant extremist groups are explored including how resistant extremisms surface in response to oppressive and abusive measures advanced by the dominant groups to further their interests and maintain supremacy through systemic injustices as happens in slavery caste systems patriarchy colonialism autocracy exploitive capitalism and discrimination against minorities

can be conceived of as conceptions of what is desirable They influence their selection from available modes means and ends of action Because of the societal importance of values they deserve scholarly attention This volume inquires into the values present day Europeans cherish by empirically analyzing the data of 2008 2010 wave of the European Values Study and explaining the consensus and contrasts in value orientations found The contributors to this volume try to capture the diversities and similarities in value orientations between contemporary European countries in a range of life spheres by unravelling context and composition effects They are in search of evidence that either country level factors such as institutional arrangements or the composition of the populations of countries in terms of gender age socio economic status religion etcetera have the greatest impact By doing so they paint the moral landscapes of Europe today Values, Religion, and Culture in Adolescent Development Gisela Trommsdorff, Xinyin Chen, 2012-08-27 Cultural values and religious beliefs play a substantial role in adolescent development Developmental scientists have shown increasing interest in how culture and religion are involved in the processes through which adolescents adapt to environments This volume constitutes a timely and unique addition to the literature on human development from a cultural contextual perspective Editors Gisela Trommsdorff and Xinyin Chen present systematic and in depth discussions of theoretical perspectives landmark studies and strategies for further research in the field The eminent contributors reflect diverse cultural perspectives transcending the Western emphasis of many previous works This volume will be of interest to scholars and professionals interested in basic developmental processes adolescent social psychology and the sociological and psychological dimensions of religion

Conceptualizing the World Helge Jordheim, Erling Sandmo, 2018-12-17 What is and what was the world Though often treated as interchangeable with the ongoing and inexorable progress of globalization concepts of world globe or earth instead suggest something limited and absolute This innovative and interdisciplinary volume concerns itself with this central paradox that the complex heterogeneous and purportedly transhistorical dynamics of globalization have given rise to the idea and reality of a finite and thus vulnerable world Through studies of illuminating historical moments that range from antiquity to the era of Google Earth each contribution helps to trace the emergence of the world in multitudinous representations practices and human experiences Conceptual Gaps in China-EU Relations Zhongqi Pan, 2012-10-15 The contributors attempt to look into how China and Europe differently interpret political concepts such as sovereignty soft power human rights democracy stability strategic partnership multilateralism multipolarization and global governance to examine what implications of their conceptual gaps may have on China EU relations Contemporary Domestic and Foreign Policies of Iran Pejman Abdolmohammadi, Giampiero Cama, 2020-05-06 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the domestic and foreign politics of Iran focusing on its complex nature from political social and cultural perspectives It has adopted a multidisciplinary approach combining comparative politics and intellectual and modern history with international relations It analyses the institutional structure of the Islamic Republic the main political and social actors and alliances as well as Iranian opposition forces both inside and outside the country The book tries to simplify the seemingly intractable complexity of the Islamic Republic by demystifying it and using political science methods to prove that it is a peculiar hybrid regime

Evolution, Religion, and Cognitive Science Fraser Watts, Léon P. Turner, 2014-03-20 The cognitive science of religion is an inherently heterogeneous subject incorporating theory and data from anthropology psychology sociology evolutionary biology and philosophy of mind amongst other subjects One increasingly influential area of research in this field is concerned specifically with exploring the relationship between the evolution of the human mind the evolution of culture in general and the origins and subsequent development of religion This research has exerted a strong influence on many areas of religious studies over the last twenty years but for some the so called evolutionary cognitive science of religion remains a deeply problematic enterprise This book's primary aim is to engage critically and constructively with this complex and diverse body of research from a wide range of perspectives To these ends the book brings together authors from a variety of relevant disciplines in the thorough exploration of many of the key debates in the field These include for example can certain aspects of religion be considered adaptive or are they evolutionary by products Is the evolutionary cognitive science of religion compatible with theism Is the evolutionary cognitive approach compatible with other more traditional approaches to the study of religion To what extent is religion shaped by cultural evolutionary processes Is the evolutionary account of the mind that underpins the evolutionary cognitive approach the best or only available account Written in accessible language with an introductory chapter by Ilkka Pyysiäinen a leading scholar in the field this book is a valuable resource for specialists
