OCTOBER 10 9:00-16:15 (ROOM 2.13)

OCTOBER 11 9:00-11:30 (ROOM 1.11)

KŘÍŽKOVSKÉHO 12, OLOMOUČ

The objective of this workshop is the modernization in South-east Asia and Western Pacific. It will be focusing on issues such as biodiversity, environmental initiatives and projects concerning the changes related with the sustenance and growth of global connections. These issues are increasingly pressing in the globalized world that is facing the climate change and the very collapse of eco-systems.

Hans-Dieter Evers

Modernization In South East Asia:

Modernization in South-East Asia Hans-Dieter Evers,1973 Largely the outcome of a conference on Modernization in South East Asia held under the auspices of the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Singapore in 1971 Modernization Trends in Southeast Asia Terence Chong,2005 This book discusses and identifies the modernizing trends which have changed Southeast Asian countries in varying ways After an overview of current concepts of modernity the following chapters introduce issues of education citizenship and ethnicity religion the emergence of the middle class and mass consumption in Southeast Asia This book concludes by profiling the characteristics of Southeast Asian modernity Politics and Modernization in South and Southeast Asia Robert N. Kearney,1975 Anthology of essays on politics and modernization in South Asia and South East Asia includes case studies on India Pakistan and Bangladesh Malaysia Thailand and Indonesia and discusses the economy historical aspects demographic aspects sociological aspects interethnic relations etc Map references and statistical tables Southeast Asia Jonathan Rigg,2003 In this fascinating book Rigg charts the development of Southeast Asia examining the former non market economies of Vietnam Laos Cambodia and Burma alongside the more established market economies of the region Modernization in South-East Asia Hans-Dieter Evers,1973 Modernization and Social Change: Studies in Modernization, Religion, Social Change and Development in South-East Asia Hussein Alatas (Syed),1972 Naval Modernisation in South-East Asia Geoffrey Till,Jane Chan,2013-08-15 This edited volume analyses the naval arms race in South East Asia and reviews the content purposes and consequences of the naval policies and development of the main countries of the region The rise of naval capability in the countries of the Asia Pacific Region is increasingly recognised as a major indicator of the rise of Asia and its increasing importance in the world s political economic and strategic future Most coverage focusses solely on the navies of the big four the US China India and Japan however the region s other navies though much smaller are significant too Given the current focus on the South China Sea and the Obama administration s pivot to Asia naval development in South East Asia is of particular relevance This book first identifies the issues involved in defence acquisition in this area It then goes on to establish some templates of naval modernisation as a means of assessing the policies of individual countries in the region by looking at the naval policies of the big four Finally the general issue of naval modernisation in South East Asia is illustrated through a more detailed examination of some of the major issues common to all countries of the area These include the defence industrial perspective specific examinations of submarine and surface ship acquisition processes and a review of the balance to be struck between naval and coastguard forces in the area This book will be of much interest to students of naval power maritime security South East Asian politics strategic studies and IR in general Religion and Modernization in Southeast Asia Fred R. Von der Mehden,1986

Modernization in South-East Asia H. D. Evers,1975 Naval Modernisation in Southeast Asia Geoffrey Till,Ristian Atriandi Supriyanto,2017-09-18 This edited volume reviews the nature and consequences of naval modernisation in Southeast Asia against the backdrop of growing tensions over the South China Sea and increasing competition between the United States and China in the region The varying problems and challenges facing the small and medium navies of the area as they seek to grow their maritime power in response to their perceptions of strategic need are compared and contrasted The prospects of significant destabilisation of an already volatile area even of a potential naval arms race are carefully analysed There can be little doubt that naval modernisation in Southeast Asia is a key indicator of the likely future of the Asia Pacific and also illustrates the problems faced by small and medium powers in a world dominated by the great Accordingly this book will be of much interest to students and teachers focusing on security in the Asia Pacific region as well to those concerned with naval development in general Southeast Asia Jonathan Rigg (geograaf),2003

Modernization in South-East Asia. Ed. by H.-D. Evers ,1975 Naval Modernisation in Southeast Asia, Part Two Geoffrey Till,Collin Koh Swee Lean,2017-09-18 This edited volume starts with an account of the submarine in naval warfare and moves on to review the nature and consequences of naval modernisation in Southeast Asia by considering their acquisition by the small and medium navies of the region It explores the reasons for these navies taking on this very substantial and demanding challenge the problems they are facing and the consequences of the deployment of submarines for regional stability Given the backdrop of growing tensions over the South China Sea and increasing competition between the United States and China in the region will the arrival of submarines in the area help or hinder the cause of peace This volume will be of substantial interest not just to those interested in submarines and naval development but also to students and teachers concerned about the very volatile developing situation in and around the South China Sea Seminar on Modernization in Southeast Asia ,1971 Military Modernisation in Southeast Asia after the Cold War Shang-Su Wu,2024-04-01 Southeast Asian countries represent a wide range of approaches to military modernisation due to their great diversity in politics economies geography and other factors Bounded by the Pacific and Indian Oceans and located between China and India is the setting for the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation in Southeast Asian countries Differing from previous research focused on military acquisition this book additionally covers retention of assets and carefully examines the ageing issues that affect readiness and capabilities In doing so it provides a comprehensive view of military modernisation This book also compares each country's situation in the region in terms of military strength and security challenges to elaborate on the geostrategic impacts of military modernisation The ten cases of military modernisation in the post Cold War context provide rich content for readers to explore the evolution of military modernisation in developing countries after 1991 This book sheds light on security studies of Southeast Asia and is a useful resource for academic researchers policy makers and defence practitioners Globalization and Defence in the Asia-Pacific Geoffrey Till,Emrys Chew,Joshua Ho,2009 This edited volume examines the impact of globalisation on the economies security policies and military industrial complexes of the Asia Pacific region The work is structured into three main parts The first explores globalization and its general effects on the policy making of the nation state the second section looks at how globalisation affects a country's threat perception and defence posture within the specific context of the Asia Pacific region while the third explores how it impacts on a state's allocation of resources to defence and how economic globalization affects the defence industry with specific reference to the procurement policies and practices of different states across the Asia Pacific

The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order

The Blossoming of Power: Insights into Southeast Asia's Transformation Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-18 In a world where globalization and interdependence reign supreme understanding Southeast Asia has become more critical than ever This comprehensive volume offers a panoramic view of this dynamic region delving into its history culture economics politics and environmental challenges With its rich tapestry of cultures languages and traditions Southeast Asia presents a kaleidoscope of human experience From the ancient civilizations of Angkor and Pagan to the modern metropolises of Singapore and Bangkok the region's history is a testament to human ingenuity and resilience This book takes you on a journey through time exploring the forces that have shaped Southeast Asia's past and continue to influence its present The economic transformation of Southeast Asia in recent decades has been nothing short of remarkable Rapid industrialization coupled with a surge in foreign investment has propelled the region to the forefront of global economic growth However this growth has not come without challenges The book delves into the region's economic disparities infrastructure gaps and the need for sustainable development Southeast Asia occupies a strategic position at the crossroads of Asia and the Pacific making it a key player in regional and global geopolitics The book analyzes the region's complex relationships with major powers like the United States China and Japan as well as its efforts to forge unity and cooperation through organizations like ASEAN The environmental challenges facing Southeast Asia are daunting The region is particularly vulnerable to climate change with rising sea levels threatening coastal communities and extreme weather events becoming more frequent The book examines the region's efforts to address these challenges including promoting renewable energy implementing climate adaptation measures and protecting biodiversity Southeast Asia stands at a crossroads poised to shape its own destiny in the 21st century This book provides a comprehensive overview of the region's past present and future offering insights into the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead It is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand this dynamic and ever evolving region If you like this book write a review

Southeast Asia in a New Era Rodolfo C Severino, Elspeth Thomson, Mark Hong, 2010 This book is about Southeast Asia in a new era This new era began with a new century and a new millennium posing great challenges to the region and to each country in it It has a chapter on each of the ten countries in the region covering both the politics and the economic aspects It has one on the region as a whole and one on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations It has a thoughtful afterword that is a summary of its contents but is more than the sum of the individual chapters Many books and chapters of books have been written on Southeast Asia usually by external observers Aside from being up to date this book is different from most of them in several ways Most of the chapters are written by Southeast Asians indeed most of the country chapters are written by natives of those countries This means that the perspectives are based on local insights which provide nuance and sensitivity The book is addressed primarily to the young people of Southeast Asia so that they can get to know their neighbours better Each chapter has a guide to further reading and a series of questions to provoke further research and deeper inquiry publisher Modes of Modernization in Southeast Asia Willard Anderson Hanna, 1969
