Modesto On My Mind:

Breathing You Antonio Augusto, 2015-11-25 Breathing you is a book of short stories and poems of modern love. It describes in a deep and yet simple way encounters, mismatches and challenges couples face nowadays. It is filled with sensitivity, wisdom and humor as well. It will make you laugh, cry and think. The stories in Breathing you will touch everybody because they reflect what happens to everyone who loves, lost love or is in its pursuit. Violations of Free Speech and Rights of Labor United States. Committee on Education and Labor, 1936. The Annihilation of Allison Station D.L. Mac McDonald, 2018-02-09 This work is dedicated to all United States veterans past, present and future. From the mind of retired Air Force veteran D L Mac McDonald comes a tale of intrigue, deceit, death and destruction. Fourteen years after the Brinari Conflict and just ten years after the Sarasota Catastrophe that brought the former enemies together as lifelong friends, Don Wallace and TaKira are once again fighting against time to avoid a renewed conflict. A highly classified test facility built on asteroid GC954 has been all but completely destroyed. Without a single survivor, Don Wallace and his crew must find the answer to what happened by bringing life to the devastated station's core computer. However, the core isn't giving up its secrets without a fight and they need to know what led to the destruction of the Allison Houston's synchronized hyperinduction terminal to squelch the tensions of renewed conflict and to keep it from happening again. The Devious Route Helen Kanevsky, 2012-11-09 We often judge remarkable achievements by the rarity in which they are performed. It is no exaggeration to place that judgment on these provocative poems by Helen Kanevsky. These writings are something special and rare from a poet who only began to learn English as an older adult, bringing into her new lettered world the life experience of a native to Russian Jewish culture with its deep literary tradition intertwined with the complex history of a country that not so long ago stood at the crossroads of world events and the forefront of social revolution. Reading these poems by Helen Kanevsky makes me think of the power of words, the power to evoke, the power to lead the mind through new avenues of hitherto unknown realities. Helen is very conscious of this power and rejoices in their potential when she proclaims her adamant faith in the superpower of words. Helen has emerged as a new person in a new world. And it occurs to me that the words have formed the woman as much as the woman has formed the words. There is in this a gift to the reader. As a foreigner brought on to the shores of English expression, she brings a unique framework. As she directs her verbal lens, we see the world in a different way.
