1. Identify the social supports that will help you most in effectively managing your time.

- My first social support, would have to be my girlfriend. Everyday she is checking in with me on school work and if I have been doing my Assignments on time. She went out of her way to buy me notebooks, high lighters, and a planner. She even offered to write my schedule down, (she has neater hand writing then I do.
- My Mother is another great social support. She calls me daily and during our calls she asks me how i am doing so far in school and if I am struggling at all.
- Some of my friends ask about school and continuously tell me that " I can do this", which helps and sometimes they ask about assignments that I am doing and asking if how I like to do my assignments.
- My daughter, who is only seven years old asks me how school is going and reminds me that i have to make sure I get my homework done.

2. Identify the motivational factors that will help you persevere through the challenges of time management.

- I am very intrigued with how the mind works, So the BA in Psychology is something i genuinely have interest it, it motivates me to learn more, so I can do my job better.
- I want to be the first person in my family to have a degree, sort of like having bragging rights in my family.
- Dropping out of high school, it puts a negative feeling in mind. I would like to get rid of that feeling and feel ecstatic knowing I was successful.
- I would like to set a good example for my child, I want to show her that know matter
