Neither Angels nor Demons Kathleen Ferraro, 2015-12-01 She is a victim of intimate partner violence a woman who has been harmed She is a criminal offender a woman who has harmed others Superficially it seems she is two separate women Victim and offender are binary categories used within law social science and public discourse to describe social experiences with a moral dimension Such terms draw upon cultural narratives of good and bad people and have influenced scholarship public policy and activism The duality of good and bad women separated into mutually exclusive extremes of angels and demons has helped segregate thinking about and responses to each group In this groundbreaking study Kathleen J Ferraro exposes the limits of such thinking by exploring the link between victimization and offending from the perspective of the women charged with the crimes Interviewing forty five women charged with criminal offenses more than half of whom killed their abusers the others participated in a range of violent crimes related to domestic violence Ferraro uses their stories to illuminate complex interactions with violent partners their children and the legal system She shows that these women are neither stereotypical angels nor demons but rather human beings whose complicated lives belie the abstract categorizations of researchers legal advocates and the criminal justice system Ferraro begins with a general discussion of blurred boundaries and the complexity of experience and moves from there to discuss women s interactions with the criminal processing system In the course of her study she reexamines and finds wanting many standard ways of evaluating women s violent behavior including mutual combat battered woman syndrome and cycle of violence She argues that a more complex nuanced understanding of intimate partner violence and how it contributes to women s offending will contribute to public policy less focused on control and accountability of individuals than on developing social conditions that promote everyone s safety and well being and foster a sense of hope

The Ministry of Jesus Christ, the Messiah Glenn Brunner, 2018-06-08 The Ministry of Jesus Christ the Messiah is an abridged compilation of the four gospels one continuous writing containing the words of Christ so the reader can read and study the entire ministry of Jesus Christ in one continuous fluid document Also included in appendices are biblical presentations of Creation and the Flood and other important Christian statements of belief such as the Apostolic and Nicene Creeds The following four Bible study topics are included 1 The Lords Prayer 2 Messiah by George Frideric Handel 3 Precepts of the Christian faith 4 Joy peace and contentment Modern day English translations of the four Gospels were used or referenced by the author When the Apostles spoke of the same event their words were blended into one account The author worked to ensure thought or meaning from Scripture containing a description of an event was not lost If not absolutely clear that the same event was being written about or if the event could not logically be taken out of context of the particular book then no blending of text was done Footnotes help explain key thoughts presented in Scripture because translation from the original Greek does not often lend itself to the modern English language nor common grammatical form hence the many different translations available today Regardless of whether a translation uses a very literal translation of Greek or a simpler paraphrase the original meaning or thought the Lord intended can be unclear without reference to other Scripture
