Memory and Movies John Seamon, 2024-10-29 How popular films from Memento to Slumdog Millionaire can help us understand how memory works In the movie Slumdog Millionaire the childhood memories of a young game show contestant trigger his correct answers In Memento the amnesiac hero uses tattoos as memory aids In Away from Her an older woman suffering from dementia no longer remembers who her husband is These are compelling films that tell affecting stories about the human condition But what can these movies teach us about memory In this book John Seamon shows how examining the treatment of memory in popular movies can shed new light on how human memory works After explaining that memory is actually a diverse collection of independent systems Seamon uses examples from movies to offer an accessible nontechnical description of what science knows about memory function and dysfunction In a series of lively encounters with numerous popular films he draws on Life of Pi and Avatar for example to explain working memory used for short term retention He describes the process of long term memory with examples from such films as Cast Away and Groundhog Day The Return of Martin Guerre among other movies informs his account of how we recognize people the effect of emotion on autobiographical memory is illustrated by The Kite Runner Titanic and other films movies including Born on the Fourth of July and Rachel Getting Married illustrate the complex pain of traumatic memories Seamon shows us that movies rarely get amnesia right often using strategically timed blows to the protagonist's head as a way to turn memory off and then on again as in Desperately Seeking Susan Finally he uses movies including On Golden Pond and Amour to describe the memory loss that often accompanies aging while highlighting effective ways to maintain memory function

To Liberate and Redeem Edward LeRoy Long, 2009-12-01 In To Liberate and Redeem scholar Edward LeRoy Long Jr surveys the full biblical narrative setting the context by beginning with the oppression of Israel's enslavement and the Exodus liberation then looking back to the Creation and forward to Christ Paul and the early church This original approach demonstrates how the unfolding drama of the Bible is marked by those who need liberation because they are trapped in oppressive structures and those who once freed must faithfully construct communities of redemption so as not to become oppressors themselves From this basis Long explores how present day moral decisions can be informed by studying the ways in which our biblical forebears wrestled with concerns similar to our own while standing in faithful responsiveness to God

The Spirit Says Ronald Herms,John R. Levison,Archie T. Wright,2021-10-25 The Spirit Says offers a stunning collection of articles by an influential assemblage of scholars all of whom lend considerable insight to the relationship between inspiration and interpretation They address this otherwise intractable question with deft and occasionally daring readings of a variety of texts from the ancient world including but not limited to the scriptures of early Judaism and Christianity The thrust of this book can be summed up not so much in one question as in four o What is the role of revelation in the interpretation of Scripture o What might it look like for an author to be inspired o What motivates a claim to the inspired interpretation of Scripture o Who is inspired to interpret Scripture More often than not these questions are submerged in this volume under the tame rubrics of exegesis and hermeneutics but they rise in swells and surges too to the surface not just occasionally but often Combining an assortment of prominent voices this book does not merely offer signposts along the way

It charts a pioneering path toward a model of interpretation that is at once intellectually robust and unmistakably inspired

Genocide and the Politics of Memory Herbert Hirsch, 2000-11-09 More than sixty million people have been victims of genocide in the twentieth century alone including recent casualties in Bosnia and Rwanda Herbert Hirsch studies repetitions of large scale human violence in order to ascertain why people in every historical epoch seem so willing to kill each other He argues that the primal passions unleashed in the cause of genocide are tied to the manipulation of memory for political purposes According to Hirsch leaders often invoke or create memories of real or fictitious past injustices to motivate their followers to kill for political gain or other reasons Generations pass on their particular versions of events which then become history If we understand how cultural memory is created Hirsch says we may then begin to understand how and why episodes of mass murder occur and will be able to act to prevent them In order to revise the politics of memory Hirsch proposes essential reforms in both the modern political state and in systems of education Citizenship Regimes, Law,
