T&T Clark Handbook of Ecclesiology Kimlyn J. Bender, D. Stephen Long, 2020-10-15 Divided into 3 parts this handbook provides a wide ranging survey and analysis of the Christian Church The first section addresses the scriptural foundations of ecclesiology the second section outlines the historical and confessional aspects of the topic and the final part discusses a variety of contemporary and topical themes in ecclesiology Compiled and written by leading scholars in the field the T T Clark Handbook of Ecclesiology covers a range of key topics in the context of their development and importance in each stream of historic Christianity and the confessional traditions The contributors cover traditional matters such as creedal notes but also tackle questions of ordination orders of ministry and sacraments This handbook is extensive enough to provide a true overview of the field but the essays are also concise enough to be read as reference selections

Documents of the Christian Church Henry Bettenson, Chris Maunder, 2011-09-29 This selection of writings from the most important moments in the history of Christianity has become established as a classic reference work This new edition brings the anthology up to date with a new section looking at issues facing the twenty first century churches

Some Issues in Human Sexuality A Working Party of the House of Bishops, 2003 This widely anticipated report will be welcomed by all who wish to come to a greater understanding of the issues surrounding homosexuality bisexuality and transsexualism and the Church It provides an in depth account of the surrounding issues and provides detailed analyses of key Scriptural passages

The Kenotic Trajectory of the Church in Donald MacKinnon's Theology Timothy G. Connor, 2011-09-29 The book explores those aspects of Donald MacKinnon's theological writings which challenge the claim of the liberal Catholic tradition in the Church of England to have forged an ecclesiological consensus namely that the Church is the extension of the incarnation MacKinnon destabilized this claim by exposing the wide gulf between theory and practice in that church especially in his own Anglo Catholic tradition within it For him the collapse of Christendom is the occasion for a dialectical reconstruction of the relation of the Church to Jesus Christ and to the world on the basis of the gospel His basic claim is that authentic ecclesial existence must correspond with what was revealed and effected by Jesus along his way from Galilee to Jerusalem to Galilee Reflection on the Church thus takes the form of a lived response shaped by a Christocentric grammar of faith the submission of the church to Jesus contemporaneous interrogation a sustained attentiveness to him and the willing embrace of his hour

Democracy in the Christian Church Luca Badini Confalonieri, 2012-05-10 Are church structures divinely willed and consequently both permanent and irreversible Can Christians modify the polity of their church like they do with that of civil society What would be the role of the office of oversight in a Christian church democratically organized What would its relationship with specialized authorities within the community be Building on a remarkable number of specialist studies in exegesis church history political philosophy canon law and ecclesiology this book convincingly fulfils three goals First it encourages Christians to determine the political outlook of their faith community Secondly it provides some fundamental criteria for judging the ethical value of church structures on the basis of Bernard Lonergan's cognitional theory and with the help of recent insights from contemporary political philosophy Thirdly it outlines a largely novel and groundbreaking understanding of a democratic church In the process it engages with some of the most difficult ecclesiological issues faced by most Christian churches Mission-Shaped

Church Archbishop's Council on Mission and Public Affairs,2010-09 The world has changed but will the church keep up This seminal report from the Church of England evaluates the changing religious landscape and introduces exciting new forms of church that speak directly to their diverse mission contexts The Archbishop of Canterbury's Council on Mission and Public Affairs collaborated to research and produce the Mission Shaped Church report in 2004 and Seabury Books is the new North American Publisher Mission-shaped Church Mission and Public Affairs Council (Church of England),2004 An overview of recent developments in church planting Detailed practical well researched book describes the varied and exciting fresh expressions of church being created Includes questions and challenges to help local churches engage with the issues

Christian Law Norman Doe,2013-09-12 Christian Law Contemporary Principles offers a detailed comparison of the laws of churches across ten distinct Christian traditions worldwide Catholic Orthodox Anglican Lutheran Methodist Reformed Presbyterian United Congregational and Baptist From this comparison Professor Doe proposes that all denominations of the faith share common principles in spite of their doctrinal divisions and that these principles reveal a concept of Christian law and contribute to a theological understanding of global Christian identity Adopting a unique interdisciplinary approach the book provides comprehensive coverage on the sources and purposes of church law the faithful lay and ordained the institutions of church governance discipline and dispute resolution doctrine and worship the rites of passage ecumenism property and finance as well as church State and society This is an invaluable resource for lawyers and theologians who are engaged in ecumenical and interfaith dialogue showing how dogmas may divide but laws link Christians across traditions

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray,2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other's gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

Priest of the Church or Priest of a Church? Noel Cox, 2021-03-25 The development of new forms of ministry lay and ordained has included worker priests now found in the Anglican Communion in a related form variously called Self Supporting Ministry SSM or Non Stipendiary Ministry NSM This book focuses on one of the most recent developments the creation of Ordained Local Ministry After chapters that consider preliminary questions of the nature of ministry such as authority in the church and Holy Orders Noel Cox argues that the crucial distinction between these and other forms of ministry is that the Ordained Local Minister OLM is overtly ordained specifically for a given locality variously defined they are a deacon or priest for a specific church parish benefice or deanery rather than of the universal church Their introduction inevitably raises difficult ecclesiological questions which Cox examines

A Man Called Mark Tom Linthicum, 2018-07-17 Well known and well loved bishop of the Episcopal Church and Anglican Communion This official biography tells the compelling story of the Rt Rev Mark Dyer Irish Catholic boy from New Hampshire U S Navy vet Roman Catholic then Episcopal priest bishop and seminary professor and one of the most influential beloved leaders of the American Episcopal Church and the worldwide Anglican Communion Following a dispute with ecclesiastical authorities Dyer left the Roman Church for the Anglican Church of Canada Later received as priest in the Episcopal Church his gifts as teacher preacher and pastor were recognized with election as Bishop of Bethlehem Pennsylvania There he established a new model of leadership delegating administrative duties to concentrate on spiritual direction pastoral care and creating mission projects at every church in his diocese Also renowned as a storyteller many of his favorite stories appear here told in his own voice Called by leadership of the Anglican Communion to a variety of roles for more than 20 years Bishop Dyer was on the front lines of the most contentious issues facing the church throughout the world including ordination of women and gay people He also was co chair of the ecumenical dialogue between the Anglican and Eastern Orthodox Churches which produced a landmark agreement after 17 years of meetings

Public Life and the Place of the Church Michael Brierley, 2017-11-28 The work of Richard Harries Bishop of Oxford from 1987 to 2006 has been highly distinctive for the consistency of its engagement with contemporary society It represents a model of the Church which is outward looking a Church which is as ready to learn from others as it is to offer its own wisdom and resources This book reflects on Richard Harries' ministry in the borderlands of society and Church and engages deeply with the nature of modern society and the place of the Church within it Taking Richard Harries' contributions as their inspiration key figures each of them major commentators on areas of pressing contemporary concern probe the important questions which people are asking about a range of social issues Arms and violence the role of the media in public life spirituality multifaith Britain sex capitalism the second chamber and medical ethics are all discussed building up a serious debate on the kind of society in which we live and making suggestive comments about the part which the Church might play
