Powers Of Thirteen:

Powers of Thirteen, Poems John Hollander, 1983 Gods and Mortals Nina Kossman, 2001-03-22 For centuries poets have looked into the mirror of classical myth to show us the many ways our emotional lives are still reflected in the ancient stories of heroism hubris transformation and loss that myths so eloquently tell Now in Gods and Mortals Modern Poems on Classical Myths we have the first anthology to gather the great 20th century myth inspired poems from around the world Perhaps it is because the myths echo the structure of our unconscious that every new generation of poets finds them a source of inspiration and self recognition says Nina Kossman in her introduction to this marvelous collection Indeed from Valery Yeats Lawrence Rilke Akhmatova and Auden writing in the first half of the century to such contemporary poets as Lucille Clifton Derek Walcott Rita Dove Wislawa Szymborska and Mark Strand the material of Greek myth has elicited a poetry of remarkably high achievement And by organizing the poems first into broad categories such as Heroes Lovers Trespassers and secondly around particular mythological figures such as Persephone Orpheus or Narcissus readers are treated to a fascinating spectrum of poems on the same subject For example the section on Odysseus includes poems by Cavafy W S Merwin Gregory Corso Gabriel Zaid Louise Gluck Wallace Stevens and many others Thus we are allowed to see the familiar Greek hero refracted through the eyes and sharply varying stylistic approaches of a wide range of poets from around the world Here then is a collection of extraordinary poems that testifies to and amply rewards our ongoing fascination with classical myth The Books of Contemplation Mark Verman, 2012-02-01 The earliest medieval Jewish mystical writings or kabbalah date from the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries This is the first book to focus on the most prodigious group active at that time the Circle of Contemplation The Circle of Contemplation generated a mystical theology that differs radically from mainstream kabbalistic theosophy Two of this group's penetrating speculations on God and the origins of the universe are The Book of Contemplation and The Fountain of Wisdom A meticulous and systematic study of these writings forms the core of this book Verman discovered that the Circle of Contemplation produced a series of distinct treatises each entitled The Book of Contemplation and attributed to the same fictitious author These treatises embodying one of the most intriguing puzzles of medieval literature are included here The author concludes that these writings were a product of thirteenth century Spain not France as claimed by Gershom Scholem His conclusion engendered a critical evaluation of the premises of Scholem's historiography of early medieval Jewish mysticism The "Summa Theologica" Saint Thomas (Aquinas), 1922 Special Report - Highway Research Board National Research Council (U.S.). Highway Research Board, 1966 War in the Modern Great Power System Jack S. Levy, 2014-07-15 The apparently accelerating arms race between the United States and the Soviet Union and the precarious political conditions existing in many parts of the world have given rise to new anxiety about the possibility of military confrontation between the superpowers Despite the fateful nature of the risk we have little knowledge as Jack S Levy has pointed out of the conditions processes and events which might combine to generate such a calamity No empirically confirmed theory of the causes of war exists and the hypotheses often contradictory that have been proposed remain untested As a step toward the formulation of a theory of the causes of war that can be tested against historical experience Levy has developed a unique data base that will serve as an invaluable resource for students of international conflict in coming years War in the Modern Great Power System provides a much needed perspective on the major wars of the past In this thorough and systematic study Levy carefully defines the Great Power concept and identifies the Great Powers and their international wars since the late fifteenth century The resulting compilation of war data is unique because of its five century span and its focus on a well defined set of Great Powers Turning to a quantitative analysis of the characteristics patterns and trends in war Levy demonstrates that although wars between the Great Powers have become increasingly serious in every respect but duration over the last five hundred years their frequency has diminished He rejects the popular view that the twentieth century has been the most warlike on record and he demonstrates that it instead constitutes a return to the historical norm after the exceptionally peaceful nineteenth century Applying his data to the question whether war is contagious he finds that the likelihood of war is indeed highest when another war is under way but that this contagious effect disappears after the first war is over Contrary to the popular war weariness theory he finds no evidence that war generates an aversion to subsequent war This study extending the scientific analysis of war back over five centuries of international history constitutes a major contribution to our knowledge of international conflict
