far stranger Captured by the secretive descendants of the ancient Lemurian civilization Billy is thrust into a hidden world that claims responsibility for every major event in human history Imprisoned and re educated Billy awakens a dormant power within himself an extrasensory gift the Lemurians have guarded for millennia But with knowledge comes rebellion As Billy begins to question their sinister ideals he forms a crew of unlikely allies to sabotage the very organisation that gave him his power Yet one question looms can a man rewrite a 12 000 year old prophecy that foretells doom for mankind The answer lies deep in the Brazilian Amazon where renegade anthropologist Dr David Steel and the embattled FUNAI Foundation race to protect indigenous tribe and perhaps unlock humanity s only chance of survival Lunabeans.com's Videogame Guides of 2008 Allison Schubert, Cats and Cathedrals Patrick Boniface,2006-03 Animal Myths and Metaphors in South America Gary Urton,1985 What similarities and differences do humans see between themselves and animals Why do people commonly make metaphorical comparisons between human beings or social groups and animals and to what degree are people s attitudes and beliefs about animals parallel to or contingent upon their attitudes and beliefs about human beings and human society This collection of articles considers these issues The issues are basic in any study of totemism or human and animal relationships and they have been discussed in anthropological literature since the time of Lewis Henry Morgan s work on Iroquois social organization The contributors to this anthology have not limited themselves to the notion that clans and moieties are the only sources and objects of metaphorical comparisons between humans and animals They suggest a shift in perspective that has metaphorical comparisons generated by conceived similarities and differences between animals and particular types of human beings Some examples of this include macaw fledglings as adolescents pumas as fully initiated men and foxes as young married men With this shift of emphasis a significantly different analytic focus in the study of human animal relations is produced Daughter of the Pyramids - a Romance Esther Pasztory,2003-12-10 Daughter of the Pyramids Naomi is writing a novel set in ancient Mexico and accidentally turns into her heroine Marigold Marigold is on a journey from her home in the city of the pyramids Teotihuacan to the Maya city of Tikal While Naomi experiences Marigolds adventures including a passion for a mysterious Maya lord she is also desperate to get back to her own world in Morristown New Jersey She discovers the secret of time travel but no longer knows whether she wants to live in the present or the past And which man will she choose the young archaeologist or the ruler of Tikal Colonial Tales are eight short stories set in Colonial Mexico and deal with love friendship and betrayal in the New World The Raw and the Cooked Claude Lévi-Strauss,1983-03-15 In anthropological terms the concept of the raw verses the cooked has long been associated with the dichotomy between the natural world and the world of human culture In a broad based empirical study of native mythologies Claude Lévi Strauss proposes a structural and thematic link between the opposition of the raw and the cooked in mythological thought and man s attempt to establish a balanced relationship between natural and cultural forces Lévi Strauss postulates that the raw cooked axis is characteristic of all human culture with elements falling along the raw side of the axis being those of natural origin and those on the cooked side being of cultural origin i.e products of human creation Symbolically cooking marks the transition from nature to culture by means of which the human state can be defined in accordance with all its attributes In mythological thought the cooking of food is in effect a form of mediation between nature and society between life and death and between heaven and earth The cook in turn can be viewed as a cultural agent whose function is to mediate the conjunction of the raw product and the human consumer the operation of which has the effect of making sure the natural is at once cooked and socialized
