Revelations of Divine Love (Royal Collector's Edition) (Case Laminate Hardcover with Jacket) Julian Of Norwich, 2024-10-22 Revelations of Divine Love by Julian of Norwich is a medieval Christian mystical text notable for being the earliest surviving book written in English by a woman It details sixteen mystical visions or shewings that Julian experienced in 1373 while on her deathbed After recovering Julian documented these visions in a short manuscript known as the Short Text Over the following decades she expanded upon her reflections producing the more extensive Long Text both of which were written in Middle English The work gained renewed interest centuries after Julian s death Her writings were preserved through various manuscripts with the Long Text first published in 1670 by Benedictine monk Serenus de Cressy The 19th century revival of her work led to multiple reprints and in 1901 Grace Warrack s translation introduced Julian s insights to a wider 20th century audience Revelations of Divine Love continues to be studied for its profound spiritual reflections and historical significance in Christian mysticism This case laminate collector s edition includes a Victorian inspired dust jacket Bulletin ,1902 Women and Mystical Experience in the Middle Ages Frances Beer,1992 Original and thought provoking study of three medieval women mystics based on writings and biographical material A wholly feminine voice within Catholicism they express the inexpressible better than any amount of rational thinking about God THE TIMES The three women who are the subject of this fascinating study left a rich legacy of medieval spirituality Frances Beer explores their writings and draws on available historical evidence to bring the experience of all three women closer to a 20th century audience She sees Hildegard s perception of her Creator as informed by the heroic ideal while Mechthild s erotic experience seems to show the influence of the minnesingers Julian s experience of tender intimacy with her Lord demonstrates an egalitarian confidence in the ability of the individual soul to progress towards oneness with the divine Their individual natures are also further revealed through the author s examination of their resolution of a number of theological problems In contrast the works of two medieval men writing for women are also explored FRANCES BEER is Associate Professor of English at York University Toronto Balaam's Ass: Vernacular Theology Before the English Reformation Nicholas Watson,2022-06-21 For over seven hundred years bodies of writing in vernacular languages served an indispensable role in the religious and intellectual culture of medieval Christian England yet the character and extent of their importance have been insufficiently recognized A longstanding identification of medieval western European Christianity with the Latin language and a lack of awareness about the sheer variety and quantity of vernacular religious writing from the English Middle Ages have hampered our understanding of the period exercising a tenacious hold on much scholarship Bringing together work across a range of disciplines including literary study Christian theology social history and the history of institutions Balaam s Ass attempts the first comprehensive overview of religious writing in early England s three most important vernacular languages Old English Insular French and Middle English between the ninth and sixteenth centuries Nicholas Watson argues not only that these texts comprise the oldest continuous tradition of European vernacular writing but that they are essential to our understanding of how Christianity shaped and informed the lives of individuals communities and polities in the Middle Ages This first of three volumes lays out the long post Reformation history of the false claim that the medieval Catholic Church was hostile to the vernacular It analyzes the complicated idea of the vernacular a medieval innovation instantiated in a huge body of surviving vernacular religious texts Finally it focuses on the first long generation of these writings in Old English and early Middle English Miraculous Kevin Charles Belmonte,2012 Kevin Belmonte provides learned insight into the profoundly important history of miracles Miraculous is a richly researched text of wondrous things that have taken place from ancient times to the present Catalogue of Books Exclusive of Prose Fiction in the Central Lending Library Leeds (England). Public Libraries, Art Gallery and Museum,1907 Sarah Osborn's World Catherine A. Brekus,2013-01-08 In 1743 sitting quietly with pen in hand Sarah Osborn pondered how to tell the story of her life how to make sense of both her spiritual awakening and the sudden destitution of her family Remarkably the memoir she created that year survives today as do more than two thousand additional pages she composed over the following three decades Sarah Osborn's World is the first book to mine this remarkable woman's prolific personal and spiritual record Catherine Brekus recovers the largely forgotten story of Sarah Osborn's life as one of the most charismatic female religious leaders of her time while also connecting her captivating story to the rising evangelical movement in eighteenth century America A schoolteacher in Rhode Island a wife and a mother Sarah Osborn led a remarkable revival in the 1760s that brought hundreds of people including many slaves to her house each week Her extensive written record encompassing issues ranging from the desire to be born again to a suspicion of capitalism provides a unique vantage point from which to view the emergence of evangelicalism Brekus sets Sarah Osborn's experience in the context of her revivalist era and expands our understanding of the birth of the evangelical movement a movement that transformed Protestantism in the decades before the American Revolution Prisoner of Conscience Galen Johnson,2007-01-01 Prisoner of Conscience is an interdisciplinary study of Bunyan's understanding of conscience to what degree it demands fidelity and how this affects Bunyan's relationship both to the modern emphasis on individualism and to historic Christianity This book deals with Bunyan's theological fictional and autobiographical writings often in comparison with his contemporaries such as the Quakers John Milton and Richard Baxter The Heart in Pilgrimage Leland Ryken,2022-09-09 A Beautiful Collection of 50 Classic Devotionals Christians throughout the ages have written devotionals as a way to bend their souls toward God and teach about him communicating rich truths and encouraging readers to grow in grace and godliness In this collection of 50 devotionals and creeds by figures such as Augustine John Calvin and Nathaniel Hawthorne literary expert Leland Ryken introduces readers to insightful selections of their classic writings Each entry contains a devotional passage from a historical figure analysis by Ryken and a concluding Bible passage that sums up the devotional passage and its analysis Literary inclined readers and first time devotional readers alike will relish this one of a kind anthology carefully compiled to help them encounter God in fresh ways Written by Leland Ryken A literary expert with over 50 years of teaching experience Perfect for Daily Devotions With a ribbon marker to keep your place in the book each entry includes a historical devotional passage analysis by Ryken and a concluding Bible passage Features 50 Devotionals and Creeds from Church History Features writers such as John Calvin Jonathan Edwards George MacDonald Thomas Kempis Jane Austen and J I Packer Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1905 New Medievalisms Javier Martín-Párraga,Juan de Dios Torralbo-Caballero,2016-02-08 The current renewed interest in Medieval culture literature and society is evident in recent fictional works such as Game of Thrones or the cinematographic adaptations of Tolkien's pseudo medieval universe. From a more academic viewpoint there are a number of excellent journals and book series devoted to scholarly analysis of English Medieval language and literature. While traditional Medieval scholars use several valid vehicles for communication, those researchers who favour more innovative or eclectic approaches are not often given the same opportunities. New Medievalisms is unique in that it offers such scholars a platform to showcase their academic prestige and the quality and originality of their investigations. This multidisciplinary collection of essays includes six chapters and nineteen articles in which twenty-one renowned scholars analyse a wide range of issues related to Medieval England from the Beowulf saga to echoes of Medieval literature in contemporary fiction, translation or didactics. As a result, the book is both kaleidoscopic and daring, as well as rigorous and accurate.

The Waiting Room Elizabeth Reynolds Turnage, 2019-01-05. Whether you are the caregiver or the patient, the what-ifs of the waiting room can feel terrifying and the wait can feel agonizing. Cancer, tumor, stroke, traumatic injury or major surgery, a health crisis of any kind involves waiting. This waiting arouses many emotions: fear, uncertainty, sorrow, agony, and anger among them. In this devotional for caregivers and patients, Elizabeth Reynolds Turnage reminds us of the certain hope and surpassing peace of the gospel: God has worked miraculous deeds and redemptive wonders in the past, and Jesus will soon come again to end our wait and to bring full and final healing. These sixty meditations for peace and hope will encourage you as you wait. This brilliant book is a tender gift of the presence of God for those caught in the deep woods of medical uncertainty. Elizabeth Turnage offers a wisdom that has been hard-won, meets the test of the gospel, and is beautifully and brilliantly written.

Dan B. Allender, PhD, Professor of Counseling Psychology and Founding President, The Seattle School of Theology and Psychology. Elizabeth meets us in the waiting room as an empathetic friend, reminding us what is true in His Word and urging us to listen to the refreshing lyrics of the gospel.

Karen Hodge, Coordinator of Women's Ministries, Presbyterian Church in America, PCA. Gifted Origins to Graced Fulfillment Kerrie Hide, 2001-2002. Catholic Press Association Award Winner. The classical expression of soteriology (salvation theology) has tended to spiritualize salvation and place it on a supernatural plane where it loses contact with the existential lives of people. In the face of this heritage, questions have risen from contemporary experience that challenge the Christian tradition: Does life have meaning? Is love at the core of all reality? In Gifted Origins to Graced Fulfillment, Kerrie Hide searches for responses to these questions. Hide examines the soteriology presented in the Revelations of Divine Love, composed by Julian of Norwich. She analyzes the understanding of salvation expressed in the Visions or showings of Julian and expands previous theological inquiry into Julian's texts. After demonstrating how Julian's theology is a trinitarian theology of love, Hide addresses each aspect of Julian's soteriology within the framework of her trinitarian formula. The theological precis reveals that for Julian, salvation is a process of oneing in a mystical three-part journey from our origins with God to our ultimate return to God. Hide's analysis provides a hermeneutic for examining mystical literature theologically and demonstrates the important contribution mystical theology makes to the broader field of theology She contributes a systematic study of Julian s understanding of salvation not undertaken previously In Part One Hide examines Julian s Visionary experience and her expression of the experience that led others to reflect on record and write about her texts She also presents a hermeneutic for interpreting Julian s showings Part Two presents Julian s soteriology as a trinitarian soteriology of oneing and explores how our life is in three stages In Part Three Hide delves into our gifted origins She surveys Julian s creation theology and her anthropology Part Four focuses on Christology This section presents Christ s role in redemption through the cross through his work as servant and through his function as mother Part Five inquires into graced endings The chapters examine the present experience of graced fulfillment in the power of the Holy Spirit and the hope for fulfillment in the eschaton Finally in Part Six Hide draws together Julian s understanding of salvation She appraises the relevance of these teachings for today Chapters are Julian of Norwich A Hermeneutic for Interpreting the Showings Oneing Through the Trinity Oneing in Being Oneing Through the Crucifixion Oneing Through the Servant Oneing Through Christ Deep Wisdom and Mother Oneing Through the Holy Spirit One ing in the Eschaton and Julian s Spiritual Understanding English Literature Harvard University. Library,1971 Living the Truth in Love Janet Smith,2015-07-08 Living the Truth in Love grew out of the desire to provide answers to the questions posed for the Synod on Marriage called by Pope Francis How can the Christian community give pastoral attention to families with persons with same sex attraction While avoiding any unjust discrimination how can the Church give such persons pastoral care in light of the Gospel How can God s will be proposed to them in their situation People who want to be instruments of Christ s love to those who experience same sex attraction SSA seek guidance on how best to do so They need to listen to the stories of those who experience SSA and the stories of those who have accompanied them on their journeys They also need to ground their responses in a genuine Christian understanding of the human person and of human sexuality This volume includes essays that lay out the Christian view of the human person and of human sexuality essays that challenge the bifurcation of sexualities into heterosexual and homosexual Topics include an explanation of the meaning of the word disorder a discussion of the therapeutic power of friendship and an application of Saint John Paul II s personalism to the question of same sex attraction Psychologists and counselors explain various ways of affirming those who experience SSA and of leading them to experience the power of Christ s healing love Several of those who experience SSA tell their touching and inspiring stories John McGahern and the Art of Memory Dermot McCarthy,2010 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland s past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland s literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography political science and theology Julian of Norwich Janina Ramirez,2016-10-01 Over six hundred years ago a woman known as Julian of Norwich wrote what is now regarded as one of the greatest works of literature in English Based on a sequence of mystical visions she received in 1373 her book is called Revelations of Divine Love Julian lived through an age of political and religious turmoil as well as through the misery of the Black Death and her writing engages with timeless questions about life love and the meaning of suffering But who was Julian of Norwich And what can she teach us today Medievalist and TV historian Janina Ramirez invites you to join her in exploring Julian s remarkable life and times offering insights into how and why her writing has survived and what we can learn from this fourteenth century mystic whose work lay hidden in the shadows of her male contemporaries for far too long The Truth Within Gavin Flood,2013-10 Explores the metaphor of inwardness and the idea of truth within along with the methods developed in three religions to attain it such as prayer and meditation
