Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine ,1885 The Path of Perfection in Religious Life ... Translated from the French Leguay (l'Abbe, Vicar-General of Perpignan.),1862 Black Aesthetics and the Interior Life Christopher Freeburg, 2017-09-12 Christopher Freeburg s Black Aesthetics and the Interior Life offers a crucial new reading of a neglected aspect of African American literature and art across the long twentieth century Rejecting the idea that the most dehumanizing of black experiences such as lynching or other racial violence have completely robbed victims of their personhood Freeburg rethinks what it means to be a person in the works of black artists This book advances the idea that individual persons always retain the ability to withhold express or change their ideas and this concept has profound implications for long held assumptions about the relationship between black interior life and black collective political interests Examining an array of seminal black texts from Ida B Wells s antilynching pamphlets to works by Richard Wright Nina Simone and Toni Morrison Freeburg demonstrates that the personhood represented by these writers unsettles rather than automatically strengthens black subjects relationships to political movements such as racial uplift civil rights and black nationalism He shows how black artists illuminate the challenges of racial collectivity while stressing the vital stakes of individual personhood In his challenge to current African Americanist criticism Freeburg makes a striking contribution to our understanding of African American literature and culture The Life of Prayer A. B. Simpson, 2010-01-01 In the book Life of Prayer A B Simpson takes us on an intimate journey into the secret world of access to God through prayer A B Simpson had a vigilant prayer life that no doubt paved the way for his fame as a worship leader and a recognized evangelical of the day A B Simpson had the most effective prayer alliances of his day which led to the establishment of the Prayer Alliance and the Christian and Missionary Alliance church A B Simpson leads us into the Holy of Holies and into the secret places of the Most High It is the very life of the Christian and it touches the life of God himself Jonathan Goforth called him the man whose prayers have reached God Down through the centuries few men have had greater prayer results This testament is verified in the fact that he was able to accomplish so much through so little during such troubled times This book desires to show us
