Harris, Charles W. Mooney, 1992 Secured Credit in Europe Teemu Juutilainen, 2018-03-22 Winner of the 2016 2018 KG Idman Prize This monograph seeks the optimal way to promote compatibility between systems of proprietary security rights in Europe focusing on security rights over tangible movables and receivables Based on comparative research it proposes how best to tackle cross border problems impeding trade and finance notably uncertainty of enforceability and unexpected loss of security rights It offers an extensive analysis of the academic literature of more recent years that has appeared in English German the Scandinavian languages and Finnish The author organises the concrete means of promoting compatibility into a centralised substantive approach a centralised conflicts approach a local conflicts approach and a local substantive approach The centralised approaches develop EU law and the local approaches Member State laws The substantive approaches unify or harmonise substantive law while the conflicts approaches rely on private international law The author proposes determining the optimal way to promote compatibility by objective based division of labour between the four approaches The objectives developed for that purpose are derived from the economic functions of security rights the conditions for legal evolution and a transnational conception of justice This book is an important contribution to the future of secured transactions law in Europe and more widely It will be of interest to academics policymakers and legal practitioners involved in this field

Cases, Problems, and Materials on Security Interests in Personal Property Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 1987 Security Interests in Personal Property Steven L. Harris, Charles W. Mooney, 2006 The Fourth Edition continues the emphasis on real life problems and transactions that has distinguished these teaching materials for decades As in previous editions the Problems are tailored to focus the student's attention on the relevant statutory language and its application to common patterns of secured financing They emphasize counseling planning drafting and litigation skills In addition to more traditional Problems which ask the student to predict the outcome many of the Problems ask the student to give advice to clients to structure transactions and to draft certain provisions of documents As in the Third Edition many of the Problems are based upon Prototype transactions that feature actual transaction documents The first financing an automobile dealer's inventory and financing a consumer buyer's purchase of an automobile from the dealer affords the basis for a discussion of basic Article 9 concepts in a concrete setting The second Prototype features an accounts and inventory borrowing base secured credit facility and includes a revolving credit agreement and security agreement This Prototype forms the basis for detailed coverage of various types of financing secured by receivables and other intangible property
