Seder Tu Bishevat:

Tu Bishvat Seder Rabbi Iliinsky, Me'irah Iliinsky, 2017-06-26 A book delineating the order for a fruit meal to aid participants in celebrating the Jewish holiday of Tu BiShvat the Birthday of the Trees The eating of three types of fruits soft throughout those with a pit and those with a rind symbolize the four dimensions in which we experience our lives according to 16th C mystics The world of spirit is beyond our understanding and therefore has no fruit This seder or order of this fruit meal opens us up to appreciation and thoughtfulness and a more mindful way to conduct ourselves in life Tu BiShvat

Seder (Order) R' Israel Itshakov, 2022-12-06 Tu B Shvat is the New Year for the Trees As in all other points in the Jewish calendar Tu B Shvat offers a unique opportunity for insight into living and personal growth Throughout the centuries Kabbalists have used the tree as a metaphor to understand God's relationship to the spiritual and physical worlds Moshe Chaim Lutsatto in his 18th century classic The Way of God teaches that the higher spiritual realms are roots that ultimately manifest their influence through branches and leaves in the lower realms In the 16th century the Kabbalists of Tzfat compiled a Tu B Shvat Seder somewhat similar to the Seder for Passover It involves enjoying the fruits of the tree particularly those native to the Land of Israel and discusses philosophical and Kabbalistic concepts associated with the day Among other things the Seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to develop a good and generous eye for the world around us The Seder presented here is based primarily on the Kabbalistic work Hemdat Yamim later published separately under the title Pri Eitz Hadar Tu-BiShvat Seder (order) in Hebrew/English Interlinear Transliteration R' Israel Itshakov, 2019-01-01 Tu B Shvat is the New Year for the Trees As in all other points in the Jewish calendar Tu B Shvat offers a unique opportunity for insight into living and personal growth Throughout the centuries Kabbalists have used the tree as a metaphor to understand God's relationship to the spiritual and physical worlds Moshe Chaim Lutsatto in his 18th century classic The Way of God teaches that the higher spiritual realms are roots that ultimately manifest their influence through branches and leaves in the lower realms In the 16th century the Kabbalists of Tzfat compiled a Tu B Shvat Seder somewhat similar to the Seder for Passover It involves enjoying the fruits of the tree particularly those native to the Land of Israel and discusses philosophical and Kabbalistic concepts associated with the day Among other things the Seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to develop a good and generous eye for the world around us The Seder presented here is based primarily on the Kabbalistic work H emdat Yamim later published separately under the title Pri Eitz Hadar Tu Bishvat Seder Fred V. Tu-BiShvat Seder (order) R' Israel Itshakov, 2022-12-06 Tu B Shvat is the New Year for the Trees As in all other points in the Jewish calendar Tu B Shvat offers a unique opportunity for insight into living and personal growth Throughout the centuries Kabbalists have used the tree as a metaphor to understand God's relationship to the spiritual and physical worlds Moshe Chaim Lutsatto in his 18th century classic The Way of God teaches that the higher spiritual realms are roots that ultimately manifest their influence through branches and leaves in the lower realms In the 16th century the Kabbalists of Tzfat compiled a Tu B Shvat Seder somewhat similar to the Seder for Passover It involves enjoying the fruits of the tree particularly those native to the Land of Israel and discusses philosophical and Kabbalistic concepts associated with the day Among other things the Seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to develop a good and generous eye for the world around us The Seder presented here is based primarily on the Kabbalistic work Hemdat Yamim later published separately under the title Pri Eitz Hadar Man Is a Tree in the Field Steven Bernstein,2020-01-29 Our Tu Bishvat seder is designed to provide you and your family with an enriching and informative guide in commemorating this joyous occasion In addition to the traditional B rachot we have included the words of Messiah Yeshua as they relate to the holiday Tu Bishvat is the New Year for trees It marks the date in the calendar that fruit for tithing and bikkurim counts for the present year as opposed to the last year It is the New Year for counting when fruit is Orlah illegal to use because it is less than 4 years old from the planting of the tree Since Pardes the Orchard Gan Eden was planted with trees of all things good to eat Tu Bishvat is a celebration of the Orchard and Adam Kadmon the original ancient Man who was placed there by HaShem Adam Kadmon was the man closest in existence to Yeshua our Messiah and so was a foretelling of the Geulah and the return of Yeshua בתי שולום '00 בתי שולום Beth Sholom Congregation and Talmud Torah (Potomac, Md.),200? A Tu B'Shvat Seder Juliette Hirt,2020-01-14 This mystical Tu B Shvat seder is grounded in the ancient concept of kavanah right intention Traditional elements include four glasses of wine three types of fruit and a few short traditional prayers Beautifully designed with reflective short poems and prose The seder runs approximately 40 minutes A free downloadable version leader notes and shopping list are available at http://bit.ly/JH\_TuSeder Tu-Bishvat Seder (Order) R' Israel Itshakov,2022-12-06 Tu B Shvat is the New Year for the Trees As in all other points in the Jewish calendar Tu B Shvat offers a unique opportunity for insight into living and personal growth Throughout the centuries Kabbalists have used the tree as a metaphor to understand God's relationship to the spiritual and physical worlds Moshe Chaim Lutsatto in his 18th century classic The Way of God teaches that the higher spiritual realms are roots that ultimately manifest their influence through branches and leaves in the lower realms In the 16th century the Kabbalists of Tzfat compiled a Tu B Shvat Seder somewhat similar to the Seder for Passover It involves enjoying the fruits of the tree particularly those native to the Land of Israel and discusses philosophical and Kabbalistic concepts associated with the day Among other things the Seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to develop a good and generous eye for the world around us The Seder presented here is based primarily on the Kabbalistic work Hemdat Yamim later published separately under the title Pri Eitz Hadar Seder Tu Bishvat ,2008 Israel Celebrates Hizky Shoham,2017-04-03 Israel Celebrates is about the intersection where Israeli inventiveness and Jewish tradition meet the holidays It employs the anthropological history of four Jewish holidays as celebrated in Israel in order to track the naturalization of Jewish rituals myths and symbols in Israeli culture throughout the long twentieth century of Zionism and on to the present and to demonstrate how a new strand of Judaism developed in Israel from the grassroots But could this grassroots Israeli culture develop into a shared symbolic space for both Jews and Arabs By probing the political implications of the minutiae of life the book argues that this popular culture might come to define Jewish identity in Israel of the 21st century      Kriat Shema in English Transliteration R' Israel Itshakov,2022-12-28 And while your eyes are covered say Barukh Shem with intense concentration For if you do not concentrate at least on the meaning of what you are saying you have not fulfilled your obligation and you must go back and start again from the first verse even if you realize this only after you complete the entire Sh ma If however you realize this after saying Barukh Shem do not return immediately to say the first verse again Rather complete the entire first paragraph and only then return and begin again from the first verse with focused concentration Be careful to whisper Barukh Shem very quietly just loud enough for you to hear yourself On the word malkhuto bow your head slightly downward      Haggadah Shel Pesach R' Israel Itshakov,2022-12-11 Agada Pesah Hagada pesach The first night of Pesah outside of Israel the first two nights is known as Lel Haseder The word Seder refers to the orderly progression of fifteen steps that begins with Kadesh sanctification of the day over wine Urhats washing the hands without a blessing Karpas eating less than a kazayit of this vegetable etc and culminates with Nirtsah our prayer that after all the spiritual heights attained at the seder we request to find favor in Hashem s eyes The word Seder also hints to the fact that this is a different kind of progression      Seder Tu Bishvat ,1984      Bedtime Shema Prayer in Hebrew - English Linear Transliteration and Translation R' Israel Itshakov,2023-01-09 One should recite a special prayer before going to sleep This booklet provides all prayers one should say before going to sleep      Bloom, a Tu Bishvat Haggadah ,2014 A Tu Bishvat Haggadah Tu Bishvat the New Year for Trees is a beautiful time to herald new life after a long and dormant winter In the seventeenth century a new custom arose to celebrate Tu Bishvat with a seder a ceremonial meal inspired by Passover Being a relatively new custom there is no fixed or correct way to conduct a Tu Bishvat seder and many communities have developed their own Tu Bishvat Haggadot Though each one is different they are typically structured around four cups of wine and involve discussion about the process of redemption and repairing the world BLOOM Vine of David s Tu Bishvat Haggadah is inspired by the story of the early pioneers of the modern State of Israel This seder reflects upon the dreams of a Jewish national homeland in the promised land throughout the centuries and its culmination with Zionism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries BLOOM is simple and not deeply mystical It focuses on the modern return of the Jewish people to their land as a part of the broader plan of world redemption Contemplate our Master Yeshua s heart of thankfulness for the land and his lament as he perceived its destruction Share in the vision of the Messianic Jewish luminaries who longed to see that hope restored in the State of Israel the beginning of the sprouting of our redemption

TuBishvat Rabbi Me'irah Iliinsky,2021-12-13 A seder or order for celebrating The New Year of the Trees a springtime Jewish holy day with mystical implications Celebrants are guided through the Four Worlds tasting a fruit from each world and understanding its meaning      Siddur Sha'ar Zahav Sha'ar Zahav, 2009-01-01 Congregation Sha ar Zahav's first siddur appeared in 1982. It was revised in 1994 and again in 2000. The richness of this siddur like the Sha ar Zahav community is rooted in its integration of Jewish tradition with egalitarian feminist and LGBTQ positive ideas and language. With this edition we have sought to continue and expand the Sha ar Zahav tradition of creating liturgy that reflects who we are. The compilers of the 2000 edition wrote: A Jewish prayer book which had nothing in common with the traditional siddur would lack the wealth of history which connects our worship with Jewish practice around the world and over the centuries. On the other hand many of us are uncomfortable with some of the imagery and language found in the prayer books of the major Jewish denominations in the United States. With this prayer book we have attempted to capture the spirit of Jewish liturgy while avoiding the objectionable elements. When Congregation Sha ar Zahav was founded in 1977 only a handful of synagogues offered full acceptance to bisexual transgender lesbian gay and queer identified Jews. From the outset Sha ar Zahav has been a community that is open to all. Sha ar Zahav is affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism URJ and this siddur reflects many of the innovations of the Reform movement as well as the URJ's commitment to an evolving liturgical tradition. The members of Congregation Sha ar Zahav, the authors of most of the new material in this siddur, come from many varied backgrounds, movements, affiliations, traditions, and practices. Some identify with Ashkenazi Sephardi or Mizrahi traditions. Some were born into Jewish families while some chose Judaism. We are young and old and every age in between. We have sought to reflect both our shared traditions and our differences in our liturgy. In order to create a spiritual home for all who choose to enter our gates and in order to develop a siddur which will continue to resonate with the congregation and reflect our community's diversity we have tried to cast a wide liturgical net. We have drawn from the traditions we have been handed, we have sought out sources that have been hidden, and we have tapped the creative gifts of our own community. In this edition we have been mindful of and have sought to expand the principles which have distinguished this siddur in the past: using non-sexist language when referring to both people and God; restoring visibility to women throughout Jewish tradition; speaking directly to the experience of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer identified people; understanding the concept of Jewish chosenness as uniqueness; envisioning the Messianic time as the fulfillment of tikkun olam, the repair of the world; and seeing ourselves as participants in the holy work of repair. Siddur Sha ar Zahav includes alternative English versions of prayers and alternative Hebrew and Aramaic so that our values can be reflected in all of our languages of prayer. Because of the gravity of altering wording that may be hundreds of years old we spent considerable time developing guidelines for Hebrew prayers. In keeping with the Sha ar Zahav tradition we decided not to remove customary versions of prayers but to add new versions alongside them. We did not alter any passages taken from the Torah except to ensure gender inclusivity which is noted in the text. Nor did we alter prayers such as the Mourner's Kaddish which serve so powerfully to connect us to the Jewish people across time and space. Where we did create new Hebrew versions we followed a set of principles which are discussed in the appendices Siddur Sha'ar Zahav endeavors to respect the varied and at times contradictory sensibilities of our people and our congregation Our goal is for all of us progressive Jews within the Reform movement's umbrella regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation to see ourselves reflected in our liturgy so that none of us experience the invisibility and exclusion we have historically encountered Our prayer book attempts to embody the teaching that each of us is created b'tzelem Elohim in the image of God While we know that not every reading will speak to each of us we hope that in these pages all of us will find a point of departure for prayer and for dialogue with the Source of creation

Saying these eleven verses that begin and end with the letter nun is a special protection against evil eye and witchcraft I found an old manuscript on leather parchment which states in the name of Rabbi Yehudah HaChasid that reciting these verses causes the satan to flee from a person It is for this reason that the letter samekh does not appear even once in all these verses I also found in the book Kab HaYashar chapter 32 end a special prayer to say following the recitation I bring it here clean of all mistakes with some helpful additions Shomer Yisrael siman yod beit
