Seed Catalogue Poems:

Seed Catalogue Robert Kroetsch, 2004 In this seminal work of poetry now widely recognized to have signaled a new era in Western Canadian writing Robert Kroetsch departs on an expedition into history and story literary form and myth in search of the answer to the question of how to grow a poet on the limitless prairie where compared with European antecedents all is absence The question sends him on a literary archeological dig into an early seed catalogue and from there into a garden of memory and story where the particulars of prairie experience shape a new geography of language and expression In this new edition of the work that brought the long poem to Western Canadian literature renowned Alberta wood engraver Jim Westergard adds yet another level of interrogation with a series of visual responses to the questions posed by the poem BOOK JACKET

Completed Field Notes Robert Kroetsch, 2000-11 This book brings together twenty of Kroetsch's long poems spanning some of 15 years of creative activity Remarkably versatile in both form and content these extended meditations bear witness to Kroetsch's modernist inheritance and his well known commitment to post modern jouissance

On the Other Side(s) of 150 Linda M. Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side(s) of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada's sesquicentennial celebrations It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks

The Body and the Book, 2015-06-29 The stimulating mix of academics and practising poets that have contributed to this volume provides an unusual and illuminating integration of critical and creative practice and a vibrantly diverse approach to questions of poetry and sexuality Each section of essays is complemented by poems which creatively illustrate or develop the theme with which the essays critically engage Rather than being limited to a specific genre tradition time or place this collection seeks to make a virtue of contrast comparison and juxtaposition The collection is arranged into sections that range broadly across the thematic ground of dichotomies traditions and revisions microscopic and macroscopic perspectives women and embodiment and the notion of play and performance Positioning eighteenth century tinkers ballads alongside medieval Hebrew lyrics and the Blues of Gorgeous Puddin or making Dionysus rub shoulders with Sharon Olds and Mrs Rochester provides new perspectives on familiar material and valuable insights into more obscure work and the nature of sensual poetry as a mode of expression As the editors suggest the essays and poems presented collectively argue that writings about sexuality are always already about the way poets see and represent our bodies the world and poetic language itself The Home Place Dennis Cooley,2016-03-18 He wants to sit and visit at the kitchen table and he can hardly wait to get on the road again From Chapter 1 Robert Kroetsch one of Canada s most important writers was a fierce regionalist with a porous yet resilient sense of home Although his criticism and fiction have received extensive attention his poetry remains underexplored This exuberantly polyvocal text insightfully written by dennis cooley who knew Kroetsch and worked with him for decades seeks to correct that imbalance The Home Place offers a dazzling playful and intellectually complex conversation drawing together personal recollections Kroetsch s archival materials and the international body of Kroetsch scholarship For literary scholars and anyone who appreciates Canadian literature The Home Place will represent the standard critical evaluation of Kroetsch s poetry for years to come Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten,2019-09-05 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy s continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past Paul Muldoon in America Alex Alonso,2021 A study of the later career of the poet Paul Muldoon who left his native Northern Ireland for the United States in 1987 and acquired US citizenship The volume explores how the move to the US influenced Muldoon s work especially concerning themes of departure and return Literary Community-Making Roger D. Sell,2012 The writing and reading of so called literary texts can be seen as processes which are genuinely communicational They lead that is to say to the growth of communities within which individuals acknowledge not only each other s similarities but differences as well In this new book Roger D Sell and his colleagues apply the communicational perspective to the past four centuries of literary activity in English Paying detailed attention to texts both canonical and non canonical by Amelia Lanyer Thomas Coryate John Boys Pope Coleridge Arnold Kipling William Plomer Auden Walter Macken Robert Kroetsch Rudy Wiebe and Lyn Hejinian the book shows how the communicational issues of addressivity commonality dialogicality and ethics have arisen in widely different historical contexts At a metascholarly level it suggests that the communicational criticism of literary texts has significant cultural social and political roles to play in the post postmodern era of rampant globalization Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University Library, 1972 The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-06-08 A fully revised second edition of this multi author account of Canadian literature from Aboriginal writing to Margaret Atwood Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... and Year Book of American Poetry, 1929 Un/Framing Topographies Weronika Suchacka, Bartosz Wójcik, 2025-06-16 The volume is a collection of essays by acclaimed and widely published international scholars of space working within different disciplines such as social sciences history applied sciences and media theory literary and cultural studies American Canadian French German Mexican American and Polish Their contributions substantiate the argument that the debate on space has produced a polyphony of argumentation which resulted in the multiplication and diversification of perspectives and interpretations of the studied concept The volume captures the present state of the most recent debate on space exploring the importance of its multifaceted nature evinced by the abundance of research on such related terms as border boundary and or region The Black Prairie Archives Karina Vernon, 2020-02-19 The Black Prairie Archives An Anthology recovers a new regional archive of black prairie literature and includes writing that ranges from work by nineteenth century black fur traders and pioneers all of it published here for the first time to contemporary writing of the twenty first century This anthology establishes a new black prairie literary tradition and transforms inherited understandings of what prairie literature looks and sounds like It collects varied and unique work by writers who were both conscious and unconscious of themselves as black writers or as prairie people Their letters recipes oral literature autobiographies rap and poetry provide vivid glimpses into the reality of their lived experiences and give meaning to them The book includes introductory notes for each writer in non specialist language and notes to assist readers in their engagement with the literature This archive and its supporting text offer new scholarly and pedagogical possibilities by expanding the nation s and the region s archives They enrich our understanding of black Canada by bringing to light the prairies black histories cultures and presences A History of Canadian Literature William H. New, William Herbert New, 2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary

From Cohen to Carson Ian Rae, 2008-03-26 From Cohen to Carson provides the first book length analysis of one of Canada's most distinctive fields of literary production Ian Rae argues that Canadian poets have turned to the novel because of the limitations of the lyric but have used lyric methods puns symbolism repetition juxtaposition to create a mode of narrative that contrasts sharply with the descriptive conventions of realist and plot driven novels Post-glacial Robert Kroetsch, 2019-10-15 Post glacial is a collection of poems by Robert Kroetsch selected by his former student David Eso The book features Kroetsch's iconic collection Completed Field Notes alongside rare work gathered from different stages of Kroetsch's career The book contains an afterword by Aritha van Herk Kroetsch's poetry evolved from short lyric poetry in the 1960s to postmodern long poems in the 1970s and 80s Kroetsch's work in the 1990s and 2000s was marked by the production of experimental chapbooks Yet it is in the 2000s that Kroetsch's celebrated The Hornbooks of Rita K and his final collection Too Bad were published Post glacial presents the material in a thematic arc that follows daily seasonal and biographical topics The collection moves from moods of morning spring and youth to shades of darkness winter and mourning In the introduction Eso charts Kroetsch's early attempts at poetry in his teenage and undergraduate years Eso takes the title Post glacial from the poem Lonesome Writer Diptych and proposes the term as an alternative to postmodernism a term often used by critics to describe Kroetsch's work Post glacial emphasizes the poet's interest in landscape ecology history the presence of absence and the endurance of a living past Hewing to Experience Sherman

Paul, 1989-11 The celebration of a point of view that Paul is uniquely equipped to communicate It provides an excellent treatment of the development and practice of a powerful poetic force in modern poetry today showing the theoretic coherence of Emerson Whitman Pound Williams and particularly Olson as originators and practitioners of open forms Thomas Merrill This book is going to be of value to a number of different readers For teachers and writers it is a resource and a stimulus for participating in an open poetics On a utilitarian level it will help to respond to the recent Us / Them, 2021-11-22 Bolder Flights Frank Tierney, Angela Arnold Robbeson, 1999-01-07 A growing number of literary historians and critics now recognize the contemporary long poem as a distinctively Canadian genre This collection of essays leads the reader to a deeper understanding of Canadian literary cultures in terms of their local intimacies and idiosyncrasies as well as in their national contexts Published in English
