Seeds Of Success Entrepreneurship And Youth:

Seeds of Success William B. Walstad, Marilyn L. Kourilsky, 1999 Entrepreneurship and Local Economic Development Norman Walzer, 2007-10-08 Entrepreneurship and Local Economic Development delves into the current thinking on local entrepreneurship development programs and evaluates ways in which practitioners can implement successful entrepreneurship practices Examining the role and potential for entrepreneurship programs in local economic development strategies contributors to this edited collection have many years of experience working with entrepreneurship initiatives in state and local governments Focused on theory and case study Entrepreneurship and Local Economic Development examines conceptual issues involved in creating entrepreneurship programs as well as practical examples of programs organized by state regional and local agencies #Fix Young America Young Entrepreneur Council, 2012 Our government is being strangled by partisan politics youth employment is at a 60 year low and student loan debt has surpassed 1 trillion and yet young Americans are starting businesses in record numbers all over the United States If we want Millennials and future generations to survive and thrive in the new economy then we need to funnel this entrepreneurial energy into something positive or risk turning the Millennial generation into a lost generation The solutions in this book represent the beginning of an important conversation about how to support and foster the real leaders of tomorrow From policy ideas and educational programs to private sector solutions and philanthropic activities FixYoungAmerica provides best practices and tangible solutions for solving the epidemic of youth unemployment straight from the individuals and organizations that are already in the trenches working to rebuild an entrepreneurial America right now Entrepreneurship in Nebraska Eric C. Thompson, William B. Walstad, 2008-12-02 Nebraska's entrepreneurs play a vital role in the state's economy This book investigates that role and analyzes the business and economic conditions that affect start ups in both the short and long run Using Gallup's extensive survey findings it reveals the attitudes of small business owners and the general public about topics such as starting a business entrepreneurship education economic development and business transition and succession Research into business conditions and attitudes in different regions of Nebraska provides an in depth understanding of the climate for entrepreneurship In its final chapter the book describes what actions can be taken to maintain the state's dynamic economy to foster further growth additional job creation and expanded wealth and philanthropy Through its scope and comprehensive analysis Entrepreneurship in Nebraska provides a model that any state can use to advance its own economic climate Career Development in Childhood and Adolescence, 2007-01-01 In the past few years many career theorists have noted the dearth of literature in the area of career development in childhood and adolescence A growing need for integrating theory and research on the early stages of vocational development within a systemic life span developmental approach has been articulated This volume the first book dedicated to career development of children and adolescents provides a broad and comprehensive overview of the current knowledge about the key career processes that take place in this age group Each of the eighteen chapters represents an in depth examination of a specific aspect of career development with a focus on integrating modern career theory and ongoing research and further developing theory practice connections in understanding child and adolescent career behaviour Twenty six authors leading experts from eight countries provide a state of the art summary of the current thinking in the field and outline directions for future empirical work and practice

Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurship Policy David B. Audretsch, Isabel Grilo, A. Roy Thurik, 2007 This book is a well written and handy source for readers Additionally it provides an overview of current issues relevant to the development of entrepreneurial policy which is based on interesting case studies across a number of nations Dessy Irawati International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research What is new in the world is the need to understand business dynamics the entry exit and growth of firms in the economy This dynamic firm structure as opposed to the static firm structure that dominated past thinking has spurred an outpouring of research The heart of the issue is that while many have identified the importance of business dynamics entry and exit we have only recently taken a closer look at the ecological system in which some companies must die for others to thrive Entrepreneurs are the predators of this system Public policy in an entrepreneurial economy dynamic must limit the forces that prevent firm exit and foster the forces that promote firm entry This book makes an important contribution to the debate Zoltan J Acs George Mason University US and Max Planck Institute of Economics Germany This unique Handbook provides a solid foundation for essential study in the nascent field of entrepreneurship policy research This foundation is initially developed via the exploration of two significant propositions underpinning the nature of entrepreneurship policy research The first is that entrepreneurship has emerged as a bona fide focus of public policy particularly with respect to economic growth and employment creation The second is that neither scholars nor policy makers are presently equipped to understand the public policy role for entrepreneurship The contributors experienced scholars specialist researchers and dynamic policy makers thus grapple with novel questions of considerable policy relevance that few have previously posed The Handbook therefore provides some of the first crucial systematic analyses of important issues and key questions to be raised in order to move entrepreneurship policy forward are also presented Written by academics and practitioners drawing examples from both North America and Europe this stimulating new Handbook is a prerequisite for students scholars and practitioners in the incipient world of entrepreneurship policy

Current Topics in Management M. Afzalur Rahim, M. Rahim, 2009-11-01 As the series editor M Afalur Rahim points out with justifiable pride for the past fourteen years Current Topics in Management has provided high quality research and theory on management concerns at the international as well as national levels and done so through with respect for the universality collegiality and need for broad involvement The present volume continues and expands on that tradition and is predicated on the need for high level interactions between human motivation and organiational performance While each essay is unique and can stand alone the volume demonstrates a linkage in four major sections organiational behavior and performance strategy structure and performance cognition common sense and effectiveness and entrepreneurship as a whole This makes possible a unique title for the volume as a whole Organizational Behavior Performance and Effectiveness This volume takes on innovative dimensions in its own right the relationship between competence performance and longevity in issues of social support networks and organizational turnover the issue of competence destroying technologies that are engulfed by uncertainty firm performance and cognitive differentiation of tasks management premises and cellular organizations both past and present and wider issues of cognition in the performance of tasks and the design of enterprises This is in short a cutting edge volume of potential wide use and interest in a variety of public and private managerial situations M Afalur Rahim is the founding editor of the International Journal of Organizational Analysis and International Journal of Conflict Management author of twenty books and numerous journal articles and is a University Distinguished Professor at Western Kentucky University

Agripreneurship across Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2019-05-01 This publication aims to inspire budding entrepreneurs in Africa to consider business opportunities in agriculture and agro industry broadly defined It is intended to be a promotional tool as a sort of call to arms particularly for women and youth It also aims to serve as an educational tool and knowledge product in business schools and entrepreneurship incubator programmes for case study based learning on operating an agribusiness or agro industry enterprise in Africa The publication offers guidance to agripreneurs on how to overcome or avoid potential pitfalls and learn from the paths set out by the 12 agripreneurs whose stories reflect real life experiences of agribusiness development in Africa It should be seen as a collection of resources on agripreneurship focused on these four topical areas scale women youth and challenging environments while providing guiding advice for agripreneurs and policy makers In addition to educating entrepreneurs it is important to highlight the fundamental role of policy makers in shaping the enabling environment for agripreneurship In this context the publication aims to provide concrete policy recommendations on how to improve the enabling environment for agripreneurship based on the advice of the 12 agripreneurs featured here The aim is to guide policy makers to improve these targeted areas and inspire them to do so by providing accounts of successful agripreneurs who have built businesses with positive economic social and environmental impacts on national development Latin American Economic Outlook 2017 Youth, Skills and Entrepreneurship OECD,CAF Development Bank of Latin America,Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean,2016-10-29 The 2017 edition of the Latin American Economic Outlook explores youth skills and entrepreneurship Young Latin Americans embody the region s promise and perils They stand at the crossroads of a region whose once promising economy and social progress is now undergoing a slowdown The Journal of Economic Perspectives ,2001 This journal attempts to fill a gap between the general interest press and other academic economics journals Its articles relate to active lines of economics research economic analysis of public policy issues state of the art economic thinking and directions for future research It also aims to provide material for classroom use and to address issues relating to the economics profession The Entrepreneur in Youth Marilyn L. Kourilsky,William B. Walstad,Andrew Thomas,2007-01-01 This readable and modestly priced text will appeal to academics researching and teaching entrepreneurship policy makers and students studying entrepreneurship at all levels in higher education especially those studying final year specialist electives or at Master s level David W Taylor International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research Young Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Katherine V. Gough,Thilde Langevang,2016-03-02 Young people in sub Saharan Africa are growing up in rapidly changing social and economic environments which produce high levels of un and underemployment Job creation through entrepreneurship is currently being promoted by international organizations governments and NGOs as a key solution despite there being a dearth of knowledge about youth entrepreneurship in an African context This book makes an important contribution by exploring the nature of youth entrepreneurship in Ghana Uganda and Zambia It provides new insights into conceptual and methodological discussions of youth entrepreneurship as well as presenting original empirical data Drawing on quantitative and qualitative research conducted under the auspices of a collaborative interdisciplinary and comparative research project it highlights the opportunities and challenges young people face in setting up and running businesses Divided into a number of clear sections each with its own introduction and conclusion the book considers the nature of youth entrepreneurship at the national level in both urban and rural areas in specific sectors including mobile telephony mining handicrafts and tourism and analyses how key factors such as microfinance social capital and entrepreneurship education affect youth entrepreneurship New light is shed on the multi faceted nature of youth entrepreneurship and a convincing case is presented for a more nuanced understanding of the term entrepreneurship and the situation faced by many African youth today This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars interested in youth entrepreneurship including in development studies business studies youth studies and geography as well as to development practitioners and policy makers The Open Access title has now been added to the Open Access page <http://www.tandfebooks.com/page/openaccess>
