Marshall, 2017-09-15 In First Corinthians Paul makes two conflicting statements about women s speech He crafts a difficult argument about whether men and women should cover their heads while praying or prophesying 11 2 16 and instructs women to be silent in the assembly 14 34 35 These two statements bracket an extended discussion about inspired modes of speech prophecy and prayer in tongues From these exegetical observations Jill E Marshall argues that gender is a central issue throughout 1 Corinthians 11 14 and the religious speaking practices that prompted Paul s response She situates Paul s arguments about prayer and prophecy within their ancient Mediterranean cultural context using literary and archaeological evidence and examines the differences in how ancient writers described prophetic speech when voiced by a man or a woman
